THE FRUITS OF THE MISSIONS

If a missionary family knocked on your door during Holy Week to invite you to renew your faith in the risen Christ, you would be able to better understand the message of this Gospel passage in which Christ sends his disciples two by two with the mission of announcing to the whole world that the Kingdom of God is at hand.

1. The number of Christians that accept Jesus' message are not few, yet not all of them feel the need to bring it to others. They have grown used to thinking that this task belongs to priests or nuns as evangelization specialists. The Second Vatican Council reminded us that "laypeople have a missionary responsibility in this secularized world, in the workplace, on the streets, in the big cities."

2. This missionary awareness was very much alive among the first Christians and St Peter recalls that the group of generous coworkers in Rome is large and that they are made up of men, women, entire families. Thanks to them Christianity spread, person to person, quickly, along the roads of the Roman empire. They felt the urgent and important drive to share their faith with others.

3. The missionary who brings Jesus' message instills peace. Christian peace is the happiness that springs from an encounter with God. This is the main attitude that a follower of Jesus should have wherever he is: giving peace. In our day-to-day vocabulary, "peace" means the absence of conflicts, but in the Gospel it means the fullness of goods that the Messiah brought to mankind.

Pope John XXIII used to say that "a peaceful world is one in which there is not only order and unity, but especially justice and charity." Practically speaking, peace is the art of being in agreement. One can only have peace by the ability to forgive, the willingness to sacrifice, by generous self-giving, by understanding others, by being open to all sensibilities. Is there peace in our soul?

Gandhi used to say that "violence is the weapon of the weak and non-violence is the weapon of the strong." In reality the weapon of the strong is love. It's the power that bonds together because first it removes all injustice. We are all impressed when we see a person who is able to stay peaceful and serene in situations in which one would normally only be anguished and afraid. How can one calm anguish, worry, nervousness, confusion, fear? Jesus tells us: "Let your heart not be troubled!" The remedy is confidence in God.

LOS FRUTOS DE LAS MISIONES

Si durante la Semana Santa ha llamado a la puerta de tu casa una familia misionera para invitarte a renovar tu fe en Cristo resucitado, podrás entender mejor el contenido de este Evangelio, en el que Cristo envía a sus discípulos de dos en dos con la misión de anunciar al mundo entero que el Reino de Dios está cerca.

1. No son pocos los cristianos que aceptan el mensaje de Jesús, sin embargo no todos sienten la necesidad de llevarlo a los demás. Se han acostumbrado a pensar que ésta es una tarea que corresponde a los sacerdotes o a las religiosas como especialistas de la evangelización. El concilio Vaticano segundo nos ha recordado que "a los laicos les corresponde una tarea misionera en este mundo secularizado, en los lugares de trabajo, en medio de las calles, en las grandes ciudades".

2. Entre los primeros cristianos era muy viva la conciencia misionera, y San Pedro recuerda que es numeroso el grupo de generosos colaboradores que hay en Roma y son hombres, mujeres, familias enteras. Gracias a ellos el cristianismo se difundió, de persona a persona, velozmente, por los caminos del imperio romano. Sentían como urgente e imperiosa la exigencia de compartir con otros su propia fe.

3. El misionero que lleva el mensaje de Jesús transmite la paz. La paz cristiana es la felicidad que brota del encuentro con Dios. Es ésta la primera actitud que debe adoptar el seguidor de Jesús en cualquier lugar donde se encuentre: dar la paz. En nuestro lenguaje de todos los días "paz" se traduce como ausencia de conflictos, pero en el Evangelio significa la plenitud de los bienes que el Mesías trajo a la humanidad.

El Papa Juan XXIII decía que "un mundo pacífico es aquel en el que no sólo hay orden y unidad, sino sobre todo donde hay justicia y caridad". En la práctica la paz es el arte de estar de acuerdo. Sólo es posible conquistarla con la capacidad de perdonar, la disponibilidad al sacrificio, la entrega generosa, la comprensión de los demás, la apertura a todas las sensibilidades. ¿Está en paz nuestra alma?

Decía Gandhi que "la violencia es el arma de los débiles y la no violencia el arma de los fuertes". En realidad el arma de los fuertes es el amor. Es el poder que cohesiona porque primero elimina todas las injusticias. A todos nos impresiona cuando vemos a una persona que es capaz de mantener la paz y la serenidad en situaciones en las que de costumbre se piensa encontrar sólo angustia y temor. ¿Cómo calmar el ansia, la inquietud, el nerviosismo, la turbación, el miedo? Jesús nos dice: "¡que no tiemble vuestro corazón!" El remedio es la confianza en Dios.

PASTOR'S UPDATE: April 20, 2025

RESTROOM PROJECT

COST: $792,748.88

Total Expense (as of April February 9, 2025) $ 408,742.22

Total Collected:$ 292,010.76 (as of April 20, 2025)

Grand Industries, our contractor started the work last October 21, 2024. The Ramp is now operational and being use by the people. The roofings are now all done. The painting the outside and inside were done. The Electrical fixtures were all installed. The fence and gates are all installed and operational. The tile workers are now working on the wall and floor tiles. What is next is the installation of the bathroom and plumbing fixtures.

The portable toilets are working well for the parishioners. We ask for your continued patience and bear the inconvenience during this time.

There is some good news and some sad news. The "good news" is we have money to start. The sad news is it's still in your hands/pockets. We received donations from the campaign, but we will still have to borrow from our emergency fund from the archdiocese, which means we will have to replenish it.

We invite you to continue to support and be generous with this project. Please make your pledge. This is our house, our parish. Together, we can do it. Please consider our 5-year giving plan option.
