

Supporting the Dying: Jewish Values, Rites, Readings & Rituals

How do we connect with, comfort, and care for our loved ones as they are dying? What are traditional Jewish rituals or spiritual readings for this part of the life cycle? How can we support friends and family who are caregivers?

We hope you will find some helpful ideas or thought-provoking options in our most recent blog post.

Healing Conversations: A Group for Suicide Loss Survivors

Thursday, June 9th
7:00pm - 8:30pm

If you have experienced the death of a loved one by suicide, this online zoom group offers a space to share and process your grief with others who have had a similar loss, get guidance and support from a grief specialist, and learn coping strategies.

Facilitated by Jewish Community Services Grief Clinician, Donna Kane, MA, CT. Free and open to the public.

For more information, contact Donna Kane, MA, CT at dkane@jcsbaltimore.org or 410-843-7394. Or submit an online request for information at: <https://jcsbalt.org/suicide-loss/>

For information on upcoming programs and support groups, please see Levinson's online calendar.

Military Honor Guard Ceremonies

An honor guard ceremony is a brief but moving part of a service, which pays tribute to a veteran's contributions to our country's safety.

Levinson's funeral directors regularly engage military honor guards to be present either at the funeral home or the cemetery. All we need is the proper documentation of someone's honorable discharge.

MyJewishLearning.com has an Ask the Expert article addressing some of the questions that arise.
