26 In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us through wordless groans. ²⁷ And he who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for God's people in accordance with the will of God. ²⁸ And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose. ²⁹ For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. ³⁰ And those he predestined, he also called; those he called, he also justified; those he justified, he also glorified. ³¹ What, then, shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? ³² He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things? ³³ Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies. ³⁴ Who then is the one who condemns? No one. Christ Jesus who died—more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us. ³⁵ Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? ³⁶ As it is written: "For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered." ³⁷ No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. ³⁸ For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, ³⁹ neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

SERMON Unstoppable Love Reverend Tyler Jackson

REFLECTION QUESTIONS:

1. Where in your life do you feel too weak, tired, overwhelmed, or unsure even to know how to pray — and what would it mean to trust that the Spirit is already praying with you and for you?
2. What would change in the way you see yourself if you truly believed that God gave everything for your redemption and is still actively working for your good?
3. If nothing in all creation can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus, what fear, struggle, or obstacle needs to lose its power over you this week?

BENEDICTION Pastor Tyler

Leader: When we do not know how to pray, God is already praying for us; trusting that the Spirit will help us in our weakness. Trouble may interrupt us, hardship may discourage us, and fear may delay us, but they cannot defeat the love of God.

All: God is actively working for our good and for the redemption of all things as we Love Christ, Love People, and Help People Love Christ. Amen!

South Hall Community Food Pantry Needs

Each month, our friends at the South Hall Community Food Pantry request specific items which supplement regular donations and help meet the needs of our neighbors. For the month of July the request is for 1lb (pound) packages of rice, beans, and pasta.

Additionally, the demand for jelly has increased! So 15oz or 18oz jelly (grape and strawberry preferred) will be greatly appreciated as well.

Help Feed our Furry Friends

The pets of our neighbors need help too! The pantry is now accepting bagged dog and cat food, any brand, along with our other donated items.

Please place these items on the table in the Bagley Annex kitchen.

Help Build the Children’s Book Wall

Our Next Generations Coordinator, Zoe, would like to add a book wall to the Children’s area downstairs. Books on display will not only be used during the weekly children’s program, but will also be made available for the McEver Kids to read on their own and even borrow any time they want!

The shelves will cost around $20 each and between 10 to 12 shelves will be need to fill the entire wall space.

Thank you in advance for your generosity and donations
