The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

Lux Aeterna Dona Lis Requiem translates to "Eternal Light Give Unto Them Rest." This phrase, Lux Aeterna, Dona Lis Requiem, is a collective prayer sung at the 4:00 p.m. Mass, a time when we come together to remember everyone who has passed away. This Mass is a powerful reminder of our shared loss and the enduring impact of those who were once a part of our lives. These individuals, whom we honor with the singing of Lux Aeterna Dona Lis Requiem, were not just important to us in life, but their influence continues to guide, teach, and nurture us. Their lives were significant, and their memory will endure.
