SAINT✝MARK

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time • October 11, 2026 • Espanol Page 16

WELCOME TO ST. MARK!

Today we celebrate 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time. The readings can be found in the music handouts or in the St. Augustine Hymnal on page 938. The Order of the Mass can be found on page 7; Mass prayers are on the last page of the hymnal.

We invite you to make St. Mark your parish home!

Thank you for being a part of our parish, either as a visitor or a long-time parishioner. We are thankful that you are here and welcome you back anytime for Mass, prayer in our Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration Chapel or any of our programs.

At St. Mark, we believe we are all called as one by Christ to embrace the spirit of stewardship and engagement to Grow in Christ, Serve One Another, Share Our Gifts and Connect in Faith. This mission is our quest for holiness. It is by our intentional discipleship that each of us becomes a steward of the gifts God has given us and to share them with others. Our time, our talent and our treasure are given to us by God to share with others by spreading the Gospel and building His kingdom.

IMPORTANT SCHEDULE CHANGES

Monday, October 12 is Columbus Day. The parish offices will be closed; the Mass Schedule will remain the same.

Diocesan Priests' Retreat

Our priests will be on retreat October 19-23. The 9 am daily Masses and the Wednesday 6:30 pm Mass will be the Liturgy of the Word and Communion service rather than a full Mass.

There will not be confession prior to those services or on Wednesday evening.

Thank you to Fr. Roux for celebrating our 7 am Masses this week.

If you are interested in registering as a member, please go to stmarknc.org/registration or use the QR code. You may submit the form online or bring a paper copy to the Welcome Desk during business hours, including Sunday 8:30 am-12:15 pm. Forms can be found in the narthex. Please know, you do not need to be Catholic to join and come to our parish.

COMMUNION GUIDELINES FOR CATHOLICS

1. To be in a state of grace, that is to say, to be free of any unconfessed mortal sin—this includes, if married, being married in a way recognized by the Catholic Church.
2. To abstain for at least one hour before Holy Communion from any food and drink, with the exception of water and medicine.
3. To know what you are receiving and to approach the altar with devotion.
4. You may receive Holy Communion either standing or kneeling.
5. Please consume the Eucharist in front of the minister of Holy Communion before walking away.

For Non-Catholics: We welcome you to Holy Mass and are glad you are here. Please feel free to participate by singing, standing, kneeling, etc. However, the reception of Holy Communion is reserved for Catholics in a state of grace. At the time of Communion, please feel free to come forward with your arms crossed over your chest for a blessing or to remain in your pew. See page 1302 in the hymnal for information.

Please join us in the Prayer to St. Michael after the Final Blessing. Please do not leave the church until after the priests, deacons, and servers have exited the church. Thank you.

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the Power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Thank you for generously sharing your gifts with the parish.

Stewardship Reflection

Life has a way of pulling our attention toward immediate concerns, making it easy to lose sight of what matters most — our call to live for the Kingdom of Heaven. The stewardship way of life helps us keep our priorities in order, teaching us to live each day with eternity in view.

How do we remain focused on that eternal goal? St. Paul shares the secret in today's Second Reading from Philippians. He writes, "I know how to live in humble circumstances; I know also how to live with abundance." Whether he had plenty or very little, Paul's confidence remained the same because it rested in Christ rather than in his circumstances.

His secret is simple: "I can do all things in him who strengthens me." And he reminds us why that confidence is well placed: "My God will fully supply whatever you need, in accord with his glorious riches in Christ Jesus."

Living this way is not always easy. It requires trust, humility, and perseverance. But God never asks us to rely on our own strength. He provides everything we need to follow Him faithfully. Our task is simply to place our trust in Him each day. © Catholic Stewardship Conference, 2026

Pastoral Pondering

I have had several discussions lately with folks asking whether or not an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion can or should bless someone who comes up in the Communion line with his or her arms crossed. The simple answer is no, but I think it might be a good idea to provide a more in-depth answer.

Extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion should not bless people who come forward but do not receive, because a liturgical blessing in Mass is not part of their mandate and is not theirs to give.

Their commission is narrow. By canon 910 §2 and canon 230 §3 they are deputed only to distribute Holy Communion when ordinary ministers (bishops, priests, and deacons) are lacking, or the number of communicants truly requires it. Redemptionis Sacramentum (2004), nos. 154–158, insists that this function not be enlarged: they are extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, not "ministers of the Eucharist," and they act only in genuine necessity. Nothing in the General Instruction of the Roman Missal or the rites authorizes them to bless during the Communion procession.

A blessing given in the liturgy is a sacramental, and its ordinary minister is a cleric. Canon 1168 says the minister of sacramentals is a cleric with the requisite power; lay people may administer only those sacramentals the liturgical books and the local ordinary expressly allow. Canon 1169 is more precise: any priest may impart blessings (except those reserved to the pope or bishops); a deacon may impart only those the law expressly permits him. The 1997 instruction Ecclesia de Mysterio, article 6 §2, applies this inside Mass: blessings that belong to the presidential role are not to be conferred by the non-ordained.

The Congregation for Divine Worship said the same thing directly. In a letter of 22 November 2008 (Protocol 930/08/L), the undersecretary wrote that "lay people, within the context of Holy Mass, are unable to confer blessings. These blessings, rather, are the competence of the priest," citing Ecclesia de Mysterio, canon 1169 §2, and the Book of Blessings, no. 18. The same letter discourages the laying on of hands in place of Communion, because that gesture has its own sacramental meaning and is out of place here. The letter is a private reply, not a universal law, but on this point it only restates existing discipline.

Two further reasons follow from the rite itself. The Communion procession is for receiving the Body and Blood of Christ, not a second blessing rite; the liturgical blessing of the Mass is given to everyone at the dismissal, a few minutes later. And a sign of the cross or raised hand from a lay minister blurs the difference between the ordained and the non-ordained, which Redemptionis Sacramentum repeatedly warns against.

Diocesan norms commonly draw the practical conclusion: if someone approaches with arms crossed, the extraordinary minister may offer a brief word without any blessing gesture ("Receive Jesus in your heart," or the like), and nothing more.

Whether a priest or deacon should give an individual blessing in the Communion line is a separate and less settled question. For extraordinary ministers the answer in Catholic teaching is clear: they should not.

A SEASON OF SHARING AND SERVING

A Season of Sharing and Serving

As the weather turns cooler and the holidays approach, St. Mark begins one of our busiest seasons of outreach.

It starts this weekend with our Coat, Blanket, Toy and Baby Drive, continues with our Thanksgiving Food Drive, and soon our Christmas Giving Tree will fill the church with opportunities to help families in need.

These drives have become familiar traditions at St. Mark, but they are about much more than collecting things.

They are part of who we are as a parish and our call to Share Our Gifts and Serve One Another.

Fr. John often reminds us that stewardship is a response to what God has first given us. Our time, talents and resources are gifts, and discipleship asks us to look beyond ourselves and use those gifts to care for others.

The Corporal Works of Mercy give us very practical ways to do that: feeding the hungry, clothing those in need and caring for our neighbors.

Year after year, St. Mark parishioners answer that call with remarkable generosity.

- A coat that no longer fits someone in your family can keep another person warm.
- A bag of groceries can help put Thanksgiving dinner on a family's table.
- A gift chosen from the Giving Tree can bring Christmas joy to a child or adult who might otherwise go without.

And there are many ways to help beyond making a donation.

Volunteers are an important part of every one of these efforts, sorting and organizing donations, packing food, preparing gifts and helping everything get where it needs to go.

Over the next several weeks, watch the bulletin for ways you and your family can take part.

- Give what you can.
- Volunteer when you can.
- Pray for the people we serve.

