Our Lady of the Lake Mission Statement

We, the Parish of Our Lady of the Lake, united in baptism and empowered by the Spirit, endeavor to live our commitment to proclaim God's love by: being a welcoming parish community; worshipping, working and celebrating together; serving the spiritual and material needs of all; spreading the Gospel through personal witness; inviting each parishioner to active participation in our parish life and in surrounding communities; and, through our unique call, welcoming our many visitors.

We share our gifts and ourselves in the name of Jesus. †

You know prayer is important but still find it challenging.

Perhaps it's hard to find time, or you're unsure what to do when you pray.

Or maybe you feel discouraged by your weaknesses and your inability to overcome them.

Authored and presented by Dr. Edward Sri, When You Pray also features Fr. Jacques Philippe, Fr. Josh Johnson, Fr. Gregory Pine, Sister Josephine Garrett, Fr. Donald Haggerty, and Sister Maris Stella.

If you have any of these feelings, you are not alone. Many of the saints struggled in prayer. They were like us. But each time they fell, they got up again and learned to rely more on God's grace.

Looking for a simple way to serve your Parish?

Catholics and Orthodox Christians: Shared Roots, Real Differences, and a Hope for Unity

As we get ready to begin OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) in a couple of weeks, one question always returns: How are Catholic Christians and Eastern Orthodox Christians alike, and where do we differ? We share a deep apostolic heritage and much of the same sacramental life with our Orthodox brothers and sisters, yet a few real theological distinctions remain. To give our new OCIA participants a clear starting point, I offer this brief reflection on our shared roots and the key differences that endure.

A Common Foundation

Both Churches trace their origins directly to the apostles. They profess the same faith in the Holy Trinity and in Jesus Christ as true God and true man. Both honor the Virgin Mary as Theotokos, the God-bearer, and venerate the saints as holy witnesses who lead us toward Christ. Scripture and Sacred Tradition form the basis of faith in both traditions, and each celebrates seven sacraments as real encounters with God's saving grace.

In a world where many have abandoned Christian belief altogether, this shared foundation is remarkable. Catholics and Orthodox stand together on the most essential truths of the Gospel.

How the Division Happened

The separation between East and West did not occur in a single dramatic moment. Over centuries, cultural distance, political pressures, and disagreements about authority slowly strained communion between the Latin-speaking West and the Greek-speaking East.

The year 1054, often cited as the moment of the Great Schism, involved mutual excommunications between Cardinal Humbert and Patriarch Cerularius. But the deeper rupture unfolded gradually, shaped by misunderstandings, wounded pride, and the slow unraveling of unity across generations.

Key Differences Remain

- Papal Primacy: The central issue. Catholics hold that the Pope, as successor of St. Peter, exercises universal jurisdiction over the whole Church. Ecumenical dialogues consistently affirm that papal primacy remains the root question behind most unresolved theological differences.
- The Creed: Catholics include the filioque clause ("and the Son") to describe the procession of the Holy Spirit. The Orthodox maintain the original wording, emphasizing procession from the Father alone. This reflects broader theological emphases in each tradition's understanding of the Trinity.
- Eucharist Sacramental practice: Catholics use unleavened bread, while the Orthodox use leavened bread. Orthodox Christians administer baptism, chrismation, and the Eucharist together for infants, while Catholics celebrate these sacraments at different stages of life.
- Purgatory: Catholics define it as a real state of purification after death. Orthodox Christians pray for the dead and affirm purification but do not define it in the same doctrinal terms.
- The Immaculate Conception: A defined Catholic dogma. The Orthodox honor Mary profoundly but do not articulate this doctrine in the same way.

Where Things Stand Today

Despite their differences, Catholics and Orthodox Christians share a deep love for Christ and a commitment to the apostolic faith. Dialogue between the two traditions continues today, with sincere hope that one day these ancient branches may be reconciled. By learning about each other with charity and clarity, we honor Christ's prayer "that they may all be one." – John 17:31

Food Drive Update

As of 7/28/26, Our Lady of the Lake has donated over 136 lbs of food and $90 to the Salvation Army Food Pantry for the Fraternal year 7/1/26 - 6/30/27.

Did you know the Salvation Army can buy food at just $0.18 per pound? Obviously this makes monetary contributions more effective.

Just a reminder that for every 1000 lbs of food AND for every $500 donated, K of C donates $100 to the pantry, up to $500 each from the K of C annually.

Want to make a monetary contribution to the Salvation Army Food Panty through the Knights of Columbus to help reach the bonus gift from the K of C?

"What's a boat's favorite Marian feast?"

"The Queenship of Mary!"

FUN FACT!
In very old traditions, such as the Old Testament, kings often had multiple wives, which meant many children. In those situations, a mother would often secure the crown for her son, so the title of "queen" went to the king's mother.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Does God ignore or act a bit rough with you? Jesus crosses the border into the pagan region of Tyre and Sidon, the territory long outside the covenant. There, a Canaanite woman calls out, “Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David.” At first, he is silent. Then he rebuffs her. “It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs.” But the Church Fathers saw this not as an insult but as an initiation. Christ draws out of her heart a deeper faith.

She presses on. “Please, Lord, even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters.” Jesus’ silence and response solidify her humility and trust. She thus becomes a model for prayer for centuries of Christians. St. Augustine said she shows how sinners come to grace by moving from silence to humility to perseverance.

This woman is the Church. She is you and me. She is every soul who dares to cry out from the margins, who endures divine silence until it turns to compassion. When Jesus says, “O woman, great is your faith,” it is the joyful cry of God discovering faith where the world least expects it. Even the smallest crumb of Your mercy, Lord, is enough to heal the soul. Do we have the courage to show faith like that?

— Father John Muir

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

Thus says the LORD:

Observe what is right, do what is just;
for my salvation is about to come,
my justice, about to be revealed. (Is 56:1)

Psalm:

O God, let all the nations praise you! (Ps 67)

Second Reading:

For God delivered all to disobedience,
that he might have mercy upon all. (Rom 11:32)

Gospel:

Then Jesus said to her in reply,

"O woman, great is your faith!

Let it be done for you as you wish." (Mt 15:28)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

The Canaanite woman did not take Jesus' initial refusal as rejection, but as an invitation to engage with God, to show him the depth of her faith. When our prayers are not answered as we wish, will we have the courage to do the same?

Observances for the week of August 16, 2026

Sunday:	20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Virtues, Explained!

They say that wisdom comes with experience, and it does — but only if you accept it. Wisdom originates in both our will and in our intellect, meaning we must ask the Holy Spirit for the gift of wisdom — and remember to be ready when it comes.

Prayer for Conversion in Our Communities

Dear God,
Move in our community:
Bring Your light to the darkness,
Your justice to the oppressed,
Your hope to those in despair,
Your healing to those in pain.
Work in us, Lord, and change our hearts,
making us more loving, more merciful, and more compassionate.
Amen.
