All Saints/All Souls

It seems unusual that our church liturgical calendar schedules two major celebrations on days that are back-to-back. But that is precisely the situation with the solemnity of All Saints, a liturgical feast, and the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed (All Souls), a liturgical observance.

All Saints is a churchwide holy day of obligation and normally celebrated on Nov. 1. During these early November celebrations, those of us still living (the “church militant”) unite our hearts with, and in a special way remember, the faithful departed, whether they be in heaven (“church triumphant”) or in purgatory (“church suffering”).

All Saints’ Day, which began most likely as All Martyrs’ Day, can be traced to the earliest Christians. By the third century, the followers of Christ were annually honoring their brothers and sisters who had given their lives (martyred) while witnessing for and defending Jesus Christ. Typically, on the anniversary of a martyr’s death, those living would gather to remember and offer prayers at the tomb or place where the deceased had died. All Souls’ Day follows All Saints’ Day (November 1). While All Saints’ Day honors those already in Heaven, All Souls’ Day focuses on those still on their journey toward God—those in Purgatory. Catholics believe in the power of prayer, charity, and Mass to help souls on their journey to eternal life. All Souls’ Day reminds us that death doesn’t break the bonds of love—we can still care for those who have gone before us.

FAITH FORMATION

Prayer for All Saints Day

Almighty God, Today we honor the saints who walked faithfully before us. May their example inspire us to live with courage, love, and grace. Grant us strength to follow in their footsteps, so that we too may grow in holiness and share in Your eternal joy. Amen

St. Vincent de Paul Reflection

November 2: All Souls Day

In the Gospel today, Jesus promises not to reject anyone who comes to Him, for this is the will of His Father.

Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you also show your acceptance of our Lord by joyfully sharing your goods with your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless, alone and frightened.

A Prayer for a Truly Thankful Heart

Lord, teach us to offer you a heart of thanksgiving and praise in all our daily experiences of life.

Teach me to be joyful always, to pray continually, and to give thanks in all my circumstances. Amen.

Thank you for your great generosity for the Back to School Food Drive.....we will still gratefully accept donations for this as the need is great.

The New Angels

You may have noticed our new Angel Statues positioned on both sides of the altar. They were delivered by a company from Boston and were imported from Vietnam.

They were handmade by sculptor artisans in Vietnam.

It is hoped they will enhance the beauty of the sanctuary for all parishioners.
