ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This guide is one in a series of four community resource guides produced by NEBHDCo for our tenants. The guides are organized by the four New York City Community Boards in which our portfolio properties are located (Brooklyn 3, 5, 8 and 16).

We would like to thank LISC Cashin Fellows Keren Abreu and Noelle Nelson and New York City College of Technology Interns Aude Britto and Moise LaFontant, for their diligent and detailed work in designing these guides and compiling the information by community board and zip code.

Welcome To NEBHDCo!

Brooklyn offers a wealth of resources and services to the community. This resource guide is a summary of what is available in your Community Board, and is provided as a service by NEBHDCo to our tenants and community members.

Background

Northeast Brooklyn Housing Development Corporation (NEBHDCo) was incorporated in January 1985 as a 501c3 not-for-profit organization. NEBHDCo's mission is the preservation, development and management of affordable housing and homeownership opportunities; community and economic development initiatives and human services that effect social change in central Brooklyn.

NEBHDCo provides services in four program areas: Affordable Housing, Property Management, Asset Management and Community Programs. Our mission is supported by the vision to rebuild sustainable communities through long-term community based assets. Brooklyn neighborhoods served include: Bedford-Stuyvesant (Community Board 3), Crown Heights (Community Board 8), East New York (Community Board 5), and Ocean Hill-Brownsville (Community Board 16).

To date NEBHDCo has planned, joint-ventured, and developed 2093 housing units of which 1082 are owned by the organization, with nearly 17,000 square feet of commercial space throughout the central Brooklyn neighborhood.

Our Community Programs Department works across four areas: Tenant Supports, Healthy Food and Living, Youth Supports and Social Activities. Programming includes:

- Tenant Supports: Employment and other referral resources; public benefits supports; tenant meetings; winter coat drive; FTAP (Formal Trespass Affidavit Program)
- Healthy Food and Living: Golden Harvest food pantry; cooking and nutrition workshops; community gardens and workshops; support for local healthy food businesses
- Youth Supports: Youth aged out of foster care housing and supports; Finding Your Future educational scholarship; Hobby Quest crafts events; Back to School events; holiday toy drive
- Social Activities: Family and senior trips; Thanksgiving community meal; volunteer appreciation events

General Information

For more information on CB5, email bklcb5@verizon.net, call 718-498-5711, or contact the CB5 main office at 127 Pennsylvania Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11207

Development in the area that is now commonly called East New York began in Dutch colonial times with the establishment of the community of New Lots – to distinguish the area from the “old lots” of Flatbush. The Town of New Lots was later designated the 26th Ward of Brooklyn and subsequently became Brooklyn Community District #5. In the 1830s a wealthy Connecticut merchant, John R. Pitkin, bought farm land in New Lots, Bushwick and Brownsville and named the proposed development East New York. However, the venture failed and he sold most of the land back to the local farmers. Over time, several sub-communities were delineated within New Lots, including East New York, the Old Mill, Cypress Hills and City Line, and in recent history, Spring Creek and Starrett City. Today the U.S. Postal Service recognizes zip codes 11207 as East New York, 11208 as New Lots and 11239 as Starrett City.

The population of Cypress Hills north of Atlantic Avenue today includes Hispanic-Americans, South Asian-Americans, Caribbean-Americans and African-Americans. The southern part is composed of African-Americans and Hispanic-Americans, and a scattered presence of South Asian-Americans. City Line is named for its location in the former City of Brooklyn near the border with Queens County before Brooklyn and parts of Queens County were consolidated into New York City in 1898. City Line is one of the most ethnically diverse neighborhoods in Brooklyn. Many Italians, Germans and Irish originally lived in the area, which today is home to immigrants from Bangladesh, the Dominican Republic, Guyana, and Puerto Rico. New Lots seceded from the Town of Flatbush in 1852 and was annexed into Brooklyn in 1886. The population is largely African-American and Hispanic-American. Spring Creek, the southeastern part of the former Town of New Lots, includes the large Starrett City apartment complex. Starrett City opened in 1974 under the middle-income Mitchell-Lama Housing Program. In 2002, it changed its name to Spring Creek Towers.

