TOOLS FOR THE MINISTRY JOURNEY

MICHAEL RUMENDE

PRODUCTIVE, NOT JUST BUSY

A practical session on building one simple system for your calendar, to-do list and tech, so you're actually productive, not just flat out. For anyone serving in a ministry team, paid or volunteer.

JOHN LAMERTON

CROSS CULTURAL PARTNERSHIPS, IN AUSTRALIA AND BEYOND

Unpacking the principles required for impactful and healthy cross-cultural partnerships and what this means for Aussie Churches as they seek to fulfill the Great Commission, both with First Nation Australians and internationally.

IN THE ESSENTIALS UNITY

One of the most liberating and yet problematic sayings of the Restoration Movement advocates for a broad church with a very basic commitment - a vision for Christian unity. If the vision of the church of Christ is unity, then what are the essential commitments of Christian faith that hold us in the orbit of hospitality towards all Christians? This workshop will explore some background to this conversation and why it is an important part of our identity as a Christian movement today.

ARE YOU REALLY A LOCAL CHURCH?

What could happen if your church became known as a church that is genuinely for its community? Explore how to build meaningful relationships with schools, local government and community organisations, with real examples, resources and simple ideas you can adapt in your own context.

ROCHELLE MASTERS

BEYOND SELF-CARE: WHAT ACTUALLY KEEPS A PERSON WELL

Self-care advice is fine, but too small. Clinical psychologist Rochelle Masters moves us beyond it – toward a fuller picture of what actually sustains a person over a lifetime: identity, relationships, meaning, limits, and the conditions we live and work in.

BEYOND OUR WALLS: WHY AUSTRALIA'S FUTURE DEPENDS ON OUTWARD FACING CHURCHES

Beyond Our Walls is for leaders and teams wrestling with how to become an outward-facing church in a largely unchurched Australia. A church that goes wider and deeper without watering down the message or treating people as projects. Australia may not come back to church as we've known it. Are we willing to go where Australia already is?
