VOCATION

Roman Catholics in the United States spend a good deal of time speaking of "vocation" and the manner in which each of us discerns our vocation for life. In today's apostolic letter, however, Peter gives us the "cornerstone" of our vocation, the description of what each of us is called to first and foremost by our baptism. He describes our vocation as "a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of [God's] own, so that you may announce the praises" of Christ, who called us out of darkness into light (1 Peter 2:9). All of us, no matter what path our life's vocation may take us down, have been chosen by God, made holy, and anointed as priests in the high priesthood of Christ through baptism. All of this, so that we may announce the praises of Christ. Vocation is given for proclamation at home, in the workplace—wherever life takes us—in service, in word, and in sacrament. -Copyright © J. Mother's Day Novena: Starting on May 10

As a way to express our love for our beloved mothers, we will be having a Mother's Day Novena. For nine days, the masses will be dedicated to any woman who has played a motherly role in our lives. You can remember any dear mother, living or deceased by using one of the envelopes located at the entrances of the church. All you have to do is write their names, include a donation and drop the envelope in the Poor Box in the church or mail to the church office. We will place all the envelopes on the altar during the novena.

Ozark Catholic Academy

Check out how Ozark Catholic Academy has stayed busy during the Covid-19 outbreak! With social distancing OCA hasn't missed a beat transitioning all classes to Remote Learning and introducing the VOCARE series.

VOCARE - Videos for OCA Reflection and Enrichment features local and national guests who share their personal and professional stories to the OCA community. To date Dr. Jenny Popp and Chancellor Steinmetz both from the University of Arkansas have lectured to the students. Plans for OCA to welcome other speakers are in progress.

They have an exciting year ahead as they look to welcome their largest incoming freshman class and graduating their first senior class in May 2021. OCA's first two years have been successful! We need continued financial support and prayers of the Catholic community to keep it going.

VOCACIÓN

Los católicos en los Estados Unidos pasan mucho tiempo hablando de "vocación" y la manera en que cada uno de nosotros discierne nuestra vocación en la vida. Sin embargo, en la carta apostólica de hoy, Pedro nos da la "piedra angular" de nuestra vocación, lo primero y principal en el llamado de cada uno de nosotros a raíz de nuestro Bautismo. Él describe nuestra vocación como "estirpe elegida, sacerdocio real, nación consagrada a Dios, pueblo de su propiedad para que proclamen las obras maravillosas de aquél [Cristo] quien nos llamó de las tinieblas a su luz admirable" (1 Pedro 2:9). Todos nosotros, sin importar la senda por la cual nuestra vocación de vida nos lleve, hemos sido elegidos por Dios, hechos santos, y ungidos como sacerdotes en el alto sacerdocio de Cristo por nuestro Bautismo. Todo esto, para que podamos anunciar las maravillas de Cristo. Se nos da una vocación para que proclamemos mediante el servicio, la palabra y el sacramento dentro del hogar, en el trabajo y dondequiera que nos lleve la vida. -Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
