

2024 National Association Volunteer Award

Description:

This award honours an FSAC volunteer who has gone above and beyond in supporting the work of the Association.

Eligibility:

The individual:

1. Must be an active FSAC volunteer;
2. Must demonstrate dedication, commitment, and reliability to advance the work of FSAC;
3. Must help advance the Association towards its mission and pave a path to a better future for the organization and its members.

Nomination:

As a member of an FSAC Committee, we invite you to nominate a peer for the National Association Volunteer Award – FSAC.

Please review the award description above and nominate a fellow volunteer for this award. You can also complete the form here and email it directly to FSAC's Executive Director at info@fsac.ca

Nominations may be submitted before March 31, 2024. The Award will be presented during the FSAC Summit & Exhibitors Showcase in June 2024.

Application Criteria:

The nomination should clearly establish that the nominee:

- Demonstrated motivation and enthusiasm for the tasks;
- Participated in different activities related to FSAC; and
- Showed leadership and mobilized others.

Approval Process:

The decision to grant awards is at the discretion of the Membership Committee. The committee reserves the right to award this Award if no nomination is received.

Conflict of Interest

Should there be, or appear to be, a conflict of interest for a member of FSAC's Membership Committee, the said member will excuse themselves from the evaluation process.

