FATHER COREY'S EPISTLE

† Another young person who is a prime example of how every Catholic can use their enthusiasm to live life to the fullest for Christ—no matter how short the life:

Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati's enthusiastic devotion to God and to his fellow man. "I wanted to pay homage to a young man who was able to witness to Christ with singular effectiveness in this century of ours. When I was a young man, I, too, felt the beneficial influence of this example, and as a student, I was impressed by the force of his testimony," Pope John Paul II commented after visiting Frassati's final resting place. The following year, the Pope would beatify Frassati, calling him the "Man of the Eight Beatitudes."

Pier Giorgio was part of a wealthy and influential family in Italy and he devoted his life to activism and serving the poor. He was studying to be a mining engineer because he desired to serve Christ among miners. He always put studies first, but was an active member of multiple organizations including Catholic Action and the People's Party. He even helped start the first Pax Romana group to promote universal peace through the unity of Catholic students worldwide.

As a young man, he gave everything of himself to others. His wealthy father was careful not to spoil his children by giving them excessive money, but Frassati still used the little he had for others. For instance, he would run home in time for dinner after giving his bus/train fare to the poor. He was a daily communicant and a third-order Dominican. He sacrificed summer vacation at the family summer house, saying, "If everybody leaves Turin, who will take care of the poor?"

In addition to his fierce dedication to serving others, he also loved art and music. He organized alpine outings with friends, and he led companions to the faith through prayer and the sacraments.

He was not afraid to physically defend himself, the weak, or his cause; he fought anticlerical Communists, Fascists, lifted a fallen banner in a demonstration in Rome while using the pole to defend against guards, and chased out fascists who broke into his family home aiming to harm him and his father. At the demonstration in Rome, as his friends were being captured and arrested, he refused special treatment offered due to his father's political position.

Frassati died from poliomyelitis before graduating from the Royal Polytechnic University of Turin. He most likely contracted the illness from the sick people for whom he cared. Despite the tremendous pain, he neglected to see a doctor for himself his grandmother was dying. Before dying, he cared for others before himself still and sent medicine to a poor sick man.

At his funeral, the streets were lined with thousands of people his parents never met who had loved and been helped by their young, enthusiastic, and devout son. His body was later found to be intact and incorrupt.

He was canonized Pope Leo XIV on September 7, 2025, during the Jubilee Year, alongside Carlo Acutis. He is a patron of youth, young adults, mountaineers, and World Youth Day.

St. Pier Giorgio Frassati, pray for us that we may be as devoted to others and enthusiastic as you in our fight for our faith!

Are you:

- A person who has not been baptized but recognize a need for spirituality in your life and have expressed an interest in learning more about Jesus?
- A Baptized Christian of another denomination who would like to learn about and possibly join the Catholic tradition?
- A Baptized Roman Catholic who has not received the Sacrament of Holy Eucharist and/or Confirmation and would like to become a full participant in the life of the Church?
- Married to a Catholic and attend Mass but just don't know what the next step is to become on of the Catholic faithful

If your answer is yes to any of these questions, come and discover, or re-discover, the truth, wonder and mystery of our Catholic faith! The OCIA program prepares you to be received as members of the Catholic Church.

Our new sessions begin in September and we meet on Sundays in the Notre Dame Center from 12:30-2pm.

If you are interested in participating our learning more about OCIA, call (203)744-5777 or email Deacon Eric Keener at dnkeener@diobpt.org.

STRENGTHENING PARISHES AND SCHOOLS THROUGH THE SETON COLLABORATIVE

The Seton Collaborative is a new diocesan nonprofit created to strengthen our parishes and schools by transforming how they operate so they can better serve their communities and support both academic excellence and spiritual growth.

By identifying efficiencies, standardizing and automating processes, sharing best practices, developing staff, and leveraging economies of scale, the Seton Collaborative helps ministries focus more fully on their mission of forming disciples and educating future generations.

The mission of the Seton Collaborative is to promote growth and innovation in schools and parishes by contributing expertise, creativity, resources, and capital to drive renewal across the Diocese of Bridgeport.

