They have travelled extensively – totalling over 300 trips between them – and possess a wealth of insider knowledge on every one of our destinations and hotels. Every holiday is unique, our team will work with you and your travel agent to create your next ultra-luxury holiday experience, making recommendations along the way. This is travel tailored just for you, by those in the luxury travel know.

Incredible experiences await

Travelling with the experts allows you to pull back the curtain of whichever city you choose to travel to – this is truly immersive luxury travel. From exhilarating flights over shimmering skylines; delectable dinner cruises through the heart of wondrous city sights; to cultural sightseeing tours; and private hot air balloon flights over desert dunes. Find our experts' suggestions for day tours throughout the brochure and speak to the TMDH Travel Ambassadors for even more inspiration.

Luxury car hire

At TMDH, we take pride in offering a carefully selected fleet of prestigious cars, allowing you the ultimate flexibility and freedom for your holiday in the quality vehicle you desire. We have partners available in a number of locations, all providing high quality cars carefully selected and prepared to ensure the perfect drive.

Beyond the city

As well as boasting culture and cosmopolitan delights of their own, the world's cities are the gateways to all that lies beyond. Why restrict yourself to one destination, when there's so much to discover? Start in the bustling city of Bangkok before swapping the urban jungle for the wonders and wildness of Northern Thailand; twin the great cities of Sydney and Perth and indulge in the romance of rail travel between; or soak up San Francisco before sampling the famed produce and charming scenery of the California wine scene in Napa Valley. The TMDH Travel Ambassadors have got plenty of suggestions for the perfect combinations. And, with great connections by all modes of luxury transport, not only can we take your city break to the next level, but comfort and style is guaranteed.

Bespoke travel experiences from TMDH allow you to circumnavigate the world's greatest cities with every detail of your itinerary tailored just for you.

And why limit your city explorations to just one mesmerising metropolis. Peruse this curated itinerary, crafted by our experts. This is possibly the ultimate journey to immerse yourself in the wonder of some of the world's most revered and iconic cityscapes.

DESERT NIGHTS AND BLISSFUL BEACHES

Start in a city abounding in contrasts and culture, where futuristic architecture, vast desert lands and an exquisite shoreline merge flawlessly. Dubai is a luxury landscape surrounded with exclusive restaurants and extraordinary attractions. A three-night stay at The Ritz-Carlton provides peaceful privacy and sophistication from every angle. Whilst you're here, explore the city on board a scenic yacht voyage as you relish a delicious barbecue, world-class hospitality, and awe-inspiring views.

A MESMERISING MELTING POT OF CULTURES

One of the greenest cities in the world, Singapore is rich in history and culture, awash with colour and diversity. Soaring skyscrapers sit side-by-side with authentic street food markets and incense-filled temples. For a novel experience, explore the city on a vespa Sidecar tour before staying at Sentosa Island, where tranquilly and fun combine. Spend four nights at The Barracks Hotel Sentosa, a Small Luxury Hotel of the World, abundant in charm and character. Sip free-flow Champagne and indulge in sweet creations with an afternoon tea experience.

AUSTRALIAN ADVENTURE

Next, Sydney is an urban playground of culture and fun. Experience the iconic Sydney Opera House in VIP style with a behind-the-scenes tour including a delicious dinner and a ticket to see a breathtaking performance. At the Four Seasons Sydney, spend four nights in the heart of the action; Sydney Harbour provides a vibrant scene of exquisite shopping, dining and adventure.

NEW ZEALAND NATURE

The bustling city of Auckland provides an exciting addition to this wanderlust itinerary. Bask in the spectacular views of Waitemata Harbour as you stay four nights at SO Auckland, a sophisticated property where chic design meets world-class wellness and gastronomy. Experience the natural beauty of Waiheke Island, a heavenly sanctuary of resplendent coastline complete with striking turquoise waters. Then, a private gourmet food and wine tour awaits, taking you on an epicurean journey of discovery through New Zealand's local flavours.

GLITZ AND GLAMOUR

Head to glitzy Los Angeles where glamour and excitement supersedes even the highest of expectations. Stay three nights in the cultural heart of the city at 1 Hotel West Hollywood. A delightfully walkable neighbourhood, there is always a lively scene to explore with easy access to the top hot spots while a hub of the trendiest of bars, restaurants, and shopping is right on your doorstep.

