Gateway to the Upper Middle Rhine Valley, a UNESCO World Heritage site, Rudesheim is also renowned for lush, terraced vineyards which produce excellent wines.

In the heart of its old town is the Drosselgasse, the famous medieval lane lined with traditional taverns, colorful shops and Rudesheimer Schloss – a cozy wine restaurant where your private Ensemble Experience will treat you to an authentic taste of German Rhine culture.

A perfect ending to a day of sightseeing, this almost 300-year-old setting provides one of the best dining experiences in Rudesheim. Its historic charm as well as its timeless culinary traditions have made it a long-time favorite.

Here, delicious regional specialties are accompanied by local wines such as Riesling and Pinot Noir wines from the family Breuer vineyard and other local Rheingau winegrowers.

Everything about this inviting locale exudes warmth, from its amber lighting and colorful stained glass to its flavorful wines and heartwarming menu.

For dinner, savor local German flavors with traditional favorites which may include homemade potato soup, followed by a typical Rheingau dish, such as trout cooked in melted butter and almonds with potatoes, or wild boar goulash with spaetzle; ending with dessert such as apple strudel with ice cream.

Of course the evening will be capped off with famous Rudesheimer Kaffee, the specialty coffee which has become one of Rudesheim's historical delights.
