Happy 3rd Sunday of Ordinary Time!

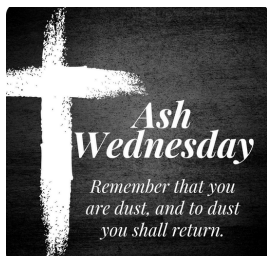

As Kristi and I begin our fourth year here in Sioux Falls, we are excited about what the Lord has in store for us! We really don't know what it entails, but we are excited to be with all of you as we strive to fulfill our lives in the Church.

Today's Gospel reminds me to look at where I have been and where the Lord wants me to go in my life. Jesus' calling of the first Apostles makes me reminisce about my own calling and question myself about, "How's it going, Mark?" The Apostles had no idea what they were in for when they got up and followed Him, just as we don't really know where our Christianity is taking us.

Just recently, I was filing emails and, as I sorted my files, I noticed a list of "What's going on..." items. Bishop away because of illness, another bishop filling in, Catholic school under attack, Abortion overruled in our state, a new Pope, a new Pastor, the Church is constantly on the move. St Paul tells us to, "... be united in the same mind and in the same purpose." And I think it is good to look over where I have been and where I'm going, to ensure that "... the Cross of Christ might not be emptied of its meaning."

In my ministry, I encounter folks near death and have come to understand the meaning of the Cross as Jesus taught it. Understanding suffering without experiencing it (pain) is an excellent benefit for me as a Christian. It makes you realize what "Follow me" means and how suffering is needed to fulfill our life on Earth.

As we move toward Lent, and the grand celebration of Christ's victory over death, let us think of and pray for those who are suffering. Visit those in our lives who can't get out and make a difference in someone's life. Deacon Mark Harriman

Communion Hymn: Your Words Are Spirit and Life

REFRAIN— Your words are spirit and life, O Lord: richer than gold, stronger than death.

Your words are spirit and life, O Lord: life everlasting.

God's law is perfect, refreshing the soul, reviving the weary spirit. God's rule can be trusted: bringing us wisdom, bringing God's wisdom to birth. (refrain)

God's precepts keep us; their purpose is right. They gladden the hearts of people. God's command is so clear it brings us new vision; bringing God's light to our eyes. (refrain)

Living by God's truth is holy and sure; God's presence is everlasting. God's truth is eternal, bringing us justice; bringing God's justice to earth. (refrain)

God's word is precious, desired more than gold; worth more than we dare imagine and, sweeter than honey, this word will feed us, bringing fulfillment and joy. (refrain)
