HERITAGE ACADEMY

Complaints Policy

'Verily, Allah enjoins Al-Adl (i.e. justice) and Al-Ihsan [i.e. to be patient in performing your duties to Allah, totally for Allah's sake and in accordance with the Sunnah and giving to kith and kin and forbids Al-Fahsha' and Al-Munkar and Al-Baghy (i.e. all kinds of oppression), He admonishes you, that you may take heed.'
(Quran 16: 90)

Written/ updated: September 2026	Next Review: September 2027 (or sooner if required)
Person Responsible:	Headteacher
Reviewed by:	Proprietorial Body

This policy should be read in conjunction with our:
Equal Opportunities Policy Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy ICT Acceptable Use Policy Behaviour, Rewards and Sanctions Policy Admissions Policy Staff discipline conduct policy Privacy notices

Contents

1. Aims 2
2. Legislation and guidance 3
3. Scope 3
4. Roles and responsibilities 3
5. Principles for investigation 4
6. Stages of complaint (not complaints against the headteacher or proprietors) 5
7. Complaints against the headteacher, a proprietor or the proprietor board 8
8. Referring complaints on completion of the school's procedure 9
9. Unreasonable and persistent complaints