THE ROUTES

Metric Century (65 miles, 1,400 feet of climbing):

The route leaves Linden and traverses the quiet back roads of San Joaquin, Stanislaus and Calaveras counties, including a portion of Stage Three of the 2011 Tour of California. The towns of Linden, Peters, Farmington, Eugene, Milton, Jenny Lind and Bellota await you; almond, apple, cherry, peach, pear, plum and walnut orchards, and vineyards abound. Two rest stops and a lunch stop provide fuel and hydration along the way.

Quarter Century (25 miles, 300 feet of climbing):

The route leaves Linden, then passes through the towns of Farmington and Peters in San Joaquin County. Apple, cherry, peach, pear, plum and walnut orchards, and vineyards abound. A fully stocked rest stop provides fuel and hydration midway through the ride.

Entry fees include detailed route sheets and maps thanks to RouteArrows; fuel and hydration at Farmington Fire Protection District, Milton Masonic Cemetery, Bellota Intake Facility; support and gear (SAG); and a delectable post ride meal catered by De Vinci's Ravioli Factory-Linden. Pedaling Paths to Independence is possible thanks to the generosity of the riders, sponsors, donors, volunteers and community partners who make it happen.

THANK YOU!
