FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:
32nd Sunday of Ordinary Time

I am sure you have heard the expression, “Never put off until tomorrow, what you can do today.” James Matthew Barrie, the author of “Peter Pan” once wrote that “the most dangerous day in a person’s life is the day he learns the word "tomorrow" for on that day, they learn how to procrastinate.” In a few weeks, it will soon be Advent, which seems almost incomprehensible.

Every year, during this season and other times throughout the year, we are given the challenge, “Be on guard, be Alert," for we never know the day, time, or hour that the Lord may come again or when our lives will be required of us. Therefore, the prudent disciple is the one who uses the time they have – this day, this hour, this moment to ready themselves accordingly. So, let me posit this question. If we hear this warning repeatedly, why do we continue to put things off? I know a gentleman who consistently changed the batteries in his smoke detectors on January 1st every year. He procrastinated one year and erroneously thought he would get to it next week. You can imagine how frustrated the man became when his house caught fire the following week. Thankfully, his family safely exited the home, but all of their belongings were destroyed. A very dear friend felt a lump in her breast but put off going to the doctor because her husband was already undergoing cancer treatment. She did not want her (adult) children to be very overwhelmed with both parents dealing with cancer, so she thought, “I’ll get my husband through his treatments and then deal with my own needs.” Unfortunately, by the time she started to deal with her condition, her cancer had metastasized so quickly, and she returned to the Lord within a year. So, once again, let me posit this question. If we hear these warnings repeatedly, why do we continue to put things off?

Perhaps you are familiar with today’s Gospel story because it is often read at vigil and funeral services. Our warning is to be prepared because we do not know the day or the hour. We should always be ready when Jesus comes. Getting ready is work, and work requires motivation. It is good to heed the old proverb, “Do not put off until tomorrow what you can do today.” But some folks say, “I do my work at the same time each day…The last minute!” And Mark Twain, speaking for all experienced procrastinators, took it one step further when he quipped, “Don’t put off until tomorrow what you can do the day after tomorrow.” Indeed, it is precisely this kind of foolishness that Jesus challenged his followers when he told the story of the wise and foolish virgins (bridesmaids).

In the ancient world, weddings were important occasions celebrated quite differently than we are accustomed to today. One significant difference was that weddings were often weeklong, festive celebrations. To add a bit of excitement to the celebration, the bridegroom often pulled a prank on the bridesmaids. He would delay his arrival to catch the bridesmaids off guard (unaware). Thus, they miss the festive celebration if they are caught “unaware” when the bridegroom arrives. The bridegroom in our parable must have been a man of unique character, for he came in the middle of the night, hoping to catch them unaware…and the lesson became crystal clear.

Jesus used this image of the ten bridesmaids to teach us what it means to make wise preparations for God’s reign (the ultimate banquet). The foolish bridesmaids with their burned-out lamps expected someone else to cover up for their carelessness. Wise people know that they need to be both faithful and flexible. They draw on experience. they know what it means to be committed to God’s call and make it a priority to live their lives accordingly.

From the Pastor's Desk

In today's Gospel, Jesus taught that the reign of God comes upon us without warning, without allowing us the luxury of making on-the-spot preparations. I often wondered why the wise bridesmaids did not lend some oil to the foolish ones. After all, sharing is a form of loving our neighbor. During my studies, I learned that in some Jewish writings of this period, "oil for the lamps" was a symbolic phrase for good works. Remember the passage, "Neither do men light a lamp and put it under the bushel; Rather, they place it on the stand; and it shines for all to see. Even so, let your light shine before men; that they may see your good works and glorify your Father who is in heaven." (MT. 5: 15-16) Thus, in this parable, the oil is not shared because the good work done by one person cannot substitute for the good work that another could do but fails to do.

If a person authentically claims to be a disciple of Jesus, they would always be ready for the Lord's coming (whenever and wherever) because they are busy with the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. The call to Christian Stewardship, sharing our time, talent, and treasure to build up the Kingdom of God, allows us always to be prepared. The wise disciples make it a life priority to do the Lord's work (by doing the corporal and spiritual works of mercy) and are prepared accordingly, for whenever He comes. If God came for you today, would you be busy with genuine good works, or would you be caught unaware? Remember the lesson of the parable: those caught "unaware" when the bridegroom arrived missed out on the festive celebration; the festive celebration that we prepare for today is the banquet of eternal life.

Are you readying yourself, or will you be caught"unaware?" So, let me posit a new question. What do you need to do today to be ready?

With a loving and grateful heart,

Msgr. Louis Marucci, VF, Ph.D., D.Min.
Pastor

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR OUR CHRISTMAS BAZAAR!

We are looking for volunteers to help make our Christmas Bazaar a success on Saturday, November 21, and Sunday, November 22!

Whether you can spare an hour or a few hours, your time and talents would be greatly appreciated.

What better way to kick off the holiday season than by giving back to our parish community and spreading a little Christmas cheer?

Thank you for helping us make this event a wonderful experience for all!

Men's Prayer Group

The next meeting of the Men's Prayer Group is scheduled for Saturday, November 21 at 8:30 AM (following 8 AM Mass). The group will read and discuss the Acts of the Apostles during this meeting.

