Join our Liturgical Ministry Team!

Our parish community thrives when everyone shares their gifts in service to the Church. We invite you to consider serving in one of our liturgical ministries!

Whether you have a friendly smile to welcome others as an usher, a deep love for the Eucharist as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion (EMHC), a calling to proclaim God's Word as a lector, or a heart for reverent preparation as a sacristan, your service makes a difference. We also need acolytes to assist at Mass and tour guides to share the story of our unique and historic church to guests.

We will provide training and pair you with a veteran server for as long as you need. Join us in making our worship more beautiful and welcoming. Your parish family needs you! Contact Jimmy for more info at 313-309-1263.

God is calling the Church of Detroit to renewal and revival. This is not just a catch phrase; it is a commissioning from the Lord and empowered by the Holy Spirit. Rising from the Ashes is a Eucharistic centered experience of prayer, teaching, and praise to God. We will learn from four wonderful speakers, raise our voices in praise with great musical artists, encounter the full breath of the Church, and witness to Christ in a Eucharistic procession.

To learn more about the revival, to order tickets and to become a sponsor go to risingrevival.org.

EVERYBODY'S CHURCH IN DOWNTOWN DETROIT

Trinity Sunday Body Language

Catholics have a super short prayer that sums up SO much of what we believe. Can you think of what it is? You've probably "performed" it several times already today: The Sign of The Cross. Because it's called a sign, and because of the active gestures that accompany it, we may have never stopped to think of it as a prayer. Yet, it is - in fact, it's (at least partially) a special kind of prayer called a statement of belief, or creed, prayer.

I surmise that more than any other kind, a creed prayer just may be the one that falls most tenderly upon our Lord's ears. Allow this analogy: If a beloved child approaches to speak to you, would you deep-down rather hear a complaint, a request, a (not quite adequate) praise, an (incomplete) apology, or a sincere acknowledgment of the child's belief in you and in your relationship? On this solemnity, let's consider where our hand pauses:

- "In the name of the Father:" At the head ... the source of leadership, creativity, wisdom, thoughtfulness, and imagination (Image-ination?); the point from which all growth and motion become possible; the mysteries of which are, despite centuries of scientific and philosophical study, still largely unplumbed.
- "And of the Son:" At the heart ... the way we come to fully understand love; the place where the truest, most profound decisions are made; the final leap between logic and hope; the beat in which generosity and surrender become possible. And at the stomach ... where Christ in the Eucharist begins to infiltrate our every cell; the seat of ever-fulfilled, ever-yearning hunger; the center of the original instinct we have to feast on abundant life.
- "And of the Holy Spirit:" At the shoulders ... the resting place for little ones in need of tenderness; the muscle behind our commitment and courage; the path that takes work from our heart out to our hands (and back again); the turn of which can repel temptation; the platform for bearing redemptive burdens; the stretch that opens arms wide - in welcome, and mercy, and sacrifice.

Amen!

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

We, the spiritual family of St. Aloysius honor and value the diversity of our community. Through our worship of God, we joyfully commit ourselves to imitate the Good Shepherd. We serve our brothers and sisters when we comfort the lost, feed the hungry, clothe the naked, shelter the homeless, and welcome the stranger. Our service is rooted in our experience of God's love, which calls us to be the Good News of Jesus in the downtown Detroit community.

Join the St Aloysius Moms Group on WhatsApp!

This is an informal and welcoming group of moms with babies/kids at St Aloysius. Our goal is to offer support, share advice and resources, and connect to each other! If you are planning a trip to the park, the zoo, or just a get-together, and would like to have other moms join with their kids, this group is for you. If you have questions about parenting, babies, pregnancy, or prayer needs, we are here to help. Scan the QR code and join us!

Barrel Proof Theology Podcast

Check out Barrel Proof Theology, a new podcast from our very own Director of Music Joe Mutone and parishioner Dan Piaskowski! It is a podcast about growing closer to God and reviewing different types of whiskey. The pilot is already out and Episode 1 was released on April 20th! You can find it wherever you listen to podcasts!
