NEEDED:

PRAYER WARRIORS TO REACH AFRICA!

This month (April), we leave for Africa. Why now? Mallory and I, traveling with our 10 year old Brian and our Team in Africa, have the incredible opportunity to teach the Bible to:

14,500 students
every week in May - July!

Many of these students can be sent to the rest of Africa with the gospel – an army of African missionaries! But we need your help to see it happen!

Will you accept the challenge? Would you commit to pray daily, 15 minutes a week for us as we spend the next 3 months bringing the good news of Christ and the scriptures to over 200,000 people (counting our teaching and a great evangelistic campaign in Kisumu) in Africa? This trip can help shake the continent for Christ... but we cannot do it without your fervent prayers and generous gifts.

Thousands came forward to receive Christ in our 2008 campaign – pray for 2009!

In order to sign up to be a Prayer Warrior for these next months, please do one of three things: 1) Send back the card in the enclosed envelope, 2) email us and let us know you'll be a Prayer Warrior for us, or 3) call us. This great campaign will cost approximately $165,000. We need your help in prayer and giving for this trip! Thank you for partnering with us!

Yours in Christ,

Bob
