MEMORANDUM

TO: NAIOP
FROM: GrayRobinson
DATE: March 28, 2021
SUBJECT: 2021 Legislative Session – Week 4 (March 22-26)

Governor Ron DeSantis announced COVID-19 vaccine eligibility will be open to those 40 and older tomorrow (Monday, March 29), and thereafter to all adults on Monday, April 5. The move comes after several reductions in the minimum age for eligibility, which lingered at 65 until earlier this month when it began to drop each week. The announcement follows similar action by surrounding states and puts Florida nearly a month ahead of President Joe Biden’s goal of universal adult eligibility by May 1.

This week, which marks the halfway point of session, saw the House and Senate roll out their initial budget recommendations. Compared to the current fiscal year, the 2021-2022 spending plans are leaner. However, the budgets are based on outdated revenue estimates that do not account for the improved economy (next revenue estimate is expected in mid-April) and billions of dollars Florida will receive from the latest federal coronavirus relief package.

For now, the Senate has proposed a $95 billion budget, which includes $5 billion in reserves. The House proposal is at $97.1 billion, which also includes $5 billion in reserves. Both budgets include major cuts to Medicaid rates and higher education. Both plans also fully fund the FDOT work program and honor the Governor’s request for $625+ million towards water quality and storage funding.

In a controversial proposal, legislative leadership also pitched a plan that would direct two-thirds of affordable housing money toward programs addressing sea-level rise and wastewater grants. Whether to raid or protect the Sadowski Trust Fund is an annual fight in Tallahassee and, in the current-year budget, the House and Senate fully funded affordable housing before COVID-19 required vetoes. Governor DeSantis called for fully funding the programs again in his proposed spending plan presented to the Legislature and he is yet to weigh in on this new proposal.

The House passed a controversial bill that would increase penalties for certain crimes committed during protests. Combatting Public Disorder (HB 1) is a priority of legislative leaders and Gov. DeSantis; however, the Senate bill has been stalled for weeks by Sen. Jason Pizzo, a Miami Democrat who chairs the Senate Criminal Justice Committee. A procedural maneuver used for an unrelated bill last week could have been a preview for a controversial strategy Republican Senate leaders may employ to pass the bill.

All of these, a preview of Week 5, our Federal Spotlight and current Session Statistics are detailed below.

But first, here are the two proposed budgets at a glance.

Summary of Session Week 4 (March 22-26)
In case you missed it, here is an update on last week’s legislation to watch:
Florida to take on the CDC? Governor DeSantis, Attorney General Ashley Moody, and FDOT Secretary Kevin Thibault paid a visit on Friday morning to Port Canaveral’s beautiful new Cruise Terminal 3 (which should have been open for operation last summer if not for the pandemic and the CDC’s no sail order) to hold a roundtable with Cruise Line Executives, State Senators Debbie Mayfield and Tom Wright, Canaveral CEO John Murray, and small business owners severely impacted by the lack of cruise business. The discussions included a plea for the CDC to work with the State to get cruiseliners back up and running and an exploration of what legal options Florida might pursue in order to get the major economic driver back in business as soon as possible.

Foreign Influence Legislation (HB 7017 by Rep. Grall/SB 2010 by Sen. Diaz) — The bills would require organizations seeking state funding to disclose any financial ties to adversarial countries, or “foreign country of concern.” The list includes China, Cuba, Iran, North Korea, Russia, Syria, and Venezuela. The legislation is a priority of Gov. DeSantis and House Speaker Sprowls. The House version cleared the House Appropriations Committee and has one stop left before the chamber floor. The Senate version was temporarily postponed and will be considered in the Senate Education Committee at 8:30 a.m. on Tuesday.

Student Financial Aid Legislation (SB 86 by Sen. Baxley) — The bill originally would have limited Bright Futures scholarship funding for degree programs that are not seen as leading directly to a job, but it has been substantially reworked following outcry from students and parents. The bill would now put a hold on course registrations for college freshmen until they confirm they are aware of their chosen degree’s job prospect potential. The bill passed the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee on a party-line vote and now heads to the chamber floor.

Online Sales Tax Legislation (HB 15 by Rep. Clemons/SB 50 by Sen. Gruters) — The bills would harness the 2017 U.S. Supreme Court decision in South Dakota v. Wayfair to require most out-of-state retailers to collect and remit sales tax. The legislation is expected to boost sales tax revenues by more than $1 billion a year, with the revenues being used to refill the state’s unemployment trust fund. The Senate passed the bill with a 30-10 vote.