THE CITY THAT NEVER SLEEPS

Arguably saving the best until last, end this trip to remember in New York. Whether your passion is stylish shopping, iconic culture, fabulous food or hip nightlife, this city has it all. Whilst it preserves its history and charm so well, it's also a city pioneering the way for new cuisine, art and green spaces. Spend four nights at Baccarat Hotel, an award-winning property offering high-class luxury, and a relaxing retreat to bring to a close this exceptional worldwide city adventure.

Our expert's suggestions over the following pages are just a snippet of what's possible. Contact your preferred travel agent to begin your ultra-luxury travel experience with TMDH.

USA & CANADA

Bright lights, big cities... Northern America is home to some of the most iconic.

Art and architecture, the city of all cities, an icon; New York does all the talking for itself. The chances are no matter how many times you visit you'll never see it all, which is always a great reason to return. New York's most famous attractions such as MOMA and the Empire State Building are, of course, not to be missed, but equally deserving of attention are the city's unique neighbourhoods where quirky cafés, comedy clubs, galleries, boutiques and local stories await.

New York might be so good they named it twice, but the East Coast boasts many more cities to be explored. The seat of the nation's government, Washington, D.C. will always remain relevant; Illinois' biggest city, Chicago prides itself on its incredible architecture and vibrant music venues, including the legendary jazz scene; and an intriguing mix of contemporary and the traditional, Boston's attractions include watching a game at the iconic Fenway Park and walking the renowned Freedom Trail.... all with the spectacular scenery of New England in easy reach.

City living is a little different over on the West Coast and the allure of California is hard to deny in the sun-drenched cities of Los Angeles and San Francisco. Visit the famous Santa Monica pier or browse the designer stores of Beverly Hills before immersing yourself in the iconic sights and sounds of San Francisco. For the perfect complement to a Californian city break, explore some of the State's most renowned wine regions.

With no introduction necessary, Las Vegas has fast become the party capital of the world. No longer just about gambling, Las Vegas is now home to some of the world's best restaurants, bars and nightclubs attracting the biggest artists and DJs from around the world.

Canada's cities maintain the awe-inspiring feel of those found in the USA but with distinctive Canadian charm and breathtaking scenery on every doorstep. Canada's largest city, Toronto, offers everything from cosmopolitan chic to country charm. Explore its neighbourhoods for an eclectic mix of architecture, food and shopping or simply choose to rest tired feet with a day spent by the cool waters of Lake Ontario.

MULTI-CENTRE

A tale of two cities – New York and Washington, D.C.

A city pairing doesn't come much more iconic than the 'Big Apple' and the home of US politics.

