CHRISTIANS ARE PEOPLE OF HOPE

Brothers and Sisters:

We have already heard the good news. In fact, we have heard the best news:

"Christ is alive! He is risen and has appeared to his disciples." Happy Easter to all of you! The sorrow that filled our heart at the Passion and death of Christ gives way to the unrestrained joy that his Resurrection brings.

1. It's not easy to believe in Jesus' Resurrection. The disciples had to experience the dark night of the soul after Good Friday. Together with the trauma of Jesus' violent death, they suffered because of the silence of so many unknown elements. So what would happen now? We can understand their anguish if we compare it to what we feel when we are waiting for someone who doesn't show up. They tell us that mom is coming on a trip, but she doesn't arrive when we expect her to. What could have happened? Our soul gets worried, and all sorts of images pass before our eyes. That's what the disciples were like, with a knot in their stomach.

The resurrected Jesus appears to Peter, to Mary Magdalene, and to Thomas, precisely to these three because they were doubting. They were more dead than alive. And he appears to the disciples of Emmaus because they had already lost hope. To all of them he brings new reasons to live.

2. Christ's Resurrection changed the world. Death was defeated when Christ accepted death; pain and suffering were conquered when Christ freely chose to suffer; sin was destroyed when Christ bore it on his shoulders. This is all true, even though death, suffering and sin still continue by our side. But they are no longer unable to be overcome. We must be men of hope. We can't walk through the world always predicting calamities; we must persevere in solid optimism, tested in love and in death, a realistic optimism that is also full of good humor. There is a new Beatitude intended for us: "Blessed are those who have not seen, yet still believe."

3. Every Sunday is a little Easter that becomes a reality in the Eucharist. It's as if the day arrives when I can go to the bank of mercy and cash in the check of life, joy and pardon that Christ gave me two thousand years ago on the day of his Resurrection. It's not written out to "the bearer"; it's written to my name, and no one else can cash it for me. Tomorrow could be too late. It's an invitation for us to live "like resurrected souls."

St. Paul invites us to "look for the things above, and not those of the world." Make a practical resolution: spend some time reading the Gospel narrative of everything that took place after the Resurrection. It will fill you with joy and peace. And how much do we need them after hearing all the bad news about catastrophes, death and abuse on the radio or on TV. Let us rather fill ourselves with good news that is a sign of God's presence. Let us be men of hope!

EL CRISTIANO ES UN HOMBRE QUE ESPERA

Hermanos y hermanas:

Ya hemos oído la buena noticia. Mejor dicho, la mejor noticia: "¡Cristo está vivo! Ha resucitado y se ha aparecido a sus discípulos". ¡Felices pascuas para todos! La tristeza que invadió nuestro corazón por la pasión y muerte de Cristo deja su lugar a la alegría incontenible que provoca su resurrección.

1. No es fácil creer en la resurrección de Jesús. Los discípulos tuvieron que experimentar la noche oscura del alma después del viernes santo. Junto al trauma de la muerte violenta de Jesús, tuvieron que sufrir el silencio de muchas incógnitas. ¿Y ahora que va a pasar? Entenderemos su angustia si la comparamos con lo que nos ocurre a nosotros cuando esperamos a alguien que no acaba de llegar. Nos anuncian que mamá viene de viaje, pero no llega cuando esperamos. ¿Qué habrá pasado? El alma se me encoge, me paso películas. Así estaban los discípulos con un nudo en la garganta.

Jesús se aparece, resucitado, a Pedro, a María Magdalena, y a Tomás, precisamente a ellos porque dudaban. Estaban más muertos que vivos. Y a los discípulos de Emaús porque ya habían perdido la esperanza. A todos les trae nuevos motivos para vivir.

2. La resurrección de Cristo cambió al mundo. La muerte fue vencida cuando Cristo aceptó morir; el dolor fue superado cuando Cristo aceptó libremente sufrir; el pecado fue destruido cuando Cristo lo cargó sobre sus hombros. Todo esto es verdad a pesar de que la muerte, el sufrimiento y el pecado siguen acompañándonos en nuestra existencia. Pero ya no son insuperables.

Debemos ser hombres de esperanza. No podemos andar por el mundo profetizando calamidades; debemos perseverar en un optimismo insobornable, hecho a prueba de amor y de muerte, muy realista pero lleno de buen humor. Hay una nueva bienaventuranza destinada a nosotros: "Bienaventurados los que sin ver creyeron".

3. Cada domingo es una pequeña Pascua que se actualiza en la eucaristía. Es como si fuera el día en que puedo cobrar en el banco de la misericordia ese cheque de vida, de alegría, de perdón que Cristo me entregó hace dos mil años, el día de su resurrección. No viene "al portador"; está a mi nombre y nadie lo puede cobrar por mí. Mañana podría ser demasiado tarde. Es una invitación para que vivamos "como resucitados".

San Pablo nos invita a "buscar los bienes de arriba; no los de la tierra". Haz un propósito práctico: Dedicar un tiempo a leer en el Evangelio la narración de todo lo que ocurrió después de la resurrección. Te llenará de alegría y paz.

¡Cuánto las necesitamos después de enterarnos de las malas noticias que oímos en la radio o en la TV sobre catástrofes, muertes, abusos! Busquemos las buenas noticias que son signos de la presencia de Dios. ¡Seamos hombres de esperanza!

Easter Greetings to Our Parishioners 2026
 Celebrating the Resurrection of Christ and the 250th Anniversary of Mission San Francisco de Asís

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
 Christ is risen! Alleluia! Alleluia!

With great joy, we celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ—the victory of life over death, light over darkness, and hope over despair. Easter reminds us that God is always faithful, bringing new life even from what seems lost or broken.

This year, our Easter joy is made even more special as we commemorate the 250th Anniversary of Mission San Francisco de Asís. For two and a half centuries, this sacred place has stood as a witness to faith, perseverance, and the enduring presence of Christ among His people. From its founding in 1776, Mission San Francisco de Asís has been a beacon of the Gospel—welcoming generations, nurturing faith, and sending forth disciples. As we celebrate this milestone, we give thanks for all who have gone before us, whose faith laid the foundation upon which we continue to build.

The Resurrection we celebrate today is not only an event of the past—it is a living reality. The same risen Christ who conquered the tomb continues to dwell among us, calling us to be people of hope, renewal, and mission.

May this Easter season renew our hearts. May the light of Christ shine ever more brightly in our parish community.

And may we, inspired by 250 years of faith, continue to proclaim the Good News with courage and joy.

Let us go forth as Easter people—living the Resurrection in our daily lives and sharing its promise with all we meet. Wishing you and your loved ones a blessed and joyful Easter. Christ is risen! Alleluia!

Sincerely in Christ,
 Father Francis
