Our Lady of the Lake Mission Statement

We, the Parish of Our Lady of the Lake, united in baptism and empowered by the Spirit, endeavor to live our commitment to proclaim God's love by: being a welcoming parish community; worshipping, working and celebrating together; serving the spiritual and material needs of all; spreading the Gospel through personal witness; inviting each parishioner to active participation in our parish life and in surrounding communities; and, through our unique call, welcoming our many visitors.

We share our gifts and ourselves in the name of Jesus. †

Join Us For
Genesis: From Creation to Covenant
The Beginning of God's Story—and Yours

Our 1st session begins this Tuesday, October 13th

This is an eight-session study exploring how the first book of the Bible lays the foundation for the entire story of salvation.

The book of Genesis tells how Creation was born from God's infinite love and goodness, the chaos brought by the Fall, and the covenant promises that move salvation history forward.

Through some of the most well-known and beloved stories in Scripture—including Adam and Eve, Noah and the Ark, the Tower of Babel, Abraham, Jacob, and Joseph—God initiates his plan to restore what was lost.

Guided by Jeff Cavins and Dr. Scott Powell, this study shows how God works through every generation and covenant promise to draw his people back into relationship with him and prepare the way for our salvation, a plan that continues to unfold in our lives today.

Books will be available to purchase for $27 on Oct. 13th

Hey Deacon!

By Deacon Dan Vaughn

The Sanctus: Joining Heaven's Praise Through Active Participation

Last Sunday at OLO, our PSR faith formation topic invited us to look more deeply at what the Church means by "active participation" in the Mass. This participation is far more than simply being present in the pews; it is the full, conscious, and active involvement of every baptized member of the faithful in the sacred liturgy, a responsibility and a right that flows directly from our baptism. When we enter the Mass, we are not spectators but participants in Christ's saving work, joining ourselves to the prayer of the Church.

One of the clearest moments where this participation becomes visible is the Sanctus, proclaimed by the priest and people together after the Preface: "Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts." This acclamation is not a pause before the Eucharistic Prayer but an essential part of it. The Preface leads us directly into this moment, where the entire assembly joins the praise of the angels and steps into the worship of heaven. In the Sanctus, our voices unite with theirs, lifting a single cry of adoration as we enter the holiest part of the Mass.

The Sanctus serves as a kind of heavenly wake-up call, inviting us to recognize the mystery before us: worshiping the God whose glory fills heaven and earth. Pope John Paul II taught that the Church's threefold "Holy" proclaims God's supreme transcendence and perfection. These words come from Isaiah's vision of the Lord enthroned in glory while the seraphim cry out, "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory."

The Book of Revelation echoes this same heavenly worship. John describes the living creatures who proclaim God's holiness without ceasing. The Mass does not reenact that vision; rather, our earthly assembly joins its praise to the unending praise of heaven. The Roman Missal's Preface reminds us that we are united with the choirs of angels in singing God's glory.

The Sanctus continues with: "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord." These words recall Jesus' entry into Jerusalem and appear in Psalm 118. "Hosanna," once a plea for salvation, became a joyful cry of praise. At Mass, this acclamation expresses both our longing for God's saving help and our welcome of Christ, who comes among us in the Eucharist.

Because the Sanctus is the prayer of the assembly, it should never be treated as a performance. The Roman Missal directs that priest, and people ordinarily sing or speak it together. Whether sung or spoken, the whole assembly is invited to participate with one voice.

The next time you pray the Sanctus, pause inwardly over its words. We are not merely repeating a familiar text, we are praising the holy God, joining our voices to the angels, and welcoming Christ who comes to save us. At the heart of the Mass, the Church on earth lifts its voice in praise that reaches toward heaven.

Catholics urged to Vote Yes on Pro-life Amendment 3

We, the Catholic Bishops of Missouri, have a solemn duty to defend the dignity of every person and to stand for those whose lives and well-being are most vulnerable, including pregnant women, unborn babies, and children. On November 3, Missouri voters will consider Amendment 3, which would repeal the most harmful provisions of the 2024 amendment that regrettably enshrined a broad right to abortion in our state constitution.

Amendment 3 would restore meaningful protections for women and unborn babies that were stripped away in 2024. It would allow Missouri once again to require basic health and safety standards for clinics, safeguard parental rights, and substantially limit abortion in our state, while also ensuring that women continue to have access to medical care for emergencies, ectopic pregnancies, and miscarriages. Furthermore, Amendment 3 would permanently protect boys and girls by prohibiting destructive gender-transition procedures, including surgeries, puberty blockers, and cross-sex hormones, in the state constitution. Although Amendment 3 is not perfect, it would be a significant step toward restoring protections for women and children in Missouri.

