I'm gonna need you to set down that beer, take your last bite of the hot dog, and listen up...HAPPY 4th of JULY!

This year is the big two fifty so it's certainly a 'bonus level' Independence day if you ask me. We have another issue of Urban Rides ready to drop, but in honor of such a special landmark in our nations history we took a pause for patriotism.

Don't fret though, the new issue of URM is hot as a lit firework and bangin' like the finale. Some great article content to go along with the hottest bikes in the nation. Keep an eye our for that issue next week...

This pop-up edition happened since we've had many patriotic builds gracing our pages over the years (many of which made covers). So, we decided to throw a quick Special Edition with some of the most 'Merican bikes (and a truck) we've had in publication.

From all of us here at Robey's Publication - Urban Rides Magazine - Street Bagger Magazine, we wish you and your family a wonderful and safe 250th Independence Day celebration!

Lt. Dan

I want to take a moment and thank Chad Rigdon for inviting me to shoot his bike at the 180th Fighter Wing on the anniversary of 9/11. While Chad thanked me, it's him that deserves thanks. Not just for an invitation to the base on such a memorable day, but for what the man does for our country. This will be a photoshoot I won't soon forget. To Chad and all those that serve our great country, thank you for all you do. To those lives that were lost on such a tragic day 20 years ago, we will never forget. - Jason D. Silliman -

STORY OF THE BIKE/BUILD: Bought the bike a week before I deployed to Afghanistan. Got back in early January and started the build. Midway through body work, I decided it needed to be a military themed bike. Special thanks to Ron Hall for all the help during the build, Creative Powders for the powder and the bullets & grenade.