A NEW YORK STATE OF MIND

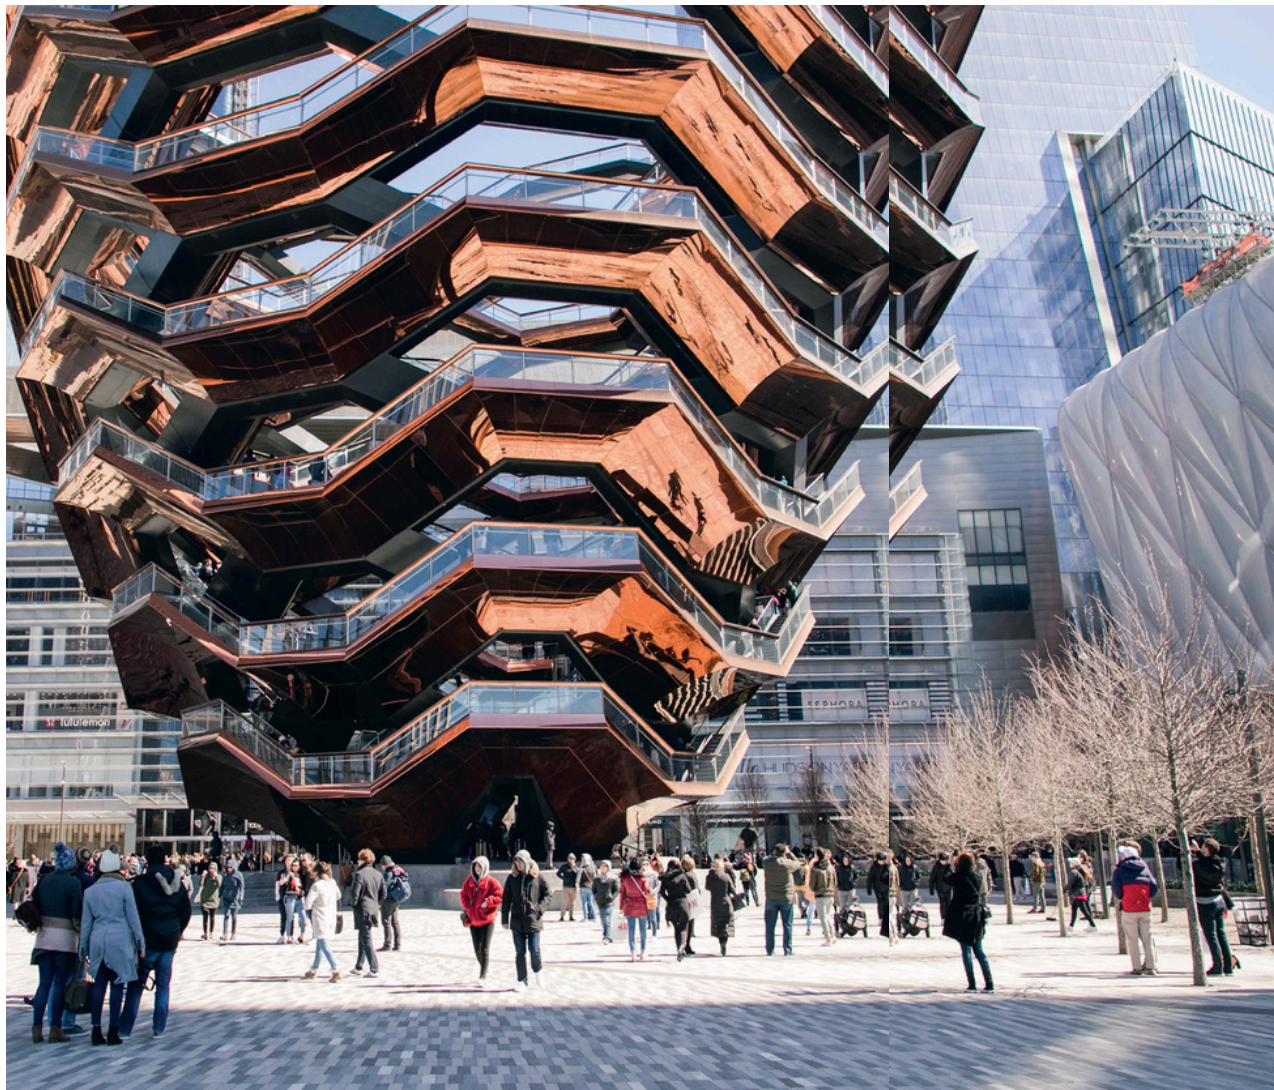

Art, architecture, theatre, shopping, one of the world's leading food scenes, New York has it all. The chances are no matter how many times you visit you'll never see it all, which is always a great reason to return. Classic and timeless; the Statue of Liberty, Times Square, Fifth Avenue, Central Park, the Empire State Building and the Rockefeller Centre, the list goes on. But, whilst New York preserves its history and charm so well, it's also a city pioneering the way for new cuisine, art and green spaces with innovative attractions like Little Island, Vessel and SUMMIT One Vanderbilt recently opening. Broken down into five distinct neighbourhoods, your New York experience will depend entirely on where you visit. Head to the well-known and glamorous Manhattan for classic NYC. For coffee culture and a cool craft-ale scene, Brooklyn is a must, while foodies will rejoice in Queens. For the soul of the city visit Harlem, or if it's ultimate views you are looking for, pay a visit to Staten Island.

Hotels in New York don't come much more prestigious or elegant than The Peninsula, which to this day still retains many of its 1905 features. Located on Fifth Avenue and 55th Street in Midtown Manhattan, here you are close to New York's most distinguished shopping district, a short walk from Central Park, Rockefeller Centre, many of New York's finest museums and Broadway theatres.

spa treatment or unwind with a soak by the fireplace in the exclusive rooftop pool. Located in Washington D.C.'s most desirable neighbourhood, Georgetown, this hotel is also home to steakhouse CUT, by world-renowned chef Wolfgang Puck, the most sought-after dining venue in the city. Georgetown is well-known for its delightful boutiques, parks and gardens and its classical elegant style.

