My dear brothers and sisters in Christ, the Advent season is almost done. We are already in the third Sunday of Advent, also known as Gaudete (rejoice) Sunday. We rejoice because the coming of Our Savior is at hand. As Christians, we cannot forget that the good news of the Gospel is a great reason to rejoice. It is precisely that joy that should motivate us to remain faithful to God and to wait patiently for His salvation. Jesus is coming to transform the world as the prophet Isaiah announced. He wants to start with our hearts!

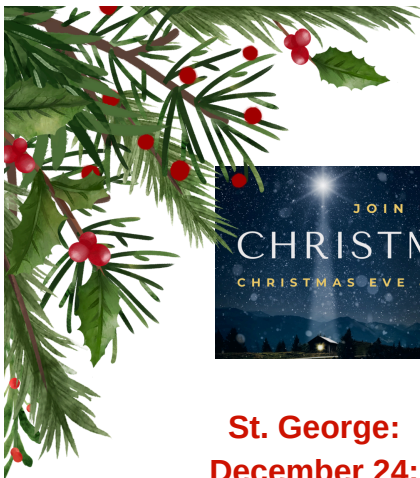

In what remains of this Advent season, I would like to continue encouraging you to grow in prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Here are some ways in which you can do that. For prayer, I invite you to join our 40-hour Devotion starting this Sunday night and to make sure you get to confession before Christmas. Our Advent Penance Service for St. Michael is on Tuesday, Dec 16, at 7 pm, and we will have 10 priests available to hear confessions. Advent Penance Service for St. George is on Thursday, Dec. 18, at 6:00 pm, and we will have five priests to hear confessions.

For fasting, I invite you to practice more intentional silence throughout your day by avoiding distractions from social media and the news.

For almsgiving, I invite you to consider an end-of-year gift to support our pastorate and its various ministries, which depend on your donations.

In Christ,

Fr. Cesar Valencia P.E.S