As Bishop Frank J. Caggiano reminds us,

"For the Church to be renewed, we must unlock the talents that have been given to us. And for the Church to grow, we need to collaborate."

Through the Bishop's Appeal One in Christ, your support makes this vital work possible.

The Knights of Columbus are a Catholic fraternal service order founded by Blessed Michael McGivney in 1882. We support the principles of Charity, Unity, Fraternity & Patriotism in the Parishes of St. Mary Bethel, St. Patrick Redding & nearby communities. Charity is the first principle of the Knights of Columbus, and we are Catholic men of charitable action. If you're at least 18 years of age, we invite you to join us. Our meetings are held every second and fourth Monday at 7pm in Father McGivney Hall.

Saint Rita

St. Rita of Cascia is immortalized in this wonderful, deeply moving film. This story is about the brave woman who married her knight, helped him overcome his dark past and convert to faith, happily bore him two children, and later endures immense pain as she loses everything in her life. Her story and love for Christ will inspire you to great holiness!

The Ascension | Sacred Art

Join Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor Kemp to expand your knowledge of sacred art. In this episode on Formed, they discuss The Ascension of Christ by Jacopo Tintoretto.

Saint Rita of Cascia: The True Story

A compelling docu-drama that tells the whole story of the amazing life of St. Rita of Cascia, the very popular saint who lived in Italy in the 14th century. Famous as the patroness of hopeless situations, St. Rita dealt with many very difficult and tragic events in her life. Through it all she developed a profound faith in God that was the source of her great strength, and why she is such a popular saint for all those dealing with difficult events in their own lives.

BROTHERHOOD IN ACTION Thank you for your generous support of the Brotherhood in Action. The generous donations of the people of St. Mary's makes it possible for our organization to exist and be able to give those in our community a sense of hope for happy holidays and year-round. If you wish to continue to help our mission throughout the year, monetary donations may be sent to: Brotherhood in Action, P.O. Box 582, Bethel, CT. 06801. Thank you again for your generosity!!

OFF THE STREETS is an all volunteer organization that assists those in need of housing. For those individuals that demonstrate a willingness to get off the streets, we provide security deposits, furniture and household items. We ask you to consider a donation to Off The Streets so that we can continue to provide money for security deposits. The cost of apartments in our area is excessive and there is a shortage of low cost housing. A security deposit could be the deal breaker for someone seeking shelter. On the first Saturday of every month we collect donations between ten and noon at South Street Self Storage located at 39-A South St in Danbury. You can contact Mike at otsdanburymr@gmail.com with any questions you may have or scan the code for a list of items we can accept.

If you would like to support our work, please send contributions to: Off the Streets, PO Box 591, Bethel CT 06801. or donate online by cut and pasting the link below into your browser <https://gofund.me/baa5b98d>

Diocese of Bridgeport Project Rachel Ministry – Jesus Keeps on Loving You, No Matter What

“As we approach Lent, please allow me to speak to all who carry the unbearable sadness and guilt of an abortion experience. Be assured that Jesus keeps on loving you, no matter what. I pray that God plants a seed of hope in every heart that is overwhelmed by sadness and despair from participation in abortion. This Lent, the Lord’s mercy awaits you. Allow Him to heal you and lift your sadness into joy.” – Bishop Daniel E. Thomas, Chairman, USCCB Committee on Pro-Life Activities.

The Diocese of Bridgeport’s Project Rachel Ministry is here to help you. For confidential assistance or information on upcoming events, please contact Maureen at 203-416-1619 or projectrachel@diobpt.org. There is hope after abortion.

A PRAYER YOU MUST SAY EVERY DAY

Lord, before I do anything else, I invite you into my day. I don’t want to rush ahead without You, and I don’t take it for granted.

Dear God, thank You for this new day. If I lose focus, bring me back. If I grow anxious be my calm.

Please go before me today. Open the right doors. Give me peace in uncertainty, strength in the waiting, and clarity where I feel confused.

You’ve brought me this far — I trust You with what’s next. Please give me the courage to share this prayer with at least one person.

In Jesus’ name. Amen.