It is through many simple acts of generosity that St. Mark continues to Share Our Gifts, Serve One Another and make Christ's love visible in our community.

Thank you for helping us support families in need this Thanksgiving season!

November: Christmas Giving Tree

Our Christmas Giving Tree returns beginning Nov. 1, continuing a beloved St. Mark tradition of helping children, families and individuals in need during the Christmas season.

Formerly known as the Angel Tree, the Giving Tree will once again be filled with ornaments representing gift requests. Nothing to do just yet! Watch for details later this month about how you can choose an ornament and help make Christmas a little brighter for someone in our community.

World Mission Sunday

Next weekend, Oct. 18, Catholics around the world will celebrate the 100th anniversary of World Mission Sunday. This special collection supports the Church's missionary work, helping to form missionaries, build churches, sustain mission dioceses, train catechists and support religious sisters serving communities around the world.

This year's theme, "One in Christ, United in Mission," reminds us that we share in the Church's mission together. Please prayerfully consider supporting the World Mission Sunday collection next weekend.

Astralis Returns to St. Mark: Masters of the Baroque

When: Mon., Oct. 26; 7 pm

Where: St. Mark Church

We are pleased to welcome the Astralis Chamber Ensemble back to St. Mark for the third time this year, this time for Masters of the Baroque. The award-winning ensemble features Angela Massey, flute; Seeun Baek, violin; Edward Luengo, cello; and Alexandra Dunbar, harpsichord.

The evening will feature works by some of the great composers of the Baroque period, including Bach, Telemann, Handel, C.P.E. Bach and Vivaldi.

These concerts have become an important part of the cultural and musical life of our parish. The Church has long recognized the value of beauty and the arts, and offering excellent music in our church gives us an opportunity to slow down, listen and experience something beautiful together. Whether the music is explicitly sacred or simply beautifully composed, it can lift our hearts and remind us that our faith has always made room for beauty, creativity and the gifts of the artist.

If you have not attended one of the Astralis concerts at St. Mark, this is a wonderful opportunity to experience chamber music right here in our own church.

Stewardship Spotlight: Showing Up for Those Who Serve

Every day, police officers, firefighters, emergency medical personnel and other first responders answer calls without knowing what they will find when they arrive. They step into accidents, fires, violence, illness and some of the most difficult moments in people's lives. They protect those in danger, care for those in distress and serve people they may never see again.

There is something deeply Christian in that kind of service. Jesus showed us a love that did not count the cost. He recognized the dignity of every person, was present to people in their suffering and responded to those who needed Him. In their own way, our first responders are asked to do many of those same things. They show up. They help. They protect. They comfort. And often they do it without recognition or thanks.

On Saturday, Oct. 17, at 11 am, St. Mark will celebrate our Blue Mass to honor and pray for these men and women. We will pray for their protection and strength, remember those who have died in the line of duty and pray for the families who share in the sacrifices of their service.

Stewardship is the offering of what we have been given for the good of others. Our first responders demonstrate that in a very real way. Our presence at the Blue Mass is one small way we can respond: by showing up for those who so often show up for us.

Please join us for Mass, invite a first responder you know and stay afterward for the reception in the Kerin Center.

ADORATION

To Be or Not to Be... a Sub?

By: Donna Fodale/Adoration Coordinator

One of my favorite things to do is to ask Adorers to share how spending time in Adoration has impacted their lives. We are so blessed here at St. Mark with people who have signed up to be weekly Adorers. However, some people find it hard to commit to a specific hour each week, so they have opted to be part of our sub team. The Subs play a vital part in keeping Perpetual Adoration going. There are many days that I receive emails asking for a sub. Most times within a few minutes of me sending out an email to the sub team, I get a response from one or more saying that they can cover that hour. It never fails! What a blessing they are. This week I invited our sub team to share what being a sub means to them.

Savannah O. writes...

