22nd Sunday Ordinary Time Aug. 31, 2025

... when you hold a banquet,
invite the poor, the crippled,
the lame, the blind;
blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.

PASTOR'S LETTER

Dear Parishioners of Pope Saint John XXIII Parish Faith Community,

We enter into the 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time. We reflect on the cardinal virtues of humility and charity in the liturgy of the Word today. The first reading from the book of Sirac invites us to conduct our affairs with humility so that we will be loved more than a giver of gifts. In the Gospel, Jesus insists on humility while witnessing the guests trying to seat themselves in the place of honor at the table. He also goes on teaching them on the importance of giving to people without expecting in return, so that we will receive our recompense in the life to come.

Last week, our Vietnamese Choir held a joyful picnic, strengthening their fellowship in the Lord. We give thanks for their friendship, their service, and their dedication to the parish. We also congratulate and thank them for their faithful commitment—from daily Mass to the great Feast Days of the Church. May God bless them with continued health and steadfast devotion.

Welcome you all back after the blessed summer break. We began the school last Wednesday. I sincerely thank all the parents who have decided to provide their kids with catholic education. They also make a lot of sacrifices in trying to give their kids the best they deserve. We also start the pre-school at the main campus. Thanks to Sr. Trinh and everyone working with her in this endeavor.

To all parents, especially those new to our parish school, I offer a warm welcome to the Pope St. John XXIII Parish Family. As members of our STEM Academy, you are vital partners in our mission. Our school is one of the greatest ministries of our parish, preparing the next generation to live with faith, knowledge, and service. For over one hundred years, our parish has been committed to providing a Catholic education to all who desire it, and we remain dedicated to carrying this tradition forward. Our prayer is that each student will grow closer to Christ, guided by the truths of our Catholic faith.

Thanks to our principal Mr. Marc Nuno, who commits tirelessly to provide the best environment in the PSJXXIII STEM Academy by upgrading the facilities and the curriculum to ensure that the kids learn what is most important for their lives. Let's continue to pray for all the staff and students of our schools, that this academic year they have begun become more fruitful.

Thanks to all for bring the elderly and the homebound to receive the sacrament of healing during this weekend's liturgy. While it helps everyone in need of this sacrament to receive it, it also assists us in avoiding last minute calls to anoint, which sometimes becomes hard, if the priests are having busy commitments as we are a large parish community. Still if someone has an emergency, please do not hesitate to call us, or Sr. Anna who is the coordinator of our parish's out-reach ministry.

We also begin our Faith Formation program for the children and OCIA for the adults in the following week, so please register online, or at the office without delay. It is important that they do not miss out on the classes from the beginning on September 5. I also thank Mr. Monty for taking time to train the adults in catechism, so that they could also join the program in the parish to assist us or to refresh their own knowledge of our faith and teach their kids as well.

Thank you all for being part of this faith community. Your witnessing life and generosity is the source of this parish's life. Praying for each one of you, wish you all a blessed weekend.

Sincerely, Yours in Christ,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Tuan Nguyen', with a stylized flourish at the end.

Fr. Tuan Nguyen, D. Min
Pastor