A short stroll from Rosewood and you'll soon feel like you're in a political feature film. Historic and grandiose, the National Mall is home to iconic monuments and in the surrounds you will find the domed U.S Capitol and the White House to name but a few of the world's most famous buildings. Explore the city in safe hands with a D.C. monuments tour taking in top hotspots including The Lincoln Memorial and Washington Monument. Once you are done admiring the wonders of the city's historical and political landscape, explore one of the city's 20 unique neighbourhoods, each brimming with its own personality. In the White House and Foggy Bottom neighbourhood you'll brush shoulders with journalists and politicians.

For excellent views across Manhattan choose the stylish Junior Suite. Located on a corner, the suite offers stunning views overlooking Fifth Avenue and 55th Street. Plus you'll have access to a chauffeur-driven MINI Cooper S Clubman for up to three hours per day, a great way to zip around Manhattan.

POLITICS AND PERSONALITY

From New York travel south in Business Class on the Amtrak train to Washington, D.C. In just a few hours you will arrive in the political heart of America, where you'll stay at Rosewood Washington, D.C. This beautifully, refined hotel pioneers residential-style living with six townhouses in addition to well-appointed rooms and suites. The perfect retreat, after a long day sightseeing, relax with an in-room

MULTI-CENTRE

Boston & New England

Picturesque and vibrant, Boston is one of America's oldest cities filled with a rich history, fascinating sights and scenic parks just waiting to be discovered. A gateway to the spectacular scenery of New England, uncover its hidden gems and blaze a trail of vibrant colours, culture and spectacles with the beauty of its surrounding areas.

A PATCHWORK OF COLOUR AND CULTURE

With a landscape of every-changing colour, this beautiful destination is famed for its postcard perfect vistas. Quaint and charming, Boston is amply explorable by foot, considered to be one of America's most walkable cities and is home to some of the country's most renowned landmarks and institutions. Don't miss HH Richardson's masterpiece Trinity Church, the Institute of Contemporary Art and the famed gourmet food halls as well as artisanal markets and chic boutiques. Uncover Boston's past while enjoying its distinctively modern edge; pay a visit to the old masters and the brew masters, seek thrills on high-speed catamaran whale watches or take it easy as you cruise the historic harbour. Walk The Freedom Trail – a two and half mile walk that winds through the city's sites that played a key role in the American Revolution.

STEP INTO THE CITY

Stay at Four Seasons Hotel Boston where you will be in the heart of the action, being just steps away from top sights and boasting picturesque views across historic Public Gardens and the gilded dome of the State House. This property provides the perfect base to tick all the must-see attractions of Boston off your list all while staying in supreme comfort, elegance and privacy. Stylish rooms and suites provide a retreat of calm where you can relax in expansive and well-appointed spaces. Take a moment to unwind at the fitness centre, whirlpool, sauna and a pool with a view before refuelling at beautifully

MULTI-CENTRE

California's cities, coast & winelands

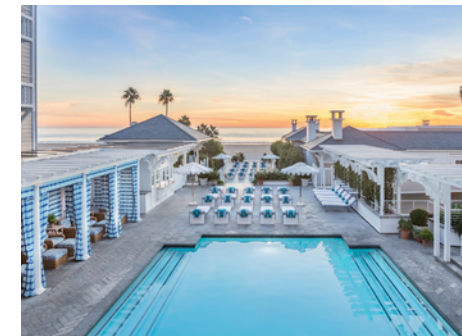

For those who are drawn to the finer things in life, this trip encapsulates the perfect blend of luxury city life with the opportunity to explore some of California's most astounding wine regions. Begin in the cultured and breezy San Francisco before heading inland to the esteemed wine counties of Sonoma and Napa before concluding in the uber-cool, beach town of Santa Monica.

