(Associate Pastor)

Fr. Johny is from the District of Ernakulam, which is in Kerala, India. He has six brothers (one of which is his twin) and three sisters. His road to the priesthood started when he was 13 years old. He was an altar server and attended mass daily as he lived close enough to walk there. Father Johny was selected to attend a vocational camp which led him to the seminary. After 12 years of seminary, he was ordained a priest on January 3rd, 1989.

His first assignment was in India as a Parish Pastor & Director of a boy's home for 8 years. He then spent 3 years as the Rector of Seminary in AP, one of the states of India. From there he was the Finance Administer of Marymatha Province of the Vincentian Congregation. In 2013, he moved to New Jersey to become the Superior Administrator of the Vincentian House & Divine Retreat Center in Washington, NJ. Father Johny then moved to Branson in July 2024 to become Associate Pastor for Our Lady of the Lake, Our Lady of the Ozarks and Our Lady of the Cove. He goes back to India once a year to visit his family. In his freetime, he enjoys reading. He also likes to watch basketball.

Why a Catholic funeral matters

I was recently talking with a Catholic priest who was visiting from Minnesota. Most of our conversation centered on parish life, our Catholic youth, and the young adults that cease to practice their faith upon leaving home. That led to another important topic regarding how important a Catholic funeral Mass is vital to our faith and how to convey that importance to family members who have walked away.

There have been many times I have been contacted by adult children and asked to visit their home and pray for their parent who is close to death. Later I ask if I could assist them in planning their parent's Catholic funeral. Often their answer is no. They have no desire in having a Catholic liturgy since they no longer consider themselves Catholic and do not feel a need for a Mass or other services.

It is important to remember why we have funerals and that they are not just for the loved one who passed away and the family. They are also for the living – the deceased friends, extended family and the parish community.

While there are many reasons we have funerals, here are four primary reasons the Church has funerals.

First, we have funerals to praise God. In this time of need we return to the Creator and praise him for creating us and our loved ones with love.

Second, we thank God for His mercy and love. It is His mercy and love that gives us hope in everlasting life. At the funeral, we are reminded of God's mercy and love through our thanksgiving for the life of our deceased loved one.

Third, we pray for our deceased loved one's soul. Christ is very clear in the Gospels that not everyone will go to Heaven. As a Church, we believe that our prayers assist people in their purification in purgatory and their journey to the Heavenly Father. A significant reason we have a Mass, and the other stages of the Order of Christian Funerals is to pray for the soul of the loved one who passed away, which brings significant graces to them.

Finally, we have funerals to fill the void of loss with faith. When we lose someone we love, there is a void in our life. Too often this void is filled with unhealthy and potentially harmful behavior. The funeral allows us to come together as a community and fill that void with the love of God. The beauty of the Catholic funeral is often a catalyst that helps family members who have left the Church to reflect and return to the faith.

If you are the last Catholic 'standing' within your family circle, be sure to make known your desire for a Catholic funeral. There is no greater example of love than Jesus' dying on the cross for each of us. The funeral Mass is our final opportunity to participate in this mystery of our faith. It is a moment to thank God for His mercy and love which provides hope in everlasting life. It is the final opportunity to receive God's grace this side of heaven.

Seminarian Support Fund

KofC Council 6470 is starting something new, and we're inviting YOU to be a part of it.

Our Council has historically supported our diocesan seminarians with their living expenses while in seminary, but we're looking to do more.

We are establishing a KofC Seminarian Support Fund to serve as a sort of endowment to support our diocesan seminarians. Our goal is raise over $30,000 to establish a fund that will allow us to use the interest earned to provide more than four times the support we typically have been able to give annually, and to grow the fund to continually expand our giving potential.

With our initial contributions from an anonymous donor and our council's own contribution, we had a $10,000 head start. Also, our June appeal has brought in just over $8,000 already!

That puts us well over half way to our goal! Thank you for your support and prayers for our success as we continue to raise money to develop this fund so that we can help support more seminarians in a more impactful way, for the foreseeable future. Vivat Jesus!

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Once I went to a hospice facility to celebrate Last Rites for an elderly dying man. His family had told me that he had been uncommunicative for days. At the conclusion of the ritual, we began to recite the Our Father prayer. To everyone's surprise, his lips moved, clearly mouthing the words to the Lord's prayer. Stripped of most of his faculties, the man could still pray those precious God-given petitions. A lifetime of prayer had planted the words even deeper than his failing consciousness.

Do we want the Lord's prayer to be as deeply embedded in us? If we want to be people of hope, we should. Recall that our Lord immediately follows the prayer by saying: "Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you" (Luke 11:9). We only ask, search and knock because we hope that the request is not in vain. Everything we could possibly hope for is contained in the prayer. Praying the Our Father deepens our hope.

We should consciously pour all our hopes into the Lord's prayer; we should allow it to be an expression of hope, not simply rote words. Then, over time, it builds up our hope in God. It sinks deep into our souls and bodies. How blessed we are when these words of hope are on our lips, even when everything else seems to fail.

— Father John Muir

Far be it from you to do such a thing,

Psalm:

Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me. (Ps 138)

Second Reading:

You were buried with him in baptism,
in which you were also raised with him
