From the Pastor's Desk

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK...

This weekend we celebrate Stewardship of Time and Talent Sunday at St. Andrew the Apostle Parish. People often speak of the “vibrancy” of our parish and how “dynamic” and “engaged” the parishioners are. Visitors are often amazed at the number of Ministries and programs our parish offers, particularly those focused on support for the poor and needy. I often hear parishioners express their gratitude for the golden opportunities they have to grow in their faith and/or spiritual lives. As the Pastor, I delight whenever people tell me they are visiting the parish and felt such a “welcoming” spirit when they came to worship at our parish.

I am confident that the parish is “vibrant” and “dynamic” because the parishioners are so engaged as missionary disciples. You might recall that when I first came to the parish (fifteen years ago) I asked every parishioner to make a commitment to the Lord in gratitude for blessings received. In this regard, I encouraged you to become a Christian Steward and to transform our parish into a “Total Stewardship Parish.” To live as a Christian Steward means making a planned commitment to give your time, talent, and treasure to the Lord.

To do this I asked everyone to commit to participating in at least one ministry or program for one year. If the ministry or program was not life-giving, I asked you to select a different ministry the following year. Every Parishioner is asked to participate in a ministry or offer their talent to serve the Lord and His church.

Last week our bulletin was designed as the 2025-2026 Parish Ministry Directory which identified the numerous ministries and programs available at St. Andrew's. You were asked to prayerfully review the Ministry Directory during the past week and to come to Mass prepared to commit to at least one Ministry or Program, and/or to offer your specific talent to support the Church. This weekend, I ask you to make your commitment and to bring it to the Lord's Altar.

Our Holy Father has called everyone in the church to live as “Missionary Disciples” To commit to living as a Christian Steward is a perfect way to respond to God's call to live as a Missionary Disciple. It is important to recognize that we do not do this because the Holy Father invited us to do so. More important, we do this as a response in gratitude to the gifts that God lavishly pours upon us.

If people are authentically committed to live a spiritual life let me remind you that there are two ways God wants you to use your Talents? First, God wants you to enjoy what He has given you. He did not gift us with talents just for our own benefit. He gave them to us with the expectation that we share them in justice and charity in the world around us.

So, let me ask you? What are you good at doing? Painting? Designing? Flower arranging? Computers? Serving? Baking? Cooking? Cleaning? Fixing things? Organizing events? Volunteering? Singing? Music? Reading? Proofreading? Gardening? Bookkeeping? Praying? Talking? Listening? Typing? Teaching? Cooking? Electrical Work? Carpentry? Cement work? Fixing Cars? Helping Others? Driving? Laundry? Ironing? Etc.

Whatever your talent or skill is, God wants you to use it for good. God wants you to steward those gifts for Him! If you really desire to please God—if you want to hear Him say, “Well done good and faithful servant” when you meet Him in heaven—then you must faithfully use your talents the way God wants you to. You can accomplish this best when you use your talents and skills for the benefit of others.

Here is something to think about. Perhaps you recently retired and have time to offer as a gift. Did you ever think about offering to drive an elderly parishioner to dialysis, a cancer patient for an infusion, or offering to help parishioners who have a lot on their plate, especially those known as the “sandwich generation,” (Those who have a responsibility to care for a young family and elderly parents). Such families are often pulling their hair out trying to figure out how to manage everyone's need. Perhaps you might offer to help unburden their load by volunteering to help such a family one day a week or month.

It is most important to remember this...Commitment to being a Christian Steward begins with prayer and discernment. Last week I asked you to reflect on my article, the ministries and programs in our Directory, and your specific skillset. This week I ask you to offer them to the Lord.

What ministry or program would you like to engage in this year? All I ask is that you participate in at least one ministry for at least one year. If you are struggling with using your gift or choosing a ministry that seems appropriate in your circumstances, please send an email or make an appointment (Zoom or otherwise) to see me, Fr. Infanti, Rebecca Poland (Monsignor's Administrative Assistant), Kathy Emrich (Pastoral Associate for Lifelong Faith Formation), Deacons Anthony or Aaron, or Bob Sperazza/Chris Parry (Pastoral Coordinators for Social Outreach).

We will help you to discern what is right in your circumstances before Almighty God. After all, no matter how small or insignificant your gift or talent might appear to be, it is always much in the Lord's hands.

This week, everyone is asked to complete their Stewardship of Time/Talent Commitment Card and bring it to the Lord's Altar as your way of giving back to the Lord for all the good He has done for you. Thank you brothers and sisters for making our parish so "vibrant" and "dynamic."