IT BEGAN IN SAN FRAN

A city with soul, San Francisco is to be lived as much as it is to be seen. Although it's famous for its iconic Golden Gate Bridge, Fisherman's Wharf, Union Square, Chinatown and the fascinating island of Alcatraz, visitors flock to this city for an incredible food scene, unrivalled culture and a beautiful cityscape. Explore by foot or hop on board one of the city's well-loved cable cars. For luxury and comfort stay at The St. Regis San Francisco, not only a stunning hotel in the heart of the city but also an art lovers' haven. Located within the Williams Building, home to the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, The St. Regis also has a discerning art collection featuring exquisite works by acclaimed local artists. Newly re-designed rooms and suites have been meticulously designed with an ultra-luxe aesthetic and suite guests can benefit from a tailored service by a St. Regis Butler.

VINEYARD VOYAGE

From San Francisco venture in-land to Sonoma, one of California's most beloved wine producing regions. Although bigger than Napa Valley, Sonoma is known for its smaller and more intimate wineries offering a much more laid-back experience. Hire a bike and cycle between vineyards or head into Sonoma town which has an incredible farm-to-fork dining scene. This destination is most famous for its Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Zinfandel and a host of refreshing sparkling wines. Here we suggest you stay at AAA four-diamond awarded Fairmont Sonoma Mission Inn & Spa, boasting geothermal fed mineral pools and access to Championship golf.

With an entirely different feel, Napa Valley is the polished diamond of the California wine scene. With over 400 wineries set over 30 miles, it offers some of the best vintages outside of France and is picture-perfect with Tuscan-style rolling hills and beautiful sunny skies year-round. Hire a driver for the day to transport you from vineyard to vineyard or take the wine train and experience world-class Cabernet Sauvignon, Chardonnay and Merlot, right where it's produced. Located on 300 beautiful acres and surrounded by countless wineries Silverado Resort makes your stay in Napa Valley truly exceptional. A 150-year-old landmark which began as a private estate now has beautiful guest rooms, spacious suites, two Championship golf courses, three outdoor swimming pools, tennis courts and a spa.

BEACH LIFE

The last leg of this intoxicating journey finishes in trendy Santa Monica. This beloved Los Angeles beach community is full of beach town soul; cool restaurants, sophisticated shopping and original art galleries. Take a stroll down Santa Monica Pier offering spectacular views of the coast or hire a beach cruiser and cycle down the expansive front which stretches 22 miles along the shore. For upscale shopping and dining with the cool Cali A-list head to Montana Avenue. For art lovers 18th Street Art Centre is home to one of Southern California's leading collection of galleries. An iconic stay – Shutters on the Beach is a prestigious beachfront residence oozing elegance and charm on one of California's most prolific beaches. Comfortable and luxurious, rooms and suites recall the quintessential cottages of Cape Cod with shuttered doors opening up onto breezy balconies and a sun-drenched pool terrace.

TORONTO

Shangri-La Toronto

This elegant hotel offers a distinctively urban escape in one of Toronto's highest buildings, successfully blending contemporary luxury with traditional Asian décor.

In this chic hotel, spacious rooms and suites each curate individual havens for guests, with floor-to-ceiling windows offering sweeping panoramas of downtown Toronto. MULTI-CENTRE

Western Canada Explorer

This is the trip of a lifetime. Experience breathtaking scenery, incredible hotels, a mix of cities and the best of Western Canada.

GATEWAY TO THE ROCKIES

With wide open spaces and a laid-back atmosphere Calgary is a great city to acclimatise to the Canadian way of life. A cosmopolitan mix of restaurants serving international cuisine, world-class hotels and exciting attractions await visitors. Prestigious and palatial The Fairmont Palliser Calgary provides a luxurious and elegant place to start your trip right in the heart of downtown Calgary.

Travel on to Banff where we recommend a stay at Fairmont Banff Springs. This luxury mountain resort offers a championship golf course during the summer and unparalleled skiing in the winter. Discover the charming town of Banff with its quaint galleries and museums, upscale boutiques and renowned restaurants. Whilst the town has charm and character, the surrounds of Banff are where you will find outdoor experiences at their most exhilarating.

LAKESIDE LUXURY

From Banff it's a short journey to Fairmont Chateau Lake Louise. Originally built as a base for outdoor enthusiasts over 100 years ago, this iconic hotel is a year-round luxury mountain retreat within another UNESCO World Heritage Site. Located lake-side you have a front row seat to soaring mountain peaks, majestic glaciers, and, in the summer, the beautiful turquoise waters of the lake.

