

PARENTAL CODE OF CONDUCT

Parental support is critical to the success of any sports program.

With this fact and responsibility, we want to make sure that there is clarity regarding the following expectations of the parents' role and involvement in all ExCEL programs.

As the Parent(s) / Guardian(s), I/we will set a good example to my/our child in his/her development by acknowledging and adhering at all times to the following:

- You are your child's number one role model.
- Allow the coach to coach the team. Keep your sideline comments to supportive ones only. Do not yell instructions to the players, coaches or officials.
- Relieve the pressure of competition by helping players enjoy practices and games.
- Help the coach and your player(s) by making sure they are on time and properly equipped for all practices and games.
- Treat all participants (players, coaches, officials and spectators) with the same respect that you would want for your own child.
NEVER YELL AT OR ENGAGE IN ANY ALTERCATIONS, VERBAL, PHYSICAL, OR WRITTEN, WITH ANOTHER PARTICIPANT
- Learn all you can about the game. Before you attempt to interpret the rules of the game, be sure you know and understand them.
- Show your appreciation for good play, no matter who makes it.
- Remember the game is for the players and no one else. Do all you can to support them.
- Remember that disrespect, sarcasm, negative remarks and unsolicited advice have never helped a child enjoy his or her sporting experience.
- Take an active interest in how participation in sports affects your child. Help them know that good sportsmanship is as important as winning.
- Support the team, club, and league, as they strive to give your child a positive experience. Volunteer when you can. Say "thanks" to those who give their free time.

Together we can build the best possible sports experience for our children.

Any Violation of the ExCEL Parent Code of Conduct Agreement may result in a suspension or revocation of a Parent's and/or their Player's ability to participate in any ExCEL program.

I have read this document and I understand and agree to all of the terms, process, and consequences stated herein, including the discretion afforded the TISD ExCEL administration and sports officials in determining the consequences assigned under this Agreement.
