Hey Deacon!

By Deacon Dan Vaughn

November Remembrance: The Bonds of Love Remain

My father died in November 2014, and my mother followed him home to the Lord nearly five years later. During those years, I witnessed firsthand the challenges of widowhood. While the sharp edges of grief softened over time, the loss never completely disappeared. When I look out at our congregation and see those who have lost a spouse or another dearly loved person, it touches my heart in two ways. First, it reminds me to keep you in my prayers each evening as I pray for those who mourn and for our loved ones who have gone before us in faith. Second, it deepens my gratitude for the years my wife and I continue to share together, while reminding me that all of us will one day face the sorrow of saying goodbye to someone we love.

Perhaps that is one reason the Church's observance of November is so meaningful. During this month, we are invited to bring our grief, our memories, and our hope to the Lord. Through the celebrations of All Saints Day and All Souls Day, we remember our deceased loved ones and pray for all the faithful departed. For many, this month awakens memories of spouses, parents, grandparents, children, relatives, and friends whose absence remains deeply felt.

The Church understands the reality of grief because it is woven throughout Sacred Scripture. Jesus Himself stood at the tomb of His friend Lazarus and wept. In that simple moment, He revealed God's compassion for those who mourn and showed that sorrow and faith can exist side by side. Yet Christ's victory over death assures us that grief does not have the final word.

As we enter this month of remembrance, we also hold in a special way the widows and widowers among us. Scripture gives us the example of Anna, the faithful widow who remained devoted to prayer and was among the first to recognize the infant Jesus as the Messiah. Her witness reminds us that even after profound loss, God continues to work through lives rooted in faith. Many widows and widowers in our parish offer that same witness today. Their perseverance, prayer, and trust in God's grace strengthen their families and enrich our parish community.

As Catholics, we believe that our bonds of love do not end with death. Through the Communion of Saints, we remain united in Christ with those who have gone before us. The Catechism teaches that our prayers for the faithful departed are a genuine act of charity and can help those who are being purified on their journey to the fullness of heaven (CCC 958). Every Mass, rosary, visit to a cemetery, and prayer for the dead becomes an expression of love and faith in God's promise of eternal life.

This is why November is not simply a month of remembering. It is a month of prayer, charity, and hope. During this month, let us remember our loved ones by name, pray for all the faithful departed, and offer support to those who continue to mourn. May Christ, who conquered death, strengthen our hope until the day we are reunited with those we love in the presence of God.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

Ever-living God, you give life and desire a future for all your children. Take hold of our nation, state, and community and awaken in every heart awe for the gift of life. Send your Spirit to strengthen us with wisdom and fortitude as we defend mothers and children in Missouri from laws that disregard their health and safety. Mary and Joseph trusted in you and welcomed Jesus into our broken world. God Almighty, we ask their intercession to protect the preborn and their mothers, and to guide all parents in raising their children. May they help us build a civilization of love by upholding the sacredness of life and accompanying pregnant women in need. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Our Lady, Mother of the Family, pray for us!

St. Joseph, protector of the unborn, pray for us!

Virtues, Explained!

All human beings have a body, just as all human beings have a soul. Since mankind fractured his relationship with the divine, the inclinations of the body are often at odds with the well-being of the soul.

Through the virtue of chastity, these inclinations become once again integrated.

In the Catechism, we read that chastity "includes an apprenticeship in self-mastery which is a training in human freedom" (CCC 2339). True freedom is impossible when a person is subject to any of his or her passions.

The sins of lust, pornography, and prostitution are principal offenses against the virtue of chastity, because these things undermine the integrity, or wholeness, of the human person's physical and spiritual dimensions.

All people are called to chastity, even those who are not called to celibacy, because all people have a physical self. Chastity is one of the twelve gifts of the Holy Spirit, which sustains moral life.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading

"You shall not wrong any widow or orphan.
If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me,
I will surely hear their cry.
My wrath will flare up, and I will kill you with the sword;
then your own wives will be widows, and your children orphans." (Ex 22:21-23)

Psalm

I love you, Lord, my strength. (Ps 18)

Second Reading

For they themselves openly declare about us
what sort of reception we had among you,
and how you turned to God from idols
to serve the living and true God and to await his Son from heaven. (1 Thes 1:9-10)

Gospel

"You shall love the Lord, your God,
with all your heart,
with all your soul,
and with all your mind." (Mt 22:37)

Live The Liturgy

Inspiration of the Week

Jesus gives us the greatest commandment: love God with all your heart, all your soul, all your mind. When we do that, the rest comes naturally, and we love others as they should be loved. So, give Him everything — and let your life be love.
