

(Revelation 11:15 – 19)

The seventh angel blew his trumpet, and there were loud voices in heaven saying, "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ, and he will reign forever and ever." The twenty-four elders, who were seated before God on their thrones, fell facedown and worshiped God, saying, "We give you thanks, Lord God, the Almighty, who is and who was, because you have taken your great power and have begun to reign. The nations were angry, but your wrath has come. The time has come for the dead to be judged and to give the reward to your servants the prophets, to the saints, and to those who fear your name, both small and great, and the time has come to destroy those who destroy the earth." Then the temple of God in heaven was opened, and the ark of his covenant appeared in his temple. There were flashes of lightning, rumblings and peals of thunder, an earthquake, and severe hail.

1. Rulership over all creation has always belonged to God.
2. What Heaven rejoices over, those on earth will rant, rave, and rage against.
3. At the final trumpet, God will reveal Himself and His Son, Jesus, to all, leaving no doubt that He is real, He is here, and that Jesus is King!
