Good Friday is a day that commemorates the day that Jesus gave His life as a ransom for all mankind. The sins of man required a sacrifice or payment to redeem us. A blood sacrifice was necessary for our redemption and Jesus willingly gave himself for mankind. That's love personified!

“For this is my blood of the New Testament which is shed for the remission of sins.” Matthew 26:28

Although Jesus willingly was crucified and die on a cross, on what we know as Good Friday, He did not stay dead, He was resurrected on the third day just as He said. Why do we call it good Friday, but without the shedding of Jesus’ blood we would still be in sin.

Without the shedding of blood, Jesus’ pure blood, there would be no forgiveness for us. It was a “Good” Friday because Jesus gave his life willingly upon the cross. Wrapped up in that wonderful sacrifice was our forgiveness. But the story didn’t end there. Early at the crack of dawn, on the Sabbath Day, Jesus rose victoriously for us.

It was a Good Friday because our sins are forgiven through his blood. It was a great Sabbath Day because Jesus took the keys of sin and death from the enemy of our souls and provided what was necessary to redeem us back to God. Through his act of love, dying on the cross, we are redeemed.

Praise God for The Gift of salvation.

Remembering Ms. Adriane Slater

On April 6, a special chapel service was held to remember our dear teacher, sister, and friend, Ms. Adriane Slater. Ms. Slater served at Dawn Treader Christian School for several years as art teacher, assisting in the first and second grade classroom, and becoming the first and second grade lead teacher.

DT’s staff and students shared their sentiments about Ms. Slater. Some of the words that resonated that day spoke of her desire to always help others, and her endearing smile. Ms. Slater’s mother was present and gave her thanks to DT for the love of her daughter. Also, Ms. Slater’s pastor, Pastor Redman, spoke very highly of her and her dedication to help others. We all love and miss her. We were all blessed to call her sister and friend.
