The Chosen
Season 5 Episode 1

The fifth season of the biblical epic drama sees Jesus prepare for his final days

Jesus enters Jerusalem, decriing the corrupt priests who are ruling the temples. Facing down hypocrisy, the Messiah delivers the Sermon on the Mount and prepares his followers for the backlash they face from his actions. As the politicians scheme a way to reduce the influence of Jesus, he prepares to sit down with his disciples and eat together.

RELIGIOUS
WEEK

Religious Freedom Week

June 22- June 29, 2025

Witnesses to Hope

Religious freedom allows the Church, and all religious communities, to live out their faith in public and to serve the good of all.

Beginning June 22, the feast of Saints Thomas More and John Fisher, the USCCB invites Catholics to pray, reflect, and act to promote religious freedom.

June 22: Political Polarization: Pray that Catholics will have the courage to put the truth of the gospel and fidelity to the Church above partisan politics.

June 23: IVF Mandates: Pray for couples who suffer fertility challenges, and that political leaders would promote therapies that respect the dignity of all human persons.

June 24: Catholic Healthcare: Pray that governments will respect the consciences of all people who care for the sick and vulnerable.

June 25: Nicaragua: Pray for Christians in Nicaragua, where the Catholic Church faces brutal government persecution.

June 26: Parental Choice in Education: Pray that governments would strengthen the ability for parents to direct the education of their children.

June 27: Immigration Services: Pray that the Lord would protect vulnerable migrants and refugees, and that the Church enjoy the freedom to carry out the ministries that Christ has handed to her.

June 28: Freedom to Serve the Common Good: Pray that government leaders would recognize the contributions that religious charities make to the common good.

June 29: Nigeria: Pray for our brothers and sisters in Nigeria who are suffering violent religious conflict.

Attempting to understand the mystery of the Trinity

The doctrine of the Holy Trinity is the central mystery of the Christian faith, representing the belief in one God who exists in three distinct Persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. While we cannot fully understand it, this teaching is foundational to Catholic theology, worship, and the spiritual life of the faithful. It reflects the very nature of God as revealed in Scripture and developed through centuries of theological reflection.

Even though the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are distinct, they are united. They share the same essence, the same substance. This means they are one in being. They are not three separate gods but one God in three persons. This unity is a mystery we believe through faith.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains this well.

The divine persons do not share the one divinity among themselves but each of them is God whole and entire: "The Father is that which the Son is, the Son that which the Father is, the Father and the Son that which the Holy Spirit is, i.e. by nature one God." CCC 253

This means all three are fully God, sharing the same nature. The Father is the creator of all things. He is the source of everything. The Son, Jesus Christ, became man to save us. He shows us God's love and mercy. The Holy Spirit is our helper and guide. He gives us strength and wisdom.

Knowing about the three persons of the Trinity helps us relate to God better. We can see how each person of the Trinity plays a part in our lives. This understanding deepens our faith and helps us grow closer to God.

Images and analogies can help us better understand the Trinity.

One such way is thinking of the Trinity as 'Lover, Beloved, and Love'. St. Augustine famously used this analogy to help explain the relationship within the Trinity. This analogy suggests the Father is the Lover, the one who loves. The Son, Jesus, is the Beloved, the one who is loved. The Holy Spirit is the Love that flows between the Father and the Son. This shows us that God is a relationship of perfect love. However, St. Augustine also cautioned that no analogy can fully capture the mystery of the Trinity, as God's nature surpasses human understanding.

Another image of the Trinity is 'Formlessness, Form, and Energy'. The Father is Formlessness, the source of all things. The Son, Jesus, is Form, who became human and showed us God's love. The Holy Spirit is the Energy, the living force that moves and inspires us. This shows us that God is the force behind all creation. This image helps us understand that God is active in the world.

The mystery of the Holy Trinity lies at the heart of our Catholic faith. Understanding the Trinity helps us understand God better. It shows us that God is not distant but close to us. It teaches us that love and relationships are important. While words and analogies fall short of fully explaining this divine mystery, the doctrine of the Trinity remains a source of deep faith, guiding us in our worship, prayer, and daily life. By embracing this mystery, we find the fullness of God's revelation and His enduring presence in the world.

