

Research invite for people with an intellectual disability for a workshop to be held in Newcastle

Hi, my name is Erin.

I have an intellectual disability.

This is Peri.

Peri is a carer of a person with an intellectual disability.

We work together with a team of researchers at the University of NSW. We are making a new computer tool. This tool will help people with intellectual disability get the right help when they are sick.

You can help us to make sure that the tool works well for people with intellectual disability.

You can help by:

- Joining a co-design workshop on 2 December 2026
- This co-design workshop will be held at Charlestown in Newcastle, NSW
- The workshop is from 10am to 3pm
- It includes morning tea and lunch

You can decide if you want to help or not. If you decide to help, you will get $100 voucher for your time.

CONTACT US

To register for this workshop or to ask questions: Contact Peri O'Shea at UNSW.

Ph: 02 9348 1997 Email: p.oshea@unsw.edu.au

Or you can ask the person who gave you this flyer to help.

This study has ethics approval from the UNSW HREC. Any person with concerns or complaints about the conduct of this study should contact the UNSW Human Research Ethics Officer on 02 9385 6222 and quote reference number: iRECS10700.