Further north through the Rockies lies Jasper National Park and the Alpine town of Jasper. Spend time exploring the National Park, the breathtaking Maligne Lake and Columbia Icefields, taking an all-terrain vehicle to the Athabasca Glacier or walk the glass Skywalk. In summer outdoor pursuits are the talk of the town; hiking, biking, wildlife watching and in winter it's a great place to ski, snowboard and perhaps catch the Northern Lights. Located just outside of Jasper town, Fairmont Jasper Park Lodge is a 700-acre year-round luxury mountain resort on the shores of 'Lac Beauvert'.

ON TRACK

From Jasper board the Rocky Mountaineer train to Vancouver. An iconic two-day train journey which enjoys spectacular scenery from the Canadian Rockies. Truly a once-in-a-lifetime experience, the train departs Jasper before passing through the lush green fields of Fraser Valley, through forests and winding river canyons, before entering the desert-like environment of British Columbia's interior. Opt for GoldLeaf Service and enjoy full glass-dome windows with panoramic views, bi-level coaches with seating above and dining room below, signature cocktails, premium alcoholic drinks and engaging hosts with fascinating stories of history, scenery, and wildlife.

CITY CHIC TO OFF-GRID

In Vancouver explore the exciting, energised city; unwind in local cafés, feast on fresh seafood and enjoy the natural vistas that this ocean fringed metropolis is famous for. Located on the city's dynamic harbour, Fairmont Waterfront Vancouver serves upscale comfort and personalised service all with unparalleled views of the west coast and easy access to everything that makes this place so spectacular. Immerse yourself in the trendy eateries and cool pubs of Gastown just a short stroll away or hire a bike and cycle through 400-hectare Stanley Park.

Having soaked up the city, the final part of this incredible journey takes you to Vancouver Island to experience wild, off-grid luxury at its best. Clayoquot Wilderness Lodge skirts the banks of Clayoquot Sound and offers an escape to the still, tranquil beauty of Canada's remote wilderness whilst maintaining a level of luxury and comfort. Accessible only by seaplane or boat, the journey to Clayoquot is symbolic of a real departure from the everyday. Whilst nature is at its heart there's no compromise on service or hospitality with fine wines, world-class accommodation, sustainable dining and unrivalled relaxation.

EUROPE

Enthralling and captivating; historic yet modern; bustling yet serene, the cities of Europe offer a lesson in beautiful juxtaposition.

Meander amongst the multi-layered masterpiece that is Europe; if a city break is on the agenda you're truly spoilt for choice in this picturesque area of the world. And, so close to home, these destinations are perfect for a weekend away.

With an undeniable je ne sais quoi, few destinations are as stylish or sophisticated as Paris. Art and fashion are intrinsically woven into the fabric of the city – world-famous galleries, museums and high-end boutiques abound. Away from the main attractions, take some time to embrace the Parisian way of life... stop for a long lunch with Champagne under café awnings, cycle along the Seine and explore local markets. If you're visiting in the summer months, be sure to visit the Open Air Cinema at Parc de la Villette for a film beneath the stars.

A banquet for the senses, with a beguiling mix of ancient and modern architecture, and sun-drenched Mediterranean beaches in bustling Barcelona – this city offers the best of both worlds. Explore the medieval streets of the Gothic Quarter, where the labyrinth of lanes open onto squares lined with boutiques, bars and restaurants. For sport enthusiasts, visit celebrated sporting venues including Camp Nou, home to FC Barcelona or, for architecture lovers, Antoni Gaudí's whimsical work can be found in numerous locations including Park Güell, the city's largest green space.

Take an exciting journey through time and explore the magnificent historical sights of Rome. In Italy's eternal city, climb the Spanish Steps, marvel at Michelangelo's Sistine Chapel, make a wish at the Trevi Fountain, absorb the power of the Colosseum, visit Saint Peter's Basilica and wander around the treasures of the Vatican. Of course, a visit here wouldn't be complete without indulging in its world-famous cuisine; authentic restaurants and street corner shops won't disappoint.

A truly charismatic and unique city, Istanbul offers a glimpse inside authentic Turkey with a handful of the most magnificent Byzantine treasures. Immerse yourself in local life at The Grand Bazaar, be in awe of grand temples and mosques and discover the subterranean secrets of the Basilica Cistern. Head to Cihangir for antique shopping, stroll the winding paths and enjoy a picnic in Gülhane Park and, for live music venues, frequent the bars of the Kadıköy district.