The reason I became a sub for Adoration was because I travel extensively for work and was not able to sign on as a full-time Adorer, but the Lord blessed me with this opportunity. I am so grateful to Him for that because it has given me a chance to still be able to have my time for a holy hour even while I am on the road so often! When I am home and not traveling I very much look forward to the times I will be subbing for Adoration. These are times where I can rest with our Lord and restore the peace that I need and can only receive from Him and being in His presence. Fulton Sheen has been a great inspiration for me to become more devoted to the Holy Hour and recognize its importance. As Sheen stated, "The only time our Lord asked the Apostles for anything was the night He went into agony. Not for activity did He plead, but for an hour of companionship." If what the Lord desires from me is that I give Him all of myself, just as he gave all of Himself for me, then I know to simply be with Him is the best way I could spend any hour. For I know when I am there in His presence, there is no greater place in the world I could be.

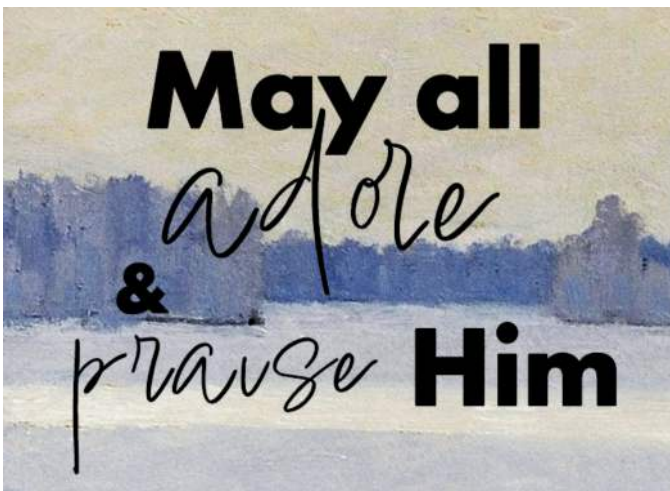

Joyce H. writes...

For years, I committed to a holy hour on Thursdays. This time in Adoration each week resulted in many blessings in my life. It was a hard decision to discontinue that Thursday commitment as it conflicted with our Mary's Women of Joy meeting time. I still wanted to keep a holy hour, but I was uneasy about committing to the same day/time each week so I decided to become a sub. This way I could help those faithful folks who do commit to a regularly scheduled hour each week when they are unable to attend.

This has also been fruitful as any time spent in Adoration would be. Of course, I'm not just helping out the person I'm subbing for but more importantly, I'm spending quality time with our Lord! While in Adoration, I will make it a regular practice to pray for the people I sub for too!

If you would like to find out more about joining our sub team, please email

Cursillo 'FYI' Event

When: Thur., Nov. 19, 7-8 pm

Where: Please RSVP to

john.moloney222@gmail.com

for address on Lake Norman

Is Cursillo for me?

You may have heard people at St. Mark talk about Cursillo and wondered what it is.

This informal FYI evening is a chance to learn more, meet people who have experienced Cursillo and ask questions. There is no commitment. Just come and find out if it might be for you.

Cursillo, which means "short course in Christianity," is a lay movement within the Catholic Church that helps Catholics deepen their relationship with Christ and live their faith more fully in everyday life.

At the heart of Cursillo is a three-day weekend of prayer, fellowship and talks led by priests, deacons and laypeople from throughout the Diocese of Charlotte.

The weekend focuses not only on growing in faith, but on bringing Christ into our families, workplaces and communities.

Come learn what happens on a Cursillo weekend, hear from others who have attended and see why the experience has become an important part of their Catholic faith.

I Spy St. Mark's Rosary Windows

October is the Month of the Holy Rosary!

Did you know that the
stained glass windows in our church tell the story of Jesus through the mysteries of the Rosary?

When we pray the Rosary, each mystery is a moment in the life of Jesus that we think about while we pray.

Did you know that our
stained glass windows show these stories?

After Mass, take a few minutes to walk around the church
and look closely.