With a loving and grateful heart,
Msgr. Marucci, VF, Ph.D., D.Min.

To all Parishioners: An Important Update re: Immigration Laws Affecting Foreign Priests and Religious Workers

An increasing number of priests, religious sisters and brothers, and others serving the Church throughout the United States will be forced to abandon their ministries if policymakers do not act soon. Unfortunately, many parishes, schools, and other Catholic institutions have already had to part with men and women who served them for years because of challenges with the Religious Worker Visa Program.

Below is a link to the USCCB Voter Voice website. Please take a few moments to click on the link to electronically send letters to your US Senate & Congressional representatives in support of legislation to allow religious workers permission to remain in the USA while they wait for the processing of their Permanent Residence (Green Card) approval.

Currently, an international priest must return to his country for 18 months or longer, waiting for the completion of the Green Card process. FYI, when I started as Vicar for Clergy the entire Green Card process took a little over a year and the priest received approval while ministering in the USA. Now it takes 4 years. Note: this legislation would only assist religious workers in obtaining a Green Card. It will not affect the wait time for any other category. Please visit the link below and help us to voice our concern to Congress about this new immigration policy and how it is impacting our Church.

Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem

Congratulations to Dr's Rafael and Teresa Valencia (St. Andrew Parish, Gibbsboro) and Constance Chabok (St. Joseph, Sea Isle City), who were invested in the Equestrian Order of the Knights/Dames of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem by Cardinal Timothy Dolan at St. Patrick Cathedral, NYC, on Saturday, October 11, 2025.

Additionally, Sir Rogelio and Dame Josefina Tizon, and Dame Anne Marie Gavin, were promoted to the level of Knight/Dame Commander: Sir Robert Merkert was promoted to Knight Commander with Star; and Sir Michael Coccozza was promoted to Knight Grand Cross at the Investiture Vigil Service at the Church of St. Vincent Ferrer, in the Archdiocese of New York, on Friday, October 10th, in the presence of the Most Reverend Kevin Sweeney, Bishop of Patterson.

Msgr. Louis Marucci serves as the Camden Diocesan Coordinator for the Knights/Dames of the Holy Sepulchre. For additional information, please contact Msgr. Marucci at msgrmarucci@churchofstandrews.org.

Parish News

God be with me, every part, in my mind, my voice and heart. Please be with me everyday, in all I think, do and say; it matters not by night or day. If you are with me, I'll be alright. The world will be a better place if you are shining through my face!

Dear Seniors, a few weeks ago each of our teams were given 10 minutes to write a gratitude poem. The poem above is what one team came up with; so beautiful! It's a good view of how seniors love and trust in God!

Everyone knows that attendance at Churches all over the country has dwindled. Although we are starting to see increased numbers at Mass, this week on Tuesday, we will begin a review of the book "Return". This week we will look at the statistics on the many reasons why people no longer attend church services. Next month, we will pay attention to how experts say we can help people return; it may not be what you think!

Also, let's talk about some of the important events you remember from your lifetime, historical events you lived through, how you and your family coped with difficulties, and the most important events in your personal history. So... get ready to share something!

On Thursday, we will have our Tai Chi class, and the next episode of "The Chosen"! Don't forget to dig up some kind of Halloween costume for October 30! Also, it's time to get your items together for the Auction on November 11th.

If you are not on our list, please send me a note at themschoot@churchofstandrews.org, and I will send you a schedule. There is no commitment or cost to join, so what's stopping you?

Our Jubilee Year of Hope Parish Food Drive

We'll be collecting food for our Thanksgiving Food Drive and to restock our Christian Cupboard during the entire month of October. Please pick up a shopping bag in the church vestibule and return it with your food donation to the red shopping carts. Thank you as always for your extraordinary generosity!

National Vocation Awareness Week
November 2-8
Called By Name

This program offers an opportunity for us to pray for vocations and encourage young men to share their gifts in the priesthood.

The Diocese of Camden Vocations Office is launching Called by Name during Vocations Awareness Week: November 2-8, 2025. This program offers an opportunity for us to pray for vocations and encourage young men to share their gifts in the priesthood.

Perhaps you know a man (high school age or older) who, in your opinion, has the qualities to be a good priest. You may recommend this person by filling out the response card which will be made available on the weekends of November 1-2 and 8-9. Please, begin praying about who in your parish you could nominate.

Every young man nominated will receive a congratulatory letter from Bishop Williams and be invited to a special vocation event to be held at the end of November.