As Catholics, we do not leave our faith at the door when we enter the public square. Our baptism calls us to follow Jesus Christ in every part of our lives, including the responsibilities we have as citizens. Pope Benedict XVI reminded us that “worship pleasing to God can never be a purely private matter,” calling us to bear public witness to fundamental values, including the defense of human life from conception to natural death (Sacramentum Caritatis, 83).

That witness begins with a truth that cannot be reduced to a matter of political preference: Every human life is sacred because every person is created in the image and likeness of God. The protection of innocent human life is therefore a matter of fundamental moral justice.

Brothers and sisters in Christ, we cannot be indifferent when our own state constitution fails to safeguard those who most need its protection. We urge you to pray and fast, to speak with your family and friends, and to continue working to pass Amendment 3. Stand with the unborn child who cannot speak for himself or herself. Stand with the woman who deserves accompaniment and care, not an unregulated abortion at an unsafe clinic. Stand with the child who deserves the freedom to grow and mature without being subjected to harmful life-altering procedures.

Whether you vote early or vote on November 3, vote YES on Amendment 3.

One in Christ, United in Mission

Each October, which is World Mission Month, the Church invites us to reflect upon our missionary vocation.

This year's theme, One in Christ, United in Mission, chosen by Pope Leo XIV, invites us to rediscover the profound unity we share in Christ through baptism and how our baptismal missionary identity overflows into the mission of the Church to bring all creatures into communion with God and us.

The highlight of World Mission Month is the annual celebration of World Mission Sunday, which this year will take place on Oct. 18.

Pope Leo XIV has stressed how important World Mission Sunday is for the Church. He spent a large part of his priestly ministry as a missionary in Peru and has noted how dependent he was on the prayers and financial support of the universal Church through World Mission Sunday.

Let us pray this week for those missionaries who bring Christ's love to far-off places, often at great personal cost and risk. And let us ask the Holy Spirit to rekindle a zeal in our own hearts, that we may also be missionaries, wherever we are.

Cursillo

The Cursillo® Movement pursues two purposes or objectives. The immediate purpose is to provide a conduit for living what is fundamental for being a Christian, namely, the on-going and total conversion of the person.

The end purpose is to vertebrae Christianity in society by means of these persons who live what is fundamental for being Christian (the love of God and neighbor) in their daily lives.

Simply explained, the purpose of the Cursillo Movement is that we become the Good News, and that our actions naturally turn out to be evangelical in our daily lives.

Food Drive Update

As of 9/29/26, Our Lady of the Lake has donated over 353 lbs of food and $140 to the Salvation Army Food Pantry for the Fraternal year 7/1/26 - 6/30/27.

Did you know the Salvation Army can buy food at just $0.18 per pound? Obviously this makes monetary contributions more effective.

Just a reminder that for every 1000 lbs of food AND for every $500 donated, K of C donates $100 to the pantry, up to $500 each from the K of C annually.

Weekly Scripture

Virtues, Explained!

If the question were posed: "Who is God?" a variety of answers could be given, and more than one could be correct.

The most succinct, however, would be this: God is truth.

"I am the Way, the Truth and the Life," Jesus tells his disciples (John 14:6). The pursuit of truth, he further instructs, will set them free (John 8:32) from the original untruth uttered and embraced in Eden.

If God is truth, he is honored by truthfulness. Untruthfulness, not surprisingly, is synonymous with disorder and broken relationships among mankind — Eden's everlasting legacy. The virtue of honesty, writes St. Thomas Aquinas, is "a kind of spiritual beauty" which measures the degree to which we honor one another in how we live truthfully (Sum. II:II, 145, Art 1-4).

Honesty is something that must be known interiorly in order to be visible exteriorly: "Teach me your way, O Lord, that I may walk in your Truth" (Psalm 86:11).

Sunday's Readings

First Reading

The Lord GOD will wipe away
the tears from every face. (Is 25:8)

Psalm

I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life. (Ps 23)

Second Reading

I have learned the secret of being well fed and of going hungry, of living in abundance and of being in need.
I can do all things in him who strengthens me.
(Phil 4:12-13)

Gospel

"Go out, therefore, into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find."
(Mt 22:9)
