

Beloved in the Lord, Ascended on High,

Thursday of this week is the Feast of Blessed Franz Jaggerstatter. A martyr of conscience, and driven by the truth of his Catholic Faith, Blessed Franz refused to take the oath to Hitler during the second world war and paid the ultimate price for it. I can recommend the artful film A Hidden Life which showcases this man's fortitude in the face of such evil and the opposition of those in his life who wanted him to "go along to get along." May we all have such fortitude in our culture to know the truth, believe in it, and stand up for it.

Confirmandi

Next weekend Bishop Rhoades will confirm young people from our parish and surrounding parishes at a Confirmation Mass in Huntington. Please pray for all these young Catholics who are in the final preparation to receive this great outpouring of the Holy Spirit!
