General Price List
Effective January 1, 2026

The goods and services shown below are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

Basic Services of Funeral Director and Staff and Overhead.....$2,500.00

Our services include: conducting the arrangements conference, planning the funeral, consulting with family and clergy, preparing and filing of necessary notices, securing necessary permits and authorizations, coordinating with the cemetery, crematory and/or other third parties. In addition, this fee includes a proportionate share of our basic overhead costs.

This fee for our basic services and overhead will be added to the total cost of the funeral arrangements you select. (This fee is already included in our charges for direct cremations, immediate burials, and forwarding or receiving remains and our package pricing.)

Embalming.....$495.00

Except in certain special cases, embalming is not required by law. Embalming may be necessary however, if you select certain funeral arrangements, such as a funeral with viewing. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right to choose an arrangement, such as direct cremation or immediate burial, that does not require you to pay for it.

Please Note: Our general price list does not include third party charges, that are not under the control of the funeral home and are not "marked up" for purposes of making a profit.

Some of our package prices include some common third party charges-please read each package for a complete description of what third party charges are included with it.

Many funeral arrangements will require third party charges in order to be properly executed, please keep the following charges in mind when considering total funeral costs: cremation permit, death certificates, clergy honorariums, paid obituaries in newspapers (our online obituaries on our website and Facebook page are always complimentary), honorariums for organists/soloists, fees for using a church, funeral meals, grave opening and closing, vault delivery and set-up, cost of purchasing a grave if you do not already own cemetery property. In cases of large third party charges, we may ask you to pay the third party charges up front if you are using life insurance assignment as a form of payment. This is on a case by case basis and uncommon, but may be necessary in cases of large expenditures. We thank you for your understanding.

Hoffen Funeral Home accepts the following forms of payment: cash, checks, Visa, Mastercard, American Express, Discover and financing through Lending USA. We will also accept verified life insurance policies that allow funeral home assignment (Fee of 3% added unless using Mutual or United of Omaha Life Insurance Policies). It is the purchaser's sole responsibility to provide to us, at the time of the arrangement conference or before, all applicable information necessary to file an insurance claim and properly authorize our assignment (including cooperation from and signatures on assignments from ALL LISTED BENEFICIARIES, policy number(s), face amount, death benefit amount, length of policy life (ie: how long has policy been active?, loans against policy, phone numbers/email addresses of claims department). Hoffen Funeral Home will assist the purchaser in procuring the above information, but it remains the purchaser's sole responsibility to provide as much information as possible. Failure to provide said information will result in our refusal to accept any life insurance policy for assignment. All payments are due at the conclusion of the arrangement conference unless other arrangements have been made in advance. Hoffen Funeral Home is a small business and we thank you for your understanding and cooperation.