East New York has seen significant commercial and industrial development and job growth over the last 35 years. During the 1960s and 1970s, the community experienced rapid and severe deterioration resulting from housing abandonment, business closings, and the flight of the area’s middle class to the suburbs. In the late 1970s, owners of local businesses came together to create a base of business supports to address the community’s increasingly difficult business climate. Out of these efforts the East Brooklyn Business Improvement District (BID) was founded in the early 1980s to create and expand industrial development. The Local Development Corporation of East New York was established to focus on various aspects of this development, working with city, state and federal programs. Through this work, East New York was the site of the first designated zone in the NYS Empire Zone Program, and the first in-place industrial park (“IPIP”) in New York City. Today, the forty-block East Brooklyn Industrial Park includes 125 companies. Businesses include manufacturing food product services; commercial/industrial; plumbing & supplies; retail & apparel distribution; auto parts/service; and transportation. The five core areas are steel fabrication, transportation, building trades, light industrial manufacturing and distribution. Shopping areas include Liberty Avenue and Pennsylvania Avenue. Gateway Center, accessible off the Belt Parkway, is a large suburban-style shopping mall. Retailers include Bed Bath & Beyond, Staples, Marshalls, Olive Garden, Red Lobster, Target, The Home Depot, and BJ’s Wholesale Club. Expansion plans are underway, and include a new ShopRite grocery store. Pitkin Avenue, a premiere shopping destination in years past, is also slated for commercial revitalization through the LDC of ENY’s new “Avenue NYC” initiative.

Notable residents from East New York include: Lil Mama, Maxwell, Uncle Murda, Fat Boys, Bruce Wayne, Masta Killa, Nicole Willis, George and Ira Gershwin, Jimmy Smits, Steve Buscemi, Tony Danza, and Goldman Sachs CEO Lloyd Blankfein. Hezekiah Walker, Grammy Award-winning gospel music artist, founder and leader of the Love Fellowship Choir (LFC), is Pastor and Bishop of the famed Love Fellowship Tabernacle on Liberty Avenue.

We hope that this guide will serve as a useful way for residents to find resources within their community - to fully access these opportunities, to know who to contact, and where to find more information.

SINGLE STOP – What They Provide

Single Stop is a benefits coordination agency with offices around the country, including NYC. All sites provide family support services, tax assistance and benefits counseling. On-site legal and financial counseling services are available at specific sites.

For more information see www.singlestopusa.org.

Benefits

Benefits counseling is provided by a site coordinator at each Single Stop site. Many sites also have site administrators. These counselors, one of which typically has a Masters in Social Work, conduct outreach, intake, screening, application assistance and extensive follow-up with clients to ensure that they actually apply for and receive benefits. Using BEN, they screen students and families for a wide range of benefits (including food stamps/SNAP, Medicaid, Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP), Women, Infants, and Children (WIC), housing assistance and child care) and help them apply to the ones they are eligible for. In addition, they provide one-on-one counseling and at community college sites, help students access other available programs on campus. When appropriate, they refer students and families to the other Single Stop services' legal counseling, free tax preparation, and financial counseling.

Legal Assistance

Nationally, about 80 percent of low-income Americans who need legal help in civil cases don't receive any. The number of people who qualified for assistance jumped by about 11 million since 2007, due in part to the economic recession. This has left millions of people eligible for assistance - individuals and families who earn less than 125 percent of the federal poverty level, now set at $27,564 a year for a family of four.

As a crucial component of the Single Stop model, Single Stop USA partners with legal services providers to provide free legal counseling to people in need at Single Stop sites. These legal partners provide critically needed legal assistance to prevent evictions, provide access to public benefits, assist in cases of domestic violence, and advocate on behalf of clients in a variety of legal areas.

Financial Counseling

By helping families access work supports and benefits, and providing counseling and education to help them stabilize their economic situations and build toward the future, Single Stop improves their chances of achieving economic stability and mobility. Individuals and families receive crucial financial education and individualized support to help them manage their unique economic situations. This includes assistance repairing credit and improving credit scores, developing a budget, opening bank accounts, managing debt, learning about bankruptcy, and improving their savings patterns.

Budget

Single Stop counselors walk clients through a budget template, assessing their assets and liabilities to determine their personal income statement, cash flow, and balance sheet. Single Stop USA has seen that that the low-income clients can increase their purchasing power by following a budget. Budgeting becomes all the more important in the aftermath of a sudden change in circumstances - such as collection of a tax refund. As another example, food stamps typically increase the annual purchasing power of a family by 40 percent. This makes the receipt of new benefits the perfect time for families to sit down with a financial counselor and plot out a brighter future.