Experience the best of South Africa with this multi-centre exploring Johannesburg

THE CITY OF GOLD

Begin in Johannesburg, an ever-evolving city where you can discover an insight into the country's enthralling history and take in the vibrancy of its diversity. This city oozes culture and there's a developing food scene boasting a variety of world cuisine including local dishes that shouldn't be missed. Must-do activities include the Apartheid Museum and Constitution Hill to find out more about South Africa's turbulent past. Check out one of the many eateries in Soweto, along the famous Vilakazi Street (the only street to have produced two Nobel Prize winners, Nelson Mandela and Desmond Tutu) and the Soho-type villages of Norwood, Parkhurst and Greenside aren't to be missed. And there's a staggering array of entertainment too, from intimate jazz clubs and traditional dancing to kwaito and first-class theatres.

Whilst in the city, stay at the spectacular Four Seasons Hotel The Westcliff. This luxurious, chic hillside resort is the perfect base from which to explore Johannesburg from – returning to the utmost comfort after boundless adventures in the city. Sample seasonally inspired dishes at Flames and take in the views while indulging in treatments at the rooftop destination spa.

WALK ON THE WILD SIDE

Once you've had your fix of city magic, it's time to head to Kruger National Park for a stay at Jock Main Lodge for a truly unmatched experience, witnessing wildlife in its majestic natural form. South Africa's most famous game reserve offers countless opportunities to view different species in their natural habitats amidst magnificent landscapes. Jock Main Lodge offers an exclusive hideaway within the impressive Kruger National Park with twelve thatched rooms screened behind lush trees and greenery. Immerse yourself in the daily game drives to spot the Big Five before leaving for Victoria Falls.

THE SMOKE THAT THUNDERS

UNESCO World Heritage Site Victoria Falls presents a spectacular sight of awe-inspiring beauty and grandeur on the Zambezi River. It was described by local tribes as 'Mosi-oa-Tunya' – 'The Smoke that Thunders' – due to the plumes of mist that hover as the water roars over the edge. Stay at The Royal Livingstone Hotel is an elegant hotel on the banks of the Zambezi River, exuding old-world opulence and providing unforgettable memories with its ideal location only ten minutes from Victoria Falls, one of the world's Seven Natural Wonders. Guests will benefit from exclusive access to the waterfall via the hotel's private entrance.

FAR EAST

Discover the mystique of Far East cities on your next holiday - but don't restrict yourself. How about a twin or multi-centre?

Escape to the enchanting Far East, where dynamic metropolises co-exist with ancient temples and traditions, promising bewildering diversity, incredible beauty and extraordinary historical and cultural wealth. Prepare to be enriched as you discover some of the world's most fascinating cities: Bangkok, Hong Kong, Singapore and Kuala Lumpur. However, there is a good argument to extend your single-centre holiday experience. Consider a twin or multi-centre holiday to explore more of the region.

Thailand's capital offers much more than a stopover destination. Discover a city of flamboyant contrasts as you delve into the delights of Bangkok. Where historic temples neighbour towering skyscrapers and trendy rooftop bars overlook street food carts. Whether it's sampling street food, touring temples or relaxing on a river cruise, Bangkok is the perfect mix of chaos and calm. Better still, it's the perfect gateway to exploring the rest of Thailand – combine the city with idyllic beach resorts or the jungles of the north.

Posing as a financial hub and pioneering metropolis as well as a pillar of tradition, Hong Kong is full of surprises. Immerse yourself in a unique harmony that is both progressive and intrinsically tied to its Chinese roots. Don't miss out on The Dragon's Back Trail, voted the world's best urban walk by Times Magazine. Follow the mountain ridge to the viewing platform at Shek O Peak for a real sight to behold. Heading south to Malaysia, no matter where you are in the capital city, the view of the iconic Petronas Towers makes it impossible to forget where you are. A first glance takes in the impressive high-rise architecture, but a closer look finds colonial mansions and mosques from an illustrious past. An easy day trip from Kuala Lumpur, the Batu Caves are a national treasure and are not to be missed. 272 colourful steps lead up to the caves which are home to beautiful Hindu temples.

