Land Acknowledgement

There were people here long before we came to live on this land as settlers and descendants of settlers. We acknowledge these many Nations of Indigenous people who first lived and currently live here. We give thanks to this land, the territory(s) of these Haudenosaunee and Anishinaabe peoples. We do this to acknowledge our responsibility to enhance and promote peace among all who now share this land, as well as good stewardship of it and its resources.

LIGHTING THE CHRIST CANDLE

(Light the Christ candle) These short days of February we yearn for light. We must wake up before dawn breaks, and night descends upon us early in the evening. Oh, how we crave light. Into this reality has come Jesus the Christ, the One we call the Light of the World. It is with that assurance that we light the Christ candle.

CALL TO WORSHIP

What does it mean to be salt and light to the world?

Salt preserves. Light keeps things from being hidden.

What does it mean to be salt and light to the world?

To hold on to what is good. To hold on to what is right. To hold on to what is just. To shine in the back rooms of oppression. To shine in the prisons of fear. To shine in places that have no hope.

This is salt and light to the world.

This is Christ’s people— salt and light— hope and wonder—in and with the world!

As salt and light, as hope and wonder, let us worship God!

Alleluia!!

GATHERING PRAYER

Gathered in worship, loving God, we offer up our prayers. In prayer, we open ourselves to your grace, your call, your judgment, and your vision for us. Wrap us in your care while listening to our words and thoughts; transform our needs into a call. Amen.

VU #581, When We Are Living

When we are living, it is in Christ Jesus,
and when we're dying, it is in the Lord.
Both in our living and in our dying
we belong to God, we belong to God.

Through all our living, we our fruits must give.
Good works of service are for offering.
When we are giving or when receiving,
we belong to God, we belong to God.

Mid times of sorrow and in times of pain
when sensing beauty or in love's embrace,
whether we suffer or sing rejoicing,
we belong to God, we belong to God.

Across this wide world, we shall always find
those who are crying with no peace of mind,
but when we help them, or when we feed them,
we belong to God, we belong to God.
