FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:
25th Sunday of OT- God's
Ways are Not Our Ways...
Thanks be to God!

A teacher read the story of the vineyard owner and hired laborers to her high school students, but did not tell them she was reading a parable from scripture. Afterward, she asked for their opinions. Invariably, the students labeled the vineyard owner's behavior as unfair. "He should pay each person what they earned!" they objected. Raised in a society that measures human worth by productivity and metes out rewards accordingly, the students were looking for justice; equal pay for equal work was what they expected. But the surprise of the parable (and it continues to be a surprise for adults as well) lies in the fact that the vineyard owner went beyond justice to extend his generosity to all his laborers, even those who had come only at the eleventh hour.

During our staff meeting a few years ago, we began by reading today's Gospel. When people were asked if anything struck them, the Parish Administrator's response was "I would hate to see how this Gospel would hold up in a labor dispute." This parable is perhaps one of the hardest for all to accept. Other parables may demand more of us, but this one strikes at our basic sense of fairness. We think of God as the most honest person in the world, and we expect that the one who will determine our eternal destiny ought to be able to negotiate a simple labor dispute with fairness.

That said, God's justice has been questioned since the beginning of his reign. Was all that misery necessary for eating an apple (or really the fruit from the tree of knowledge of good and evil)? Abraham argued with God over Sodom. Jonah fought with God over Nineveh and Job yelled at God over his private woes. The Jews weren't crazy about God saving gentiles. Jesus' disciples thought it quaint when he gave the kingdom to useless children; and the Pharisees fumed when he preferred prostitutes and tax collectors to their company. But when he paid those loafers the same as the laborers, everyone agreed: "Now THAT is just not fair!"

Whenever God's justice is called into question, a crisis of faith develops in that person. I certainly thought God could have used a new manager when I was diagnosed with MS six months after ordination, and then paralyzed eight months later. "Hey God....you need to pick on the people that are not working for you, not those that just dedicated their life to you." Thus, when religion is no longer working on a practical level, we cry "unfair" ... or is it?

As I see it, the problem lies in our own distorted sense of what is good, right, or just. When such things are not verified in reality, or do not go the way we want...we blame God. A number of years ago my father was working at Mobil Oil, when a water pipe burst, and knocked him off a platform, three feet to the ground. Unable to see the ground because of the spray of water, he ended up breaking both legs...and my...was he mad. I remember visiting him in the hospital and he said, "Now why would God allow this to happen." I said, "Pop, when you built our house, put on a new roof, painted Grandmom's house, and climbed numerous ladders throughout your life, the laws of gravity (nature) worked for you. How is it that the first time the laws of nature worked against you....you suddenly blame God? Dad's response...He turned to my mother and said...."It's tough having a priest for a son."

So, if you really feel unfairly treated, maybe you ought to look up to heaven and shout, "I'm mad as (you know what), and I'm not going to take it anymore." That certainly won't hurt God, and it may make you feel better. Better yet, if you say it loud enough, you may just hear how foolish it really sounds. Is it fairness that you really want from God...or is it mercy?

As a parable concerning the reign of God, Jesus' story makes two important points: (1) God's ways and thoughts (as represented by the vineyard owner) are far different from those of humankind; 2) participation in the reign of God is not determined by merit but only by grace. Salvation is not earned; it is a free and generous gift for all who turn to God, whether in the morning of their lives or in their twilight years, or anywhere in between. Salvation is the gift, and the good works that we do are a loving response to such a gift. The beauty of this parable is that we learn that God (represented as the vineyard owner) went beyond justice, and extended his generosity (mercy) to all. In the end, when we come face to face with God and have to make an accounting for our lives, won't we all want God to go beyond distributive justice...I know I am hoping, and praying, for mercy.

With a loving and grateful heart,

Msgr. Louis Marucci, VF, Ph.D., D.Min.
Pastor

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time: Stewardship Sharing

"Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last."

MATTHEW 20:16

You've heard the saying "it's not where you start, but how you finish." This certainly applies to this Bible passage. We have a responsibility not only for our own lives, but for the lives of others as well. We are called to generously share our gifts through stewardship, not hoard them for our own use. Our sincere gratitude and cheerful generosity will help us live "God-centered" lives and not "self-centered" lives.

Msgr. Marucci's Humor Box

Capital Campaign Update

Thanks to the generous support of our parishioners, our Building Up the House of the Lord Capital Campaign has reached $1,217,725 in pledges!

If you have not yet made a gift, we invite you to prayerfully consider supporting the campaign. Every pledge and donation helps minimize the amount we will need to mortgage for the project. Pledge cards are available in the Parish Office.

You can also support the campaign by requesting memorial donations to the St. Andrew's Building Fund in lieu of flowers when a loved one passes away.

A note from Sr. Helen Murage:

Dear Parishioners of St. Andrew the Apostle

On behalf of the Sisters of Mary Immaculate of Nyeri, I am deeply grateful for your warm welcome, prayers, and financial support, which you gave us the weekend of August 22nd and 23rd. Your generosity is a great witness to the good news. I assure you that your donation, so kindly given and warmly received, will help us meet the needs of the people we serve. It helps us make a difference in their lives and, in turn, witness the great love God has for them.

Please rest assured that we are praying for you, your family, and your friends.

Yours in the Mission of Christ,
Sr. Helen Murage, S.M.I

† CATECHIST FACT

Did you know? In 2021, Pope Francis formally instituted the Ministry of Catechist as a recognized lay ministry in the Catholic Church. This affirmed the important role catechists play in sharing the Gospel, teaching the faith, and helping others encounter Christ.

Catechists are more than teachers—they are ministers who help "echo" the faith and pass it on to the next generation.

Dear Seniors, What would you think of a place where you can socialize, laugh, drink coffee, eat together, and challenge your mind, all in one morning? We’re here! Two days a week, Tuesday and Thursday, in the Upper Room of the Parish Hall. Fall is a good time to join us because we have several fun events planned that will take us right up to the Christmas holidays. First is the Halloween Party! The theme this year is “Halloween Roundup”! It will be held on Thursday, October 29th. Western wear will fit the theme, but any costume is good, just be comfortable because there will be dancing! ALL SENIORS ARE INVITED! You don’t have to be a regular attendee.

Our annual auction will be held on November 10th! Start gathering your nice, slightly used items to donate. We don’t sell clothes, but last year we made a killing on purses! Bring your items to the center during our regular hours.

This week we will start off with Line Dancing! The dances are fun, with easy steps, taught by our instructor, Cecelia! After that Jim will present our wonderful “Growing in Faith” lesson; The Wedding Feast at Cana.

Thursday, we will begin with Tai Chi! This is a great practice for maintaining balance and focus. After that we will be playing a few more of the brain games that are designed to stimulate certain areas of the brain. Don’t worry, we play these games in teams...six heads are better than one!

Plan to arrive between 9:30 and 10:00 AM and stay until the end of lunch, about 1:00 PM We serve breakfast and a delicious lunch, and there is no cost or commitment. The group looks forward to meeting you!
