From the Pastor's Desk

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:
31st Sunday of Ordinary Time: Feast of All Saints and All Souls

For centuries, a bride has often covered her face with a veil until the moment her groom sees her at the wedding ceremony. The custom reaches back to the ancient world, when veils were associated with protection from evil and later came to symbolize modesty and purity. Whatever its original meaning, the lifting of the veil creates a beautiful image: two people who have waited in anticipation are finally able to see one another face-to-face.

I often think of this image when I read similar passages from the scripture. For example, the Psalmist frequently prayed, “Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.” Frequently, we offer prayers throughout the liturgy that beg our God not to hide His face from us….turn toward us…and we shall be saved." This image truly comes to mind as we begin the month of November with the Feasts of All Saints and All Souls. In the Feast of All Saints and All Souls, we celebrate all those who truly see the Face of God, and we look forward to the day when our own longing will be fulfilled.

Perhaps you might think about our life in Christ this way. It can be equated to a long period of engagement, betrothal, & mutual faithfulness. In our fidelity to God we live as a covenanted people, that belong to a Christian Community. By our Baptism, we are called to Holiness, in which we strive to live as best as we can in the circumstances in which we find ourselves.

I like people to understand that our journey through life, in harmony with Christ, is also our journey to strive toward sainthood. (Something that is possible, not impossible). I am fully aware that when most people think of the Saints…. they immediately think of extraordinary people who do extraordinary things. We tend to think that Saints are only those who have accomplished EXCEPTIONAL things, and because of their extraordinary lives, accomplished the status of Sainthood.

Here is a teachable moment! Did you know that the word Saint comes from the Latin word Sanctus, which means holy. Literally saint means “holy one.” Over time, the word was reserved for those who were martyred or lived lives of REMARKABLE holiness. At first, a person was declared a saint by popular acclaim, that is, Christians who witnessed the life of Christ through their death (or life). Around 1000 A.D., Pope John XV established the canonization process, which required a rigorous investigation of every aspect of the person’s life.

Today, the formal process to become a Saint in the Catholic Church is commonly described in three stages, following the opening of a cause, when the candidate is called a Servant of God. First, the local diocese carefully investigates the person’s life, virtues, reputation for holiness, and writings; the evidence is then reviewed in Rome by the Dicastery for the Causes of Saints, and, with the Pope’s approval, the person may be declared Venerable. Second, beatification gives the title Blessed, ordinarily after one miracle attributed to the person’s intercession has been thoroughly examined by medical experts and theologians and officially recognized; for a martyr, this first miracle is not required. Third, canonization declares the person a Saint for the universal Church and ordinarily requires a second verified miracle that occurred after beatification. In every case, the final judgment belongs to the Pope.

Today the Church recognizes thousands of men/women as Saints whose lives have mirrored the holiness of God. They were people like us, who did ordinary things in extraordinary ways. Personally, I believe they made that conscious choice to live each day of their lives as if they were face to face with God. In living life in this way, they took Jesus’ invitation to love and to serve with sincerity of heart. As we reflect on the beautiful feasts of All Saints and All Souls, we are reminded that the saints and the holy souls are those who simply lived their life in harmony with God and loved their neighbor as God commanded. As such, they now enjoy their eternal reward, where they gaze upon the face of God.

From the Pastor's Desk / Parish News

One of the best explanations I ever heard that described the Communion of Saints, and the Holy Souls, came from a five-year-old boy. He had been visiting his grandmother for a weekend, and she took him to Church for Mass on Sunday. He was quite the inquisitive child, and kept tugging on her dress, asking questions about the tabernacle, the Red Sanctuary Lamp, and finally he was mesmerized by the people (saints) depicted in the stained-glass windows surrounding the church. "Grandmom, who are those people, the little boy asked? She tried to explain that most of them were Saints, and a few were Holy People (Holy Souls). The boy's grandmother learned a great lesson that day when she heard her five-year-old Grandson say…"Oh….I get it….they are the ones who let the light shine through."

If people see Christ's light shine through you in your daily living….you are on the road to the Communion of Saints. As we continue to pray throughout the month of November, let us especially remember the parishioners who have returned to the Lord this past year. Let us remember in every liturgy, holy hour, or prayer service throughout the month of November all those names that have been placed upon the Altar this month. It is our prayer that God has turned His face toward them, and they have been saved by his merciful love.

With a loving and grateful heart,
Msgr. Louis Marucci, VF, Ph.D., D.Min.
Pastor

🇺🇸 DID YOU KNOW… HOLINESS HAS DEEP ROOTS IN AMERICA?

Our own country has been blessed with an inspiring family of saints! From St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, who helped shape Catholic education in America, to St. Katharine Drexel, who dedicated her life to serving others, these holy men and women show us that sainthood is possible in every time, place, and walk of life.

Among the saints connected to the United States are St. John Neumann, St. Kateri Tekakwitha, St. Marianne Cope, St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, and St. Damien of Molokai. Many others, including Blessed Stanley Rother, Blessed Solanus Casey, and Blessed Michael J. McGivney, inspire us through their faith, courage, and service.

Here's another fascinating fact: Several beatification and canonization ceremonies have taken place right here in the United States, including St. Junípero Serra's canonization in Washington, D.C., in 2015, Blessed Miriam Teresa Demjanovich was beatified in Newark in 2014; Blessed Stanley Rother in Oklahoma City in 2017; Blessed Solanus Casey in Detroit in 2017; Blessed Michael J. McGivney in Hartford in 2020; and Blessed Fulton J. Sheen in St. Louis in 2026.

These holy men and women remind us that we are all called to be saints! Their stories encourage us to live our faith boldly, serve our neighbors generously, and bring Christ's love into our homes and communities.

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time (All Saints): Stewardship Humility

"Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted." - MATTHEW 23:12

The world celebrates people in the spotlight and those who have the most of everything. We think celebrity, money and possessions are the key to happiness. Yet, our world is filled with more loneliness, anxiety, and depression than ever before. The stewardship lives of the saints show that the key to a happy life are relationships. Relationships with God and each other. Trust is the foundation of any good relationship and humility is the seed of trust.

GRANNY'S ATTIC is collecting donated items for their table at this year's Christmas Bazaar. This is a wonderful opportunity to donate items that you no longer use such as tabletop decor, glassware, holiday decorations, books, etc. Please drop off all items in the wishing well in the Church vestibule by November 15.