Kids, bring your parents along.
Parents, see how many you can find too!

Can you find...

- ☐ a white dove
- ☐ a donkey
- ☐ a lamb
- ☐ a crown
- ☐ a pair of keys
- ☐ a lantern
- ☐ a pitcher
- ☐ a crescent moon
- ☐ a chalice
- ☐ a bird in a cage
- ☐ three crosses
- ☐ a palm tree

Look closely!

Can you find Christmas?

Easter?

The Last Supper?

Jesus' Baptism?

What other stories
from Jesus' life do
you recognize?
Which window is your favorite?

St. Michael the Archangel Statue

Another sacred image has found its place at St. Mark.

Our new statue of St. Michael the Archangel stands 61 inches tall and weighs approximately 900 pounds.
Intricately carved in marble, the statue is a beautiful new addition to our parish campus.

We are especially grateful to the Palillo family, whose generosity has given St.
Mark these beautiful reminders of the saints who have gone before us and continue to point us toward Christ.

We are grateful to have St. Michael here as a visible reminder of his protection and of our call to remain faithful to Christ.

And we pray together the familiar words:
St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle...

October is Respect Life Month

Each October, the Church observes Respect Life Month, a time to remember the dignity and value of every human life, from conception to natural death.

Near the bell tower and along the entrance to our church, white crosses offer a quiet and powerful reminder of the approximate number of lives lost to abortion in the United States every hour.
As we pass them throughout the month, may they remind us to pause, to pray and to cherish every human life.

A special thank you to the volunteers from our Respect Life Ministry who lovingly install the Field of Crosses each year.

Their quiet work gives our parish a visible invitation to prayer throughout Respect Life Month.

High School Life Teen

All high school students are invited to join us for another exciting year of Life Teen!

Life Teen gathers on Sunday evenings after the 5 p.m. Mass for engaging talks, small-group discussions, games, prayer, fun and opportunities to build friendships. And dinner is always included!

Coming Up:

October 11: Forever 1 Grace & Eternity

October 18: No Life Teen

October 25: Harvest Festival for Middle & High School

Stay Connected! Sign up for Life Teen emails and texts through Flocknote. Scan the QR code or visit stmarknc.flocknote.com/lifeteen.

For more information, contact Gus Free at augustine.free@stmarknc.org.

This is Life Teen... a little messy. A lot of fun. And a great way to spend a Sunday night.

Our annual Color Games brought our high school teens together last night for an evening of fun, friendship and a whole lot of colored powder, liquid and paint. But nights like this are about more than the mess. Our teens need a place to belong. They need good friends, trusted adults and a community where they can grow in their faith together. That's what Life Teen is here for.

If you have a high school student who hasn't tried Life Teen yet, send them our way. There's a place for them here. A big thank you to Gus Free, our Life Teen Core Team and all the volunteers who give their Sunday nights to our teens. More volunteers are needed. If you would like to be a Core Team volunteer, please contact Becca.Spurgeon@stmarknc.org.

Reflexión sobre la administración - La vida tiene una forma de atraer nuestra atención hacia preocupaciones inmediatas, haciendo fácil perder de vista lo que realmente importa: nuestra llamada a vivir para el Reino de los Cielos. La forma de vida de la administración nos ayuda a mantener nuestras prioridades en orden, enseñándonos a vivir cada día con la eternidad en mente.

¿Cómo podemos mantenernos centrados en ese objetivo eterno? San Pablo comparte el secreto en la Segunda Lectura de hoy de Filipenses. Escribe: "Sé cómo vivir en circunstancias humildes; también sé cómo vivir en abundancia." Tanto si tenía de sobra como de muy poca, la confianza de San Pablo permanecía igual porque descansaba en Cristo y no en sus circunstancias.

Su secreto es simple: «Puedo hacer todo en aquel que me fortalece.» Y nos recuerda por qué esa confianza está bien depositada: «Mi Dios proveerá plenamente todo lo que necesites, de acuerdo con sus gloriosas riquezas en Cristo Jesús.»

