

Who	Activity	$25	$50	$125	$250	$500	$1,000
Instructor	Teach a first-time individual on a Hackney riding or driving (individual instructors to earn a maximum of $1,000 for the barn annually). Immediate family members are excluded.	✓
Anyone	Donate a safe and broke Hackney horse or pony to an interested lesson program.				✓
Anyone	Exhibit a Hackney in an open competition at an all-breed show that does not offer Hackney classes (paid per show, not per class). Maximum earning of $250 annually — Barn/fun shows and Academy excluded.		✓
Anyone	Exhibit your Hackney in an event outside of a Hackney show ring experience (Ex: barrels, dressage, parade, carriage, etc.). Maximum earning of $500 annually.		✓
Anyone	Buy a Hackney for the first time and register it with the American Hackney Horse Society (AHHS).			✓
Anyone	Show a Hackney for the first time in a Hackney class (Academy classes are excluded). Hackney need not be owned by exhibitor — the exhibitor is the party eligible to earn Hackney Bucks.			✓
Anyone	Host a clinic or exhibition designed to promote the Hackney and educate the public with at least 20 people in attendance. Refer to outline for specific requirements. Maximum earning of $250 annually.				✓
Regional Association	Regional association to create a new program or event designed to promote the Hackney that has not been done in the past two years. Maximum earning of $250 annually.				✓
Anyone	First-time Hackney breeder or breeder who has not registered a foal in the past 5 years (payment occurs when foal is registered).					✓
Anyone	First-time Hackney breeder or breeder who has not registered a foal in the past 5 years that registers 3 or more foals in one year (payment occurs when foal is registered).						✓
Anyone	Hackney Stallion owner to donate a Hackney stallion service to an organization that is being used as a fundraiser for said organization.			✓			