Asset Building

Finally, Single Stop aims to help individuals build wealth. Recent research shows that as parents accumulate even modest reserves, their children develop better cognitive skills early on, stay in school longer and, ultimately earn higher incomes. Local service providers at some Single Stop locations include Credit Where Credit Is Due and The Financial Clinic.

Free Tax Preparation

Single Stop can help by providing families with trusted free and low cost tax preparation services that allow them to access the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) and other tax credits, which enable them to make ends meet. Simultaneously, Single Stop works with taxpayers to determine whether or not they are eligible for much-needed resources such as Food Stamps, health care, child care and other important services like legal counseling and financial coaching. By taking advantage of the tax preparation moment, Single Stop provides these services in an integrated way. Every year tax credits provide tens of billions of dollars to low and moderate income families across the nation. Indeed, the Earned Income Tax Credit is one of the largest single benefit programs that exist for working families in the US.

What is the Earned Income Tax Credit?

The Earned Income Tax Credit, or EITC, is a fully refundable federal tax credit for low to moderate income individuals and families. It is one of the largest benefit programs for working families that exists. Every year families that meet eligibility requirements can receive thousands of dollars through the EITC by filing their taxes. Many states also offer their own version of the EITC in addition to the federal tax credit. This increased income not only helps avert economic crisis in the short term, but also puts parents and children on the path to a better future

Child Care Resource and Referral Agencies

Child Care Resource and Referral Agencies (CCRRs) provide services to parents and day care providers in every county of New York State.

If you are looking for child care, the CCRR in your area is a great place to start. They will ask you about the kind of care you are looking for, the ages of your children, the hours of care you need and other specifics such as any special needs your child might have. Based on that information, they will be able to give you a list of providers that most closely meet your needs. Remember, though, this list is just a starting point - you will need to contact the provider to see if they have space for your child and you will want to visit the child care provider you select to make sure for yourself that this is the right match for you. The Office of Children and Family Services has a helpful brochure available on their website <http://www.ocfs.state.ny.us/main/childcare/referralagencys.asp>.

Homebase

NYC Department of Homeless Services Eviction Prevention Program

Homebase is a city-wide program designed to help families and individuals overcome immediate housing problems that could result in becoming homeless, and to develop a plan for long-term housing stability. Program services are crafted to meet the unique needs of each individual or family and to help meet the demands of maintaining a household. Homebase clients are assigned a case manager who will coordinate all their services. Some of these services will be provided directly through Homebase, and others will be provided by community partners. Some of the services that are available to qualified households include: Family or tenant/landlord mediation, household budgeting, emergency rental assistance, job training and placement, and benefits advocacy (child care, food stamps, tax credits, public health insurance).

If you or someone you know is experiencing a housing crisis, see the Homebase list below to find the Homebase office that serves your community

If you are behind on rent or facing eviction:

In addition to Homebase, a variety of local government agencies and non-profit organizations provide support to those who have fallen behind on rent or at risk of homelessness. The information below is from the New York City Department of Homeless Services website

<http://www.nyc.gov/html/dhs/html/atrisk/behindorEviction.shtml>

RENTAL ARREARS GRANTS FOR SINGLE ADULTS AND FAMILIES

The New York City Human Resources Administration (HRA) can assist tenants who have legal possession of an apartment, or applicants who have been evicted but whose landlords are willing to continue renting the apartment, by paying their arrears through a rental arrears grant. Grants are available for Public Assistance recipients and for those people ineligible for Public Assistance. Families and single adults are eligible.

Go to 311 Online (<http://www.nyc.gov/apps/311/>) to contact the HRA Job Center in your area and apply for a rental arrears grant.

FAMILY EVICTION PREVENTION SERVICES (FEPS)

If you are on Public Assistance, you may be eligible to receive a monthly rental supplement (in addition to your shelter allowance) and have some, or all, of your rental arrears paid. In order to be eligible for this supplement, you must:

- be a recipient of family assistance; and
- have a child younger than 18 at home, OR younger than 19, in high school, and at home; and
- be in court because you are being sued for back rent.
- To learn more, go to 311 Online (<http://www.nyc.gov/apps/311/>) for a list of these legal services or community-based organizations approved by the State of New York to handle FEPS applications.