Vivir así no siempre es fácil. Requiere confianza, humildad y perseverancia. Pero Dios nunca nos pide que confiemos en nuestra propia fortaleza. Él nos proporciona todo lo que necesitamos para seguirle fielmente. Nuestra tarea es simplemente depositar nuestra confianza en Él cada día. © Conferencia de Gestión Católica, 2026

Reflexión pastoral - Últimamente he tenido varias conversaciones con personas que preguntan si un ministro extraordinario de la Sagrada Comunión puede o debe bendecir a alguien que se acerque en la fila de la Comunión con los brazos cruzados. La respuesta sencilla es no, pero creo que podría ser buena idea dar una respuesta más profunda. Los ministros extraordinarios de la Sagrada Comunión no deben bendecir a quienes se presentan, pero no reciben, porque una bendición litúrgica en la Misa no forma parte de su mandato ni les corresponde para darla.

Su comisión es limitada. Por el canon 910 §2 y el canon 230 §3 solo se les asigna distribuir la Sagrada Comunión cuando faltan ministros ordinarios (obispos, sacerdotes y diáconos), o el número de comulgantes realmente lo requiere. Redemptionis Sacramentum (2004), n°s 154-158, insiste en que esta función no se amplíe: son ministros extraordinarios de la Sagrada Comunión, no "ministros de la Eucaristía", y actúan solo en necesidad genuina. Nada en la Instrucción General del Misal Romano ni en los ritos les autoriza a bendecir durante la procesión de la Comunión.

Una bendición dada en la liturgia es sacramental, y su ministro ordinario es un clérigo. El Canon 1168 dice que el ministro de sacramentales es un clérigo con el poder necesario; los laicos solo pueden administrar aquellos sacramentales que los libros litúrgicos y el ordinario local permiten expresamente. El Canon 1169 es más preciso: cualquier sacerdote puede impartir bendiciones (excepto las reservadas al papa o a los obispos); un diácono solo puede impartir aquellas que la ley le permita expresamente. La instrucción de 1997 Ecclesia de Mysterio, artículo 6 §2, aplica esto dentro de la Misa: las bendiciones que pertenezcan al papel presidencial no deben ser conferidas por los no ordenados.

La Congregación para el Culto Divino dijo lo mismo directamente. En una carta del 22 de noviembre de 2008 (Protocolo 930/08/L), el subsecretario escribió que "los laicos, en el contexto de la Santa Misa, no pueden conferir bendiciones. Estas bendiciones, en cambio, son competencia del sacerdote", citando la Ecclesia de Mysterio, canon 1169 §2, y el Libro de Bendiciones, n° 18. La misma carta desaconseja la imposición de manos en lugar de la Comunión, porque ese gesto tiene su propio significado sacramental y está fuera de lugar aquí. La carta es una respuesta privada, no una ley universal, pero en este punto solo reafirma la disciplina existente.

Dos razones adicionales se derivan del propio rito. La procesión de comunión es para recibir el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo, no para un segundo rito de bendición; la bendición litúrgica de la Misa se da a todos en el momento de la despedida, unos minutos después. Y una señal de la cruz o una mano levantada de un ministro laico difumina la diferencia entre los ordenados y los no ordenados, algo contra lo que Redemptionis Sacramentum advierte repetidamente. Las normas diocesanas suelen llegar a la conclusión práctica: si alguien se acerca con los brazos cruzados, el ministro extraordinario puede ofrecer una breve palabra sin ningún gesto de bendición ("Recibe a Jesús en tu corazón", o algo similar), y nada más.

Si un sacerdote o diácono debe dar la bendición individual a un sacerdote en la línea de comunión es una cuestión separada y menos resuelta. Para los ministros extraordinarios, la respuesta en la enseñanza católica es clara: no deberían.
