We Celebrate 100 Years of World Mission Sunday!

This World Mission Sunday marks the 100th anniversary of its establishment by Pope Pius XI in 1926. This centenary is an opportunity to celebrate with renewed missionary zeal.

Last year, Pope Leo XIV made an appeal to us in a personal video for World Mission Sunday. His request echoed around the world: "Please help me help missionaries everywhere." That's what World Mission Sunday does: it helps Pope Leo care for the 1,130 missionary dioceses and territories under his supervision through the Dicastery for Evangelization.

We are all called to be a part of this missionary work and we have a singular means to do so: World Mission Sunday. The second collection we take up today helps extend the Church's evangelization work to missionary lands where the Gospel is being proclaimed for the first time, as well as to places where the Church barely exists, or is too young, too persecuted, or too poor to sustain herself. Thank you for responding to Pope Leo's call to help him help missionaries everywhere!

Hey Deacon!

By Deacon Dan Vaughn

The Sanctus: Why Do We Pause in Different Places?

Last week, I reflected on the Sanctus and how, in praying "Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts," the entire assembly joins its voice to the praise of heaven. But those familiar words raise an interesting question, especially when we pray the Sanctus aloud together:

Have you ever noticed that we do not always pause in the same place?

> Some pray: Holy, Holy, Holy ... Lord God of hosts.
> Others seem to pray: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord ... God of hosts.
> And still others continue: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts ...

Why the difference?

Part of the explanation may come from the English translation of the Mass that many Catholics prayed for decades: "Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, / God of power and might." That wording naturally encouraged a pause after "Lord." Even after the current English translation was introduced in 2011, many of us retained the rhythm and phrasing that had become familiar through years of prayer and singing. Musical settings can also influence where we naturally breathe or pause.

But the current wording gives us an opportunity to listen more closely to what we are actually proclaiming.
The Latin text reads: Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus Dominus Deus Sabaoth. The current English text follows that sense: "Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts." "Lord God of hosts" is the One whom we are acclaiming as holy. This brings us back to something we touched upon last week. The Sanctus draws from Isaiah's vision of heavenly worship, when the seraphim proclaim, "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts."

> We are not simply repeating the word "Holy" three times and then beginning a new thought. Rather, we are proclaiming that the Lord God of hosts is thrice holy.

Seen in this light, the words flow naturally: "Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory."

Does this mean that someone who pauses after the third "Holy," after "Lord," or somewhere else is praying the Sanctus improperly? No. Habit, breathing, musical settings, and years of praying familiar versions can all influence how we phrase the words.

The point is not to listen to the person beside us and determine whether he or she is pausing in the "right" place. Rather, noticing the difference gives us an opportunity to understand more deeply what we are saying together. And if you are ever in doubt, simply follow the lead of the priest. I've noticed Fr. J pauses after "Lord" while Fr. Johny and Fr. Dhaneesh both pause after the third "holy" as is their custom from India.

Last week, we affirmed that the Sanctus as an expression of our active participation in the Mass, joining our voices to the praise of heaven. Perhaps this small detail about where we pause can take us one step further.

The next time we pray or sing the Sanctus, listen again to the words: "Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts." We are joining the Church on earth with the worship of heaven, proclaiming together that the Lord God of hosts is thrice holy. The better we understand what we pray, the more intentionally we can pray it.

Catholics urged to Vote Yes on Pro-life Amendment 3

We, the Catholic Bishops of Missouri, have a solemn duty to defend the dignity of every person and to stand for those whose lives and well-being are most vulnerable, including pregnant women, unborn babies, and children. On November 3, Missouri voters will consider Amendment 3, which would repeal the most harmful provisions of the 2024 amendment that regrettably enshrined a broad right to abortion in our state constitution.

Amendment 3 would restore meaningful protections for women and unborn babies that were stripped away in 2024. It would allow Missouri once again to require basic health and safety standards for clinics, safeguard parental rights, and substantially limit abortion in our state, while also ensuring that women continue to have access to medical care for emergencies, ectopic pregnancies, and miscarriages. Furthermore, Amendment 3 would permanently protect boys and girls by prohibiting destructive gender-transition procedures, including surgeries, puberty blockers, and cross-sex hormones, in the state constitution. Although Amendment 3 is not perfect, it would be a significant step toward restoring protections for women and children in Missouri.

As Catholics, we do not leave our faith at the door when we enter the public square. Our baptism calls us to follow Jesus Christ in every part of our lives, including the responsibilities we have as citizens. Pope Benedict XVI reminded us that “worship pleasing to God can never be a purely private matter,” calling us to bear public witness to fundamental values, including the defense of human life from conception to natural death (Sacramentum Caritatis, 83).

That witness begins with a truth that cannot be reduced to a matter of political preference: Every human life is sacred because every person is created in the image and likeness of God. The protection of innocent human life is therefore a matter of fundamental moral justice.

Brothers and sisters in Christ, we cannot be indifferent when our own state constitution fails to safeguard those who most need its protection. We urge you to pray and fast, to speak with your family and friends, and to continue working to pass Amendment 3. Stand with the unborn child who cannot speak for himself or herself. Stand with the woman who deserves accompaniment and care, not an unregulated abortion at an unsafe clinic. Stand with the child who deserves the freedom to grow and mature without being subjected to harmful life-altering procedures.

Whether you vote early or vote on November 3, vote YES on Amendment 3.

Weekly Scripture

Virtues, Explained!

"It is not easy for man, wounded by sin, to maintain moral balance," we read in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (1811). "Christ's gift of salvation offers us the grace necessary to persevere in the pursuit of the virtues."

Perseverance is unique because without it, we cannot grow in any of the other virtues. If we cannot persevere, we cannot carry the cross. Faith, hope, love, mercy, justice, temperance — these virtues are the fruits of a Christian life, and perseverance is the soil in which they take root.

Like the soil in any garden, it has to be nourished. Perseverance is fed by trials, difficulties, and temptations. "We rejoice in our sufferings," writes St. Paul, "knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us" (Romans 5:4-5).

Sunday's Readings

First Reading

Thus says the LORD to his anointed, Cyrus, whose right hand I grasp,
subduing nations before Him. (Is 45:1)

Psalm

Give the Lord glory and honor. (Ps 96)

Second Reading

We give thanks to God always for all of you, remembering you in our prayers,
unceasingly calling to mind your work of faith and labor of love. (1 Thes 1:2-3)

Gospel

"Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." (Mt 22:21)

Inspiration of the Week

The Pharisees try to trick Jesus into starting a political revolution. They don't realize he came to start a revolution of the heart, not the state. God's image is stamped on our soul, but still the world tries to claim us. Revolt! You belong to God.