HOMELESS PREVENTION FUND

The Homeless Prevention Fund provides emergency financial assistance to households citywide, who are unable to secure sufficient assistance through available programs and are at imminent risk of homelessness due to rent arrears. The Fund offers emergency financial assistance to low-income households who meet the following criteria:

- Household income range between $15,000 and $30,000 annually; and
- An eviction petition has been filed; and
- The household has the ability to pay rent in the future.

FREE LEGAL REPRESENTATION TO PREVENT EVICTION

The DHS Anti-Eviction Legal Services offices, with locations across the city, provide comprehensive, flexible and individualized legal and related services to help ensure that families with children avoid becoming homeless. Services may include:

- Preparation and filing of required agency and court papers
- Negotiations with landlords and/or other advocacy assistance
- Court appearances
- Inquiries into whether a tenant's rent level is correct, whether there are conditions which require repair and whether these constitute defenses to a proceeding

In addition to our community-based offices, residents in zip codes 10456, 11207 and 11691 who are facing eviction may be eligible for comprehensive anti-eviction legal services offered at housing court. The Housing Help Program provides full social services, legal intake and assessment and case management in the Bronx, Brooklyn and Queens.

FORECLOSURE PREVENTION

The Center for New York City Neighborhoods is a not-for-profit entity founded by the City of New York, the New York City Council and non-profit partners to expand and coordinate services to homeowners and tenants facing foreclosure actions. Services include counseling, legal assistance, loan remediation and preventive outreach, as well as education, research and advocacy. Go to 311 Online (<http://www.nyc.gov/apps/311/>) for assistance.

Local Development Corporation of East New York (LDC of ENY)

The focus of the LDC of ENY is growing business, changing lives, and strengthening communities. They:

- Retain, develop and expand East Brooklyn’s industrial and commercial base
- Attract new businesses and jobs to the community
- Stimulate the development of local job and business opportunities
- Train entrepreneurs to start and manage their own businesses
- Assist business owners in identifying and obtaining financing
- Sponsor and support programs that promote the health of residents and their quality of life
- Promote local housing development

Programs:

Brooklyn Enterprise Center (BEC)

In 1989, the LDC initiated one of the first entrepreneurial training programs in the City. The Brooklyn Enterprise Center (BEC) currently offers a number of programs to assist low-income individuals and micro-entrepreneurs with training, counseling and technical assistance.

Women’s Brooklyn Enterprise Center (WBEC)

WBC programs assist women and minorities to start and grow their businesses, and to better manage their money.

East New York Business Improvement District (ENY BID)

The East Brooklyn Business Improvement District (EBBID) is a 40-block area in East New York, Brooklyn that is bordered by Powell Street to the West, Atlantic Avenue to the North, Pennsylvania Avenue to the East, and Sutter Avenue to the South. The EBBID is also one of East New York’s oldest industrial parks. The district includes 125 companies, which are categorized as follows: 35 percent manufacturing; 7 percent food product services; 7 percent commercial/industrial; 6 percent plumbing & supplies; 23 percent retail & apparel distribution; 16 percent auto parts/service; and 4 percent transportation.

The mission of the East Brooklyn Business Improvement District is to supplement the on-site management, security, structural improvement and general business services offered by the City of New York under the Industrial Business Zone program, or IBZ. The IBZ provides new business attraction and retention incentives for companies choosing to locate in East New York. In addition, the objectives of the EBBID are to enhance the business environment of the 40 block area and bolster local economic activity.

For more information on any of these programs for either businesses or individuals, see the listed websites or call the number above

Parodneck Foundation For Self Help Housing & Community Development, Inc.

121 Sixth Avenue, Suite 501
New York, NY 10013
212-431-7900

www.parodneckfoundation.org
info@parodneckfoundation.org

The Parodneck Foundation for Self-Help Housing and Community Development, Inc. has played a leading role in providing financial, technical and organizing assistance to New York City's self-help housing and community development efforts. The mission of the Foundation, a city-wide, tax- exempt, not-for-profit agency, is to provide low and moderate-income residents with resources and capabilities that will enable them to create, own, and/or manage their own housing and improve their neighborhoods.

Programs:

HDFC Support Program

Through the HDFC Support Program the Parodneck Foundation continues its original mission to help develop and preserve low-income, resident-controlled co-operative buildings. The Foundation maintains a fund that it draws on to provide low-interest loans to HDFCs. It also provides extensive technical assistance to HDFCs that are facing financial, management, or other difficulties. Since its inception in 1970, this program has assisted over 6,000 units of low income housing.

