FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK: Feast of the Baptism of the Lord Gospel: Matthew 3:13–17

This weekend we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, the final feast of the Christmas Season and the doorway into Ordinary Time. It is a moment in the liturgical year that often passes quietly, yet it carries profound meaning for our spiritual lives. Christmas has filled our hearts with the wonder of the Incarnation—God becoming one of us. Epiphany revealed Christ to the nations. And now, in the waters of the Jordan River, Jesus steps into public ministry, revealing not only who He is, but who we are called to be.

In today's Gospel from Matthew, Jesus approaches John the Baptist at the Jordan and asks to be baptized. John is understandably confused. "I need to be baptized by you," he says, "and yet you are coming to me?" But Jesus insists: "Allow it now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." And so, John consents. As Jesus rises from the water, the heavens open, the Spirit descends like a dove, and the Father's voice proclaims: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased."

This moment is not simply a historical event; it is a revelation. Jesus, who is without sin, does not enter the waters for His own sake. He enters them for ours. He steps into the muddy river to sanctify the waters of baptism for all generations. He identifies Himself with humanity so that humanity may be united with God. In this single moment, the Trinity is revealed, the mission of Christ is inaugurated, and the path of discipleship is illuminated.

The Baptism of the Lord also marks a shift in the rhythm of our liturgical life. With this feast, the Christmas Season officially concludes. The decorations come down, the nativity scenes are carefully packed away, and the familiar green of Ordinary Time returns to our sanctuaries. But "ordinary" in the Church never means "unimportant." Ordinary Time is the season in which we walk with Christ through His ministry—His teachings, His miracles, His encounters with the poor, the sick, the lost, and the searching. It is the season in which we learn what it means to follow Him day by day, step by step, in the ordinary moments of our lives.

This year, Ordinary Time will continue until Tuesday, February 17, the day before Ash Wednesday, when we will enter the penitential season of Lent. These weeks between Christmas and Lent are a gift—an opportunity to reflect on our own baptismal identity and to prepare our hearts for the journey toward Easter.

The Baptism of the Lord invites us to remember our own baptism—not as a distant event recorded in a family photo album, but as a living reality. At our baptism, the same words spoken over Jesus were spoken over us in a spiritual sense: "You are my beloved." We were claimed for Christ, sealed with the Holy Spirit, and welcomed into the family of God. Our baptism was not simply a ritual; it was a calling. It marked the beginning of our mission as disciples.

And so this feast challenges us to ask: How am I living my baptism today?

Do I remember that I am God's beloved? Do I allow the Holy Spirit to guide my decisions, my relationships, my priorities? Do I bring Christ into the ordinary moments of my life—my work, my family, my conversations, my choices?

Jesus' baptism also teaches us something essential about humility and obedience. He did not need baptism, yet He chose it. He aligned Himself with sinners, not because He shared their sin, but because He shared their humanity. He entered the waters to show us that God meets us where we are—not in perfection, but in our need. And He shows us that holiness begins with surrender: "Let it be so now." These are words we can carry into the new season ahead.

As we move into Ordinary Time, we are invited to embrace the quiet, steady work of discipleship. Christmas dazzles us with angels and shepherds, Epiphany shines with the brilliance of the star. But Ordinary Time teaches us how to live the Christian life in the everyday—how to pray when life is busy, how to love when it is difficult, how to forgive when it feels impossible, how to serve when no one is watching. It is in these ordinary moments that holiness takes root.

This weekend is also a wonderful time for families to talk about baptism. Parents can share the story of their children's baptism—who was there, what it meant, why it matters. Godparents can reach out to their godchildren with a note or a prayer. Adults can reflect on the promises made at their own baptism and renewed at every Easter Vigil: to reject sin, to believe in God, and to follow Christ. These simple acts help us reconnect with the grace that continues to shape our lives.

With a loving and grateful heart,
Msgr. Louis Marucci, VF., Ph.D., D.Min.

May these weeks before Lent be a time of quiet growth, steady faith, and renewed purpose. And may the words

Building Up the House of the Lord: Now Is the Moment to Respond

As we continue our Building Up the House of the Lord Capital Campaign, I want to express my heartfelt gratitude to the 75 parish families who have already stepped forward in faith. Their generosity has brought us to $375,650 in pledges—a remarkable testament to their commitment and love for our parish. This means we are now halfway to our Tier I goal of $750,000, the level that will enable us to begin the essential first phase of our project, namely, the expansion of the gathering space and the addition of a community center to the church.

But to move forward, we truly need every household to participate.

Two weeks ago, on the Fourth Sunday of Advent, I invited all parishioners to prayerfully consider their pledge and to return their commitment before Christmas and the New Year. Many have done so, but many pledge cards are still outstanding. If you have not yet responded, I kindly request that you take a moment this week to complete your pledge. Your response will make a real and measurable difference.

This campaign is not simply about buildings. It is about mission, hospitality, accessibility, and strengthening the spiritual home that forms us in Christ. When each of us offers a sacrificial gift, we join our efforts with those who built this parish before us and with those who will inherit it after us.

Now is the time for us to rise together. Now is the time to build. If parish families could repeat the pledge they made during the Catholic Strong Campaign a few years ago, that would be extraordinarily helpful. Please refer to the gift-giving grid on the brochure to determine the sacrificial gift that is right for your circumstances before God.

As always, thank you for all you do for our parish.

Gratefully, Msgr. Marucci

The Baptism of Our Lord Baptized Stewards

"John tried to prevent him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, yet you are coming to me?" MATTHEW 3:14

The Catholic Catechism states that "Jesus' immersion in the water is a sign for all human beings of the need to die to themselves to do God's will." In other words, as baptized Catholic Stewards there is only one gift that we need to give to Jesus – the gift of ourselves. Surrender yourself to God, place your trust in Him and allow the Holy Spirit to work through you for the greater glory of God.

MSGR. MARUCCI'S HUMOR BOX

Two little boys were sitting together in a church during a wedding ceremony.

As the couple said "I do", one of the little boys leaned over to the other and said, "I wonder, how many wives can a man have?"

The second little boy looked at his friend like he was an idiot and said, "He can have 16 wives."

"How do you know that?" The first little boy asked.

"Weren't you listening? The priest just said it. Four better, four worse, four richer, and four poorer."

Dear Seniors, get ready for a good workout to great music, with Cardio Drumming this Tuesday! After that we will reflect on the second half of the book "Return", by Brandon Voght. The book is about the best ways to help draw our families and others back to the church.

On Thursday, we will start the day with Tai chi! Luisa takes us slowly through the moves to help us develop balance and muscle tone. Then we will watch the next episode of "The Chosen", followed by discussion. We will do one episode each month until we finish the season.

Hope to see you this year, there is no membership, commitment, or cost to be part of the group. Just show up around 9:30 on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and enjoy some conversation, food and fun with your peers.

Just send me a note at themschoot@churchofstandrews.org, and I will send you a schedule. There is no commitment or cost to join, so what's stopping you?