State Preemption of Seaport Regulations Legislation (HB 267 by Rep. Roach/SB 426 by Sen. Boyd) — The bills would preempt local government ordinances that “restrict or regulate commerce” at Florida seaports. The provision targets a Key West ordinance aimed at keeping cruise ships away from the island. The Senate version was approved by the Senate Community Affairs Committee last week and now awaits a hearing in the Senate Rules Committee, its final stop before the chamber floor.

Preview of Week 5 (March 29 – April 2)
Constitutional Amendment Threshold Legislation (HJR 61 by Rep. Roth/SJR 1238 by Sen. Rodriguez) — The resolutions seek to raise the vote threshold for constitutional amendments to pass from 60% to two-thirds. The Senate version has already cleared its first committee. The House version will go before the House Public Integrity and Elections Committee at 10:15 a.m. on Monday.

Reemployment Assistance Legislation (SB 1906 by Sen. Brodeur) — The bill would increase the maximum weekly unemployment benefit from $275 to $375 and the minimum from $32 to $100. The current levels are among the lowest in the nation. It is one of several bills filed to increase unemployment benefit levels or duration, though most of them have been filed by Democrats and have not made a committee agenda. The Senate Commerce and Tourism Committee will consider the bill and the many amendments already filed by the sponsor when it meets at 3:30 p.m. Monday.

Manatee Presentation — The Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission will deliver a presentation on manatees to the Senate Environment and Natural Resources Committee on Monday at 3:30 p.m. So far this year, FWC reports 539 manatee deaths and the federal government has declared it an “Unusual Mortality Event.”

Alimony Legislation (HB 1559 by Rep. Rodriguez/SB 1922 by Sen. Gruters) — The bills aim to end permanent alimony. They also include provisions that would default child custody time to a 50-50 split between parents. Similar legislation has made it to the Governor’s desk in recent years, though it has been vetoed. The House bill passed its first committee last week. The Senate bill will go before the Senate Judiciary Committee on Monday at 3:30 p.m.

Appointments Considered — On Tuesday at 8:30 a.m., the Senate Education Committee will decide whether to advance 42 gubernatorial appointments to the State University System Board of Governors, the State Board of Education, and the boards of trustees at several state universities.

Additionally, on Tuesday at 9 a.m., the Senate Children, Families and Elder Affairs Committee will decide whether to advance the confirmation process for DCF Secretary Shevaun Harris, who was appointed to the position in February after former Secretary Chad Poppell resigned.

Emergency Management Powers Legislation (HB 945 by Rep. Rommel/SB 1924 by Sen. Diaz) — The bills would limit the duration of local emergency orders. The House bill would set the limit at one week and the Senate bill at 10 days, with the option to extend after that. The Senate Committee on Military and Veterans Affairs, Space, and Domestic Security will hear the bill when it meets at 12:30 p.m. on Tuesday.

Motor Vehicle Rentals Legislation (HB 365 by Rep. Caruso/ SB 566 by Sen. Perry) — The bills would regulate the emerging peer-to-peer car rental industry by requiring rentals to levy a $1-a-day surcharge and charge sales tax. The Senate bill passed its first committee last week and will go before the Senate Transportation Committee when it meets at 3:30 p.m. on Tuesday. While a comprehensive “strike all” amendment adopted in the Senate Banking and Insurance Committee reflected an agreement in principle between peer-to-peer platforms and traditional rental car companies, the bill still lacks a requirement that the platforms have a formal agreement with airports before operating on their property. Such a requirement has been included by nearly every state that has passed similar legislation and already exists in Florida statute for things such as transportation network companies (TNCs) and autonomous vehicles.

House and Senate Budgets (APC1/SB 2500) – The House and Senate budget proposals begin their respective journey through the Legislature. On Wednesday at 9am and 1pm respectively, the House and Senate Appropriations Committees will take up the proposals, consider amendments and ultimately vote them up or down.

Federal Spotlight

Momentum Builds for Action on Infrastructure
Between the expiration of the FAST Act in September and the Biden Administration’s vow to “build back better,” it seems almost certain that some form of infrastructure legislation will pass this year. U.S. Secretary of Transportation Pete Buttigieg told the U.S. House Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure that this is “the best chance in any of our lifetimes to make a generational investment in infrastructure.” Full economic recovery will require a national commitment to “fix and transform” our infrastructure, Secretary Buttigieg said, because the status quo poses rising threats to our competitiveness and national security. The Administration’s infrastructure priorities include clearing the backlog of repairs needed to existing infrastructure and improve public transit and mobility options, improving transportation reliability and safety, addressing major inequities, improving air quality, and tackling the climate crisis.