New York Remediation Project

New York Remediation Project now arranges to have the debts of individuals who have been victims of predatory lending practices written down (when possible) and restructured into a new, affordable loan, so the danger of default and foreclosure is averted.

Senior Citizen Homeowner Assistance Program (SCHAP)

The Parodneck Foundation's Senior Citizen Homeowner Assistance Program (SCHAP) provides financial assistance to senior citizen homeowners who are living in physically deteriorated housing or who are in danger of losing their homes to foreclosure. The program, which has been in operation since 1986, provides no- and low-interest loans and extensive technical assistance to qualified seniors. This support enables seniors to retain their homes and improve their living conditions, thereby helping them avoid financial insolvency, displacement, and/or loss of independence. To date, the SCHAP program is the only affordable financial and home improvement program in New York City targeted exclusively to low income senior homeowners.

East New York Restoration LDC

1159 Elton Street
Brooklyn, NY 11239
718-676-5920

www.enyrestoration.org

info@enyrestoration.org

East New York Restoration LDC is a registered 501(c)3 organization created as a direct result of the historic Community Benefits Agreement (CBA) generated from the Gateway Phase II Retail expansion in East New York. The Gateway Phase II expansion completes one of the largest retail expansions in NYC and the CBA generated from it, is the first of its kind in the East Brooklyn region. The CBA was negotiated with the Related Companies and a coalition of community based organizations and business owners who formed East New York Restoration LDC.

The mission of East New York Restoration LDC (ENYRLDC) is to oversee the implementation of the CBA via three major components – Job Development Center, Small Business Development Center, and the Community Relations Office. Through these efforts, ENYRLDC will work to increase career and business opportunities, build a sound economic base, and expand arts, culture and athletic programming throughout the East New York community.

The North Brooklyn YMCA

570 Jamaica Avenue
Brooklyn, NY 11208
718-277-1600

www.ymcanyc.org/northbrooklyn

The North Brooklyn YMCA is a powerful association of men, women and children joined together by a shared commitment to nurturing the potential of kids, promoting healthy living and fostering a sense of social responsibility. The YMCA believes that lasting personal and social change can only come about when we all work together to invest in our kids, our health and our neighbors. That's why, at the Y, strengthening community is our cause. Every day, we work side-by-side with our neighbors throughout the five boroughs to make sure that everyone, regardless of age, income or background, has the opportunity to learn, grow and thrive.

Our Areas of Focus:

YOUTH DEVELOPMENT

All kids deserve the opportunity to discover who they are and what they can achieve, therefore, we focus our program delivery to NYC children and teens so they cultivate the values, skills and relationships that lead to positive behaviors, better health and enhanced educational achievement.

FOR HEALTHY LIVING

The Y enjoys the capacity and the scale to make a positive and measureable impact upon New York City's health and well-being. We recognize our unique responsibility by offering programs that encourage healthy lifestyles, bond families closer together, and strengthen connection with others.

FOR SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

As we have for more than 160 years, we continue to listen and respond to our communities' most critical social needs, with a focus on New York City's most vulnerable citizens and underserved populations.

Activist residents and merchants formed Cypress Hills Local Development Corporation (CHLDC) in May 1983 to revitalize their community. CHLDC is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit community-based organization, serving more than 8,000 residents each year through a continuum of services and neighborhood development projects. With community residents leading the way, the mission of CHLDC is to build a strong, sustainable Cypress Hills/East New York, where youth and adults achieve educational and economic success, secure affordable housing, and develop leadership skills to transform their lives and community.

Career and Education Programs

CHLDC helps residents earn their GEDs, learn English, develop job and career skills, and find employment through a wide suite of programs.

Community Development

Our Community Development division develops and maintains affordable housing and community facilities and also works on making Cypress Hills a greener, more affordable neighborhood.

Community Organizing

The CHLDC community organizing division promotes educational justice, neighborhood safety, and affordable housing in Cypress Hills and East New York. Through the work of tenant associations and the Home Owners' Action Group, Cypress Hills Advocates for Education (CHAFE), Future of Tomorrow (F.O.T.), and Weed and Seed, community leaders engage residents in grassroots campaigns to strengthen and improve our neighborhood.

Housing Counseling

The Housing Counseling program assists participants with different issues such as:
Foreclosure Prevention Counseling; Homeownership Counseling; First Time Homebuyers Workshops; Home Repair Loans; Homelessness and Tenant Advocacy