As I raised the north-facing shades this morning, God streaked through the dawn sky on the wings of a magpie. A straight, direct flight going I know not where. Her feathers glowed holy black in the tender light shimmering over the icy river, which was sliding along under the orange willows.

Even in this profound silence, you can hear God in the pulse of things. But you don't have to. Nothing is required. Even gratitude is optional. Joy is optional—painfully optional.

On a different day, God explained this to me. I didn't like it then, and I still don't. God thrives on options and told me there's an entire cheering section set aside in heaven for each time some fool among us makes a good choice. "We are all bumbling idiots," I explained to God. "Can't you provide a stronger framework? A lot of us are stuck in blind alleys, making repeated bad choices."

"Don't I know it," God said, wryly. "But I've got time on my hands, and if I do say so myself, I'm a pretty patient God, as gods go. Come to think of it, I'm the God with a capital G, the beginning and the end, the one and only. I can wait."

"Oh, sure," I argued. "You can wait. You're God. But what about us?"

"Yeah," God answered, slowly, with real compassion. "What about you?"

TRINITY SUNDAY

Our Lady of the Lake Welcomes Rev. James Cormack

On June 28-29, 2025, Rev. James Cormack, C.M. will speak at the Masses regarding the Kenya Mission of the Vincentians.

The Vincentians follow Jesus Christ, evangelizing the poor, in the Spirit of their founder, St. Vincent de Paul.

The Vincentians in Kenya and Uganda serve the poor through:

- Evangelization - The Vincentians bring the Good News during liturgical masses.
- Education - In the schools run by the Vincentians, the charism is taught. We teach children, offer subsidized school fees and enable the poor to access education.
- Direct assistance - We provide, medical support, school fees, housing, and clothing to the most needy in Kenya.
- Social impact projects – We organize and execute projects that are designed to empower the vulnerable women, girls, persons with disabilities and destitute with knowledge, and skills to secure a better livelihood for themselves and their families.

Your gift this year will help repair the sanitation system at the seminary in Kenya, construct a greenhouse for the priests and community surrounding the neighborhood of Komarock, organize medical assessments and education for the poor, and enhance the computer lab at the seminary in Kenya.

Please help the Vincentians continue to serve the most vulnerable in need. Thank you in advance for your generous support of our mission.

WORLD REFUGEE DAY

World Refugee Day (June 20) helps us remember our global family that has been displaced by crisis. Let us pray:

For those trying to support and protect their families, we pray they find communities to embrace them.

For those searching for peace and hope, we pray that we may be bearers of the Good News.

We pray that all refugees may find safe and loving communities and the opportunity to thrive.

And we pray that we may have the courage to stand and act in defense of human dignity for all.

More Events Coming...

Our Council has reserved the following dates for more food and fellowship opportunities to come:

August 3rd - November 9th

Plan ahead to come and support our charitable endeavors! Knights! Check to see how YOU can be involved and help out!

Seminarian Support Fund

KofC Council 6470 is starting something new, and we're inviting YOU to be a part of it.

Our Council has historically supported our diocesan seminarians with their living expenses while in seminary, but we're looking to do more.

We are establishing a KofC Seminarian Support Fund to serve as a sort of endowment to support our diocesan seminarians. Our goal is raise over $30,000 to establish a fund that will allow us to use the interest earned to provide more than four times the support we typically have been able to give annually, and to grow the fund to continually expand our giving potential. Be on the lookout for more information, and an after mass appeal coming in June, or reach out to our council for more details.

Food Drive Update

As of 5/24/25, Our Lady of the Lake has donated over 2094 lbs of food and $1510 to the Salvation Army Food Pantry for the Fraternal year 7/1/24 - 6/30/25.

Did you know the Salvation Army can buy food at just $0.18 per pound? Obviously this makes monetary contributions more effective.

