Beloved in the Lord,

Happy Feast of the Baptism of the Lord and Merry Christmas still!

We are reminded this day that our own identity as Christians stems from this first of the Sacraments: Holy Baptism. Take a moment today to give thanks to God for the gift of Faith instilled in you on the day you were claimed for Christ.

The Way to Bethlehem

A Carol for Epiphanytide by Daniel Mitsui

What is the way to Bethlehem?

Go as the planet guides.

Whom shall we find thereat enshrined?

A king and a god besides.

If ye offer alms with no trumpet's blare,

Ye may come to the shed with whatever ye bear.

Ye may come to the shed,

to the House of Bread;

A baby governs there.

Where do the waters of Jordan flow!

Down to the Sea of Lot.

Can we be laved and can we be saved!

None lives who yet cannot.

If ye wish to be buried and born anew,

Ye may come to the flood and be baptized too.

Ye may come to the flood

where the fruit grows good:

The baptist waits for you.

Where is the wine for the wedding feast?

Drunk to the very lees.

Must we thirst? Have the wineskins burst?

Nay, there are more than these.

If ye do whatever the bridegroom says, Ye may drink from His jars to the end of days.

Ye may drink from His jars;

they are reservoirs

Of wine surpassing praise.
