DAY SOCIAL - Visit Kincumba Mountain

Kincumba Mountain Reserve is one of the largest preserved rainforests on the Central Coast. The 700ha site is a mixture of rugged terrain with a designated picnic area at Honeman's Rock, plus a unique mud-brick building established in 1985. The name 'Kincumba' is an indigenous word meaning 'towards the rising sun'.

Lunch at The Little Teapot

Located in the peaceful waterfront suburb of Davistown, The Little Teapot is a homely, quaint cafe boasting organic coffee, free range eggs and a huge variety of homemade cakes and delicious treats. The cafe now has a new smoked roof so you can enjoy the garden in all sorts of weather.