Just a reminder that for every 1000 lbs of food AND for every $500 donated, K of C donates $100 to the pantry, up to $500 each from the K of C annually.

Want to make a monetary contribution to the Salvation Army Food Panty through the Knights of Columbus to help reach the bonus gift from the K of C?

Dear Padre,

What does the Church teach about respect for the body after death? Is burial the most respectful? It's certainly the most expensive. What about donating your body to science? Or cremation? If someone is cremated, can the ashes be kept respectfully by a family member, or do they have to be buried?

Your question serves as a summation of current practice and exposes the real-life dilemma and choices facing loved ones: "How can I be respectful and at the same time practical?"

Catholics believe that the body of the deceased must be respected and not simply disposed of without care or concern. Current practice allows for burial, cremation, and the donation of the body to science, and choices depend in large part on tradition, culture, and economic circumstances. If someone chooses to donate to medical science, it is with the understanding that the body will be cremated or properly buried. If cremation is the chosen option, proper burial of the cremains in a sacred place is required.

All of this assumes an uneventful passing of the deceased person. It does not account for war, disease, or disaster. When faced with ordinary, rather than extraordinary, circumstances, loved ones have a real opportunity to be grateful and thankful for the chance to mourn, grieve, and show respect for the person. Unfortunately, that is not always the case in today's world. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

Celebrating the Most Holy Trinity is not so much a theological exercise, but a revolution in our way of life. God, in whom each Person lives for the other in a continual relationship...provokes us to live with others and for others. Open. Today, we can ask ourselves if our life reflects the God we believe in.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I am amazed at how my four siblings teach their many kids in age-appropriate ways. For example, now that my nephew Brandon is 24 years of age, they give him insights and freedoms that would have been positively confounding or even dangerous when he was a toddler. Imagine if they had taught him at age four how to drive a car, use a credit card online, or handle power tools. But eventually, they did, and he is a high functioning young man, I'm proud to say. They are good teachers.

This week we learn that Jesus teaches us in a similar way. He says to his Apostles, “I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now” (John 16:12). How disappointing for them. But imagine at that moment, before his resurrection and ascension, if the Lord had started telling them about synods and sacraments, popes and parishes, martyrs and monasteries, rosaries and relics, catechisms and crucifixes? They would have been absolutely overwhelmed, confused, and discouraged. He tells them what they need to know, when it is time for them to know it.

So he does for us. Jesus has unceasingly taught the Church as she matures through the centuries, just as he teaches you and me through our lives in ways we can understand. Our task should be to learn what he is teaching us now, knowing that (although revelation per se is complete in him and his Apostles), he never ceases to teach us as we spiritually mature. Be confident: he knows what you are ready to learn now.

— Father John Muir

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"When the Lord established the heavens I was there,
when he marked out the vault over the face of the deep;
when he made firm the skies above,
when he fixed fast the foundations of the earth; (Prv 8:27)

Psalm:

O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!
(Ps 8)

Second Reading:

Therefore, since we have been justified by faith,
we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.
(Rom 5:1)

Gospel:

Everything that the Father has is mine;
for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine
and declare it to you." (Jn 16:15)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Jesus knew how it would be. He knew we would stumble in the dark, grasping for answers. And so he sent us a light: the Holy Spirit, the illumination of all that is true. Dare we look into the light? Are we ready to see the truth?

Observances for the week of June 15, 2025

Sunday: The Most Holy Trinity; Father's Day
Thursday: St. Romuald, Abbot
Friday: World Refugee Day
Saturday: St. Aloysius Gonzaga, Religious
Next Sunday: The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Devotions, Explained!

Popularized in the 17th century by a French priest named Fr. Claude Bernard, the Memorare is a prayer to the Blessed Mother in which the supplicant calls upon the maternal love and protection of Mary's intercession in an hour of dire need.

Prayer of Christian Love

Glory be to God the Father,
God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit, who calls us
into communion with Him,
a life of grace and mystery,
reconciliation and unity.
Amen.