Members of the prayer group will also participate in the following upcoming events:

1. ManUp South Jersey Men's Conference - Saturday, November 14 (see manupsouthjersey.com)

2. Malvern Epiphany Retreat - Friday, January 8 through Sunday, January 10, 2027 (see malvernretreat.com)

Contact Sam Parry via email at spcp1@comcast.net or text at 856-761-7999.

Compassionate Outreach

Pastoral Coordinators- Chris Parry and Lois Siebert. If you are faced with challenges or know someone who may be struggling, we're here to help. Call Chris or Lois at 856-784-3878 Ext 127.

Thanksgiving Food Baskets

St. Andrew's is preparing our annual Thanksgiving Food Baskets to help families in our community enjoy a warm holiday meal.

If you need food assistance or know someone who does, please contact Chris at 856-906-5127. We're happy to help. Basket distribution is scheduled for Friday, November 20, 2026, from 1:00 PM to 2:30 PM.

Have an extra turkey? Many local grocery stores offer promotions where shoppers can earn a free turkey. If you have earned one and won't be using it, please consider donating it to our Thanksgiving Food Basket Drive.

Please bring your frozen turkey to the Parish Office during their office hours of Monday–Friday, 8:30 AM–3 PM, before Wednesday, November 18, 2026. Your generosity will help a neighbor enjoy a special Thanksgiving dinner.

ShopRite gift card donations are also greatly appreciated. Last year, your generosity allowed us to provide every family receiving a Thanksgiving Food Basket with a $25 ShopRite gift card—and, in some cases, more to purchase additional trimmings for their holiday meal.

Gift cards may be placed in the collection basket at church or dropped off at the parish office. Please place them in an envelope labeled "Thanksgiving Food Baskets."

Thank you for your continued support and for sharing the blessings of Thanksgiving with our neighbors! Call or text Chris at 856-906-5127 with any questions.

Winter Coats

As the colder months approach, we are collecting winter coats in all sizes for adults and children. We welcome donations of new coats. Coats can be placed in the Compassionate Outreach cart at the church entrance.

Joseph's House Monthly Casserole Recipe

Last month, we collected 30 casseroles for Joseph's House! A heartfelt thank-you to our volunteers for your continued commitment to this ministry. In addition to casseroles, we will continue collecting individual snack bags for Joseph's House clients.

Our next curbside casserole drop-off will be Thursday, November 19, 2026 from 10 AM to 11 AM in front of the Parish Hall. We will deliver the donations to Joseph's House later that day. If this date or time does not work for you, other arrangements can be made. Please call or text Chris Parry at 856-906-5127 with questions or to confirm that you will prepare a casserole.

Prepare one or more casseroles—every donation is deeply appreciated! To obtain a copy of this month's recipe, please scan the code below.

If you would like to reserve a Memorial Tree, please complete this form and return it to the Parish Office with your payment of $100 by Friday, November 20.

You must provide your own lights and decorations for your tree(s).

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time : Stewards Alert

"Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." - Matthew 25:13

Many of us have put off doing something because we think we are too busy. We've all said, "I'll do it later when I have time." Unfortunately, too many of us apply this attitude to our Faith. Jesus' call to stewardship is urgent, in the here and now, in your current circumstances. How is God calling you to use your gifts today? Don't delay. None of us is guaranteed tomorrow.

Kathy Emrich — Employee of the Quarter

We are delighted to recognize Kathy Emrich as our Employee of the Quarter!

Kathy serves as our Pastoral Associate of Lifelong Faith Formation and Coordinator of Discipleship and Evangelization. In these roles, she oversees our Little Angels Academy preschool program and Religious Education program, plays an active role in our Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) program, and provides leadership and guidance to our Parish Council.

Kathy was also instrumental in the formation of two of our newest ministries: Grace in the Ordinary, a faith-based community for young mothers, and Grounded in Christ, a ministry dedicated to connecting and engaging young adults in parish life.

Through her dedication, leadership, and passion for faith formation, Kathy continues to create meaningful opportunities for parishioners of all ages to grow in faith, build connections, and become more engaged in our parish community.

Please join us in congratulating Kathy on this well-deserved recognition and thanking her for all she does for St. Andrew the Apostle Parish!

Keep Your Light Shining! Catholic Family Challenge

In this Sunday's Gospel (Matthew 25:1–13), Jesus tells the parable of the ten bridesmaids, reminding us to stay ready to welcome Him into our lives.

Your Family Challenge This Week:

Each evening, gather as a family and light a candle (or battery-operated candle). Take turns sharing one way you showed God's love that day and one way you can grow closer to Him tomorrow.

Close with a simple prayer:

Lord Jesus, help us keep the light of faith burning brightly in our hearts. Teach us to be ready to welcome You every day. Amen.

Remember: Being ready for Jesus isn't just about waiting. It's about living our faith through love, kindness, and prayer.

Cornerstone Retreat

Women of St. Andrew the Apostle experienced spiritual renewal and deepened friendships at our annual Cornerstone Retreat held at the Mother Mary Joseph Center in Cherry Hill.

Mark your calendar and save the date for next year's retreat scheduled for October 22 through October 24, 2027.