Just 200 miles southeast of Kuala Lumpur, discover the gleaming cityscape of Singapore. A real melting pot of culture, find influences from India, China and Malaysia throughout the city, from architecture to cuisine. If the buzz of the city gets too much, head over Causeway Bridge to Sentosa Island where you'll find powdery beaches and thrilling watersports.

The hotel's top floor, indoor pool also has full length windows with staggering city views.

A SEAPLANE AWAY

Any trip to Western Australia isn't complete without a visit to Margaret River. Take a private seaplane to this incredible part of the world filled with exclusive wineries and incredible, long white sand beaches and delightful seas. For those looking for outdoor adventure and thrills, try kayaking and abseiling or the epic Cape to Cape walk. Whilst in Margaret River stay in 40 acres of lush, forested gardens at Cape Lodge and marvel at the views overlooking a private lake and rolling vineyards.

MULTI-CENTRE

Melbourne, southern winelands and wildlife

This three-part itinerary provides guests with an incredibly unique experience including time to indulge in the charms and culture of Melbourne, one of Australia's most iconic cities. Then explore a different side to this fascinating country in the most luxurious of surroundings, as you venture to the green hills and vineyards of Adelaide Hills and reconnect with nature at its wildest on Kangaroo Island.

COOL AND CULTURED

Widely regarded as Australia's cultural capital – Melbourne is home to coffee culture, cool galleries, fashion hotspots and the gateway to some of the country's most fascinating natural wonders. In addition to Melbourne's must-see sights such as Flinders Street Station and Federation Square, wander Melbourne's 19th century laneways. These cobbled streets lined with cafés, galleries and boutiques are home to colourful, world-famous street art. This eclectic city also offers a year-round calendar of exciting sports and world-class live music. From Melbourne you can also easily access The Great Ocean Road, Philip Island and the Mornington Peninsula.

Retreat to The Lyall Hotel in South Yarra, one of Melbourne's most anticipated hotel reopenings. This exquisite hotel offers a new level of elegance and sophistication in an urban sanctuary. Located in the stylish and affluent suburb of South Yarra, this independent, immaculately designed hotel offers a unique blend of style and intimate luxury. Step out of the The Lyall and explore a prosperous area with designer boutiques and restaurants right on your doorstep.

HEAD FOR THE HILLS

From Melbourne, head west and as the city of Adelaide ends you'll find the rolling Adelaide Hills. Bursting with character and full of vales, villages and vineyards 'the hills' is a place for leisurely pursuits and a slower pace of life. Enjoy long lunches, farmers markets and exploring mid-19th century villages, or for spectacular views across Adelaide climb 710m up Mount Lofty Summit. Adelaide Hills also has a fabulous reputation for some of Australia's best low-production, boutique vineyards, renowned for their Sauvignon Blanc and sparkling whites.

Nestled in the highlands of the hills you'll find adult-only Sequoia Lodge. On the side of Mount Lofty high above Piccadilly Valley, this exclusive sanctuary allows you to reconnect with nature and indulge in all that the Adelaide Hills is famous for. Seeking to offer an immersive experience, Sequoia Lodge also presents its guests with a selection of carefully curated experiences such as morning yoga, time with a local artisan winemaker, stargazing or time spent in the spring-fed hot pool and infinity pool.

UNIQUE WILDLIFE

The final part of this unique journey takes you to Kangaroo Island. Untamed and unfiltered this beautiful island offers an untouched landscape which some of Australia's most iconic wildlife calls home. Often referred to as Australia's Galapagos Islands, this rugged landscape is the perfect place for a wealth of wildlife to thrive and prosper, including its namesake – kangaroos. Many wildlife encounters will unfold in front of you whilst out walking, however with the help of a guide you may see wallabies, fur seals, dolphins, koalas, cockatoos and more.

Providing a luxurious base in Kangaroo Island for adventurers, Southern Island Lodge is a pioneer of experiential luxury in Australia. Offering breathtaking views of the Southern Ocean this striking opulent lodge combines contemporary and cutting-edge design with world-class dining and a personal connection with nature. Luxurious suites sit proudly along the limestone cliffs, and with floor-to-ceiling glass across the suites, magnificent views of the Southern Ocean can be admired at any time of day.
