Dear Friends in Christ,

On this second Sunday of Advent, Jesus encounters us in the desert, speaking through John the Baptist. John the Baptist wasn't an ordinary guy, but he didn't share an ordinary message either. In the world full of business and full of worldly wisdom, John needed to do something extraordinary to catch peoples' attention. He lived in the desert, ate locust and wild honey, wore camel skin. Odd looking fellow, and yet people came to him to listen to him. As they listened, they received the Baptism of Repentance. In some odd way, they saw John as a messenger from God whom they needed to listen to. But John, knew that it was not about him, he drew attention, but he was quick to point out to a greater person, to a greater reason for his behavior and for his message.

We are in the second Sunday of Advent. The time is moving fast and before we know it, we will be celebrating the day of Christmas. After all that is what we are preparing for. But do we know what we truly are preparing for? Do we really spend time on praying and mediating on what Christmas is all about? Do we ask ourselves, what does it mean for me to prepare myself for the birth of Messiah? These are some questions we may wrestle with as we decorate homes, put up the Christmas trees and send Christmas letters. Emmanuel means God is with us. And if God is with us, do we remember to ready a place for him in our homes and in our hearts.

In many ways, we work hard on making the coming of Christ, a special time. The joy that can be felt in our environment is great experience. Our life is lifted by the generosity and kindness we share with each other. That spirit of Christmas is already being felt, but let's not forget that Christ will look not only at our "feel good" experiences, but also at the reason we do them. One may ask, in all I do during Advent, as I prepare for Christmas, where do I see God present. Where is the message of the Gospel present? How do I help others on their journey with God? These are just some of the thoughts we could wrestle with, as we continue the journey of Advent. The time is near, and God is ready to Baptize us with the fire and the Spirit. May he find in us worthy people of His grace and mercy.

Happy and blessed Advent.

Fr. Andrzej

Retirement Fund for Religious

Please give to those who have given a lifetime.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

During December 13-14, our parishes will take up the annual collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious. This important annual appeal benefits more than 20,500 senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests who have dedicated their lives in service to the Church, including the Benedictine Sisters of Saint Martin Monastery, who have so generously served our diocese.

On the third Saturday of November, I met with the religious women and men who serve the Diocese of Rapid City. During our conversations, I was inspired by the dedication and joy they bring to their ministry. These faithful servants have long been a source of inspiration and support in our communities. I am personally grateful for the religious who helped shape my own faith journey. Perhaps you, too, have known an elderly sister, brother, or religious order priest whose quiet dedication, prayerful presence, or selfless acts left a lasting impression on your life.

Today, the challenges many of these senior religious and their communities face in meeting their retirement needs are greater than ever. Most received little to no pay for their service, and their communities struggle to cover rising health care expenses and the increasing cost of day-to-day eldercare. The financial burdens continue to grow, and the need is urgent.

Gifts to the Retirement Fund for Religious make a real, tangible difference to these many women and men religious. Contributions directly support their ongoing care today and help ensure that their communities can plan wisely for their future.

I know you are asked to support many worthy causes, and I thank you for the many ways you give. Please consider making a gift to this year's collection if you are able—and continue to pray for all our elderly religious. They also remember us daily in their prayers.

May God bless you and your loved ones abundantly with peace and health. Please pick up an envelope from the table in the entry way or put retired religious in the memo of your check.

Sincerely in the love of Christ,

Most Rev. Scott E. Bullock, JCL
Bishop of Rapid City

Second Sunday of Advent

Is 11:1-10 | Rom 15:4-9 | Mt 3:1-12

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Today's Gospel is a challenging one, inviting us to consider how much spiritual fruit we are bearing in our lives. St. John the Baptist tells us, "Produce good fruit as evidence of your repentance," reminding us that the depth of our conversion will be measured by our fruit. Speaking to the Pharisees and Sadducees, John says it is not enough to say that "We have Abraham as our father." If he were speaking today, John might put it this way: it's not enough to say "I'm Catholic!" or "I belong to X Parish." Our lives must show outward evidence of the inward conversion we have undergone. The good news for us today is that we can pause and take stock of how well we are bearing spiritual fruit. Pay attention to what areas might need pruning or fertilizing to ensure that when we come to the Lord's threshing floor at the end of our lives, there is a bountiful harvest he can gather into his barn.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Our first reading gives us a glimpse of God's kingdom: The Son of David will rule with wisdom, understanding, counsel, and knowledge, judging "the poor with justice" and striking "the ruthless with the rod of his mouth." In his kingdom "the wolf shall be a guest of the lamb" and yet "there shall be no harm or ruin." What a poetic way of describing the harmony and wholeness that God longs for in society! As disciples, this is our mission. We're called to work so that God's kingdom vision can become reality. As we work for peace and justice, we're doing our part in the Church's work of evangelization. As the U.S. bishops reminded us in their letter Communities of Salt and Light, "social justice is an integral part of evangelization, a constitutive dimension of preaching the Gospel, and an essential part of the Church's mission."

REFLECT

In the Gospel, John the Baptist says of Jesus, "He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire." Our ability to bear spiritual fruit comes from the power of the Holy Spirit within us. Take a moment to reflect on where you see the gifts (see the first reading from Isaiah!) and fruits of the Holy Spirit in your life. How might the Spirit of God be working to increase your spiritual fruitfulness this Advent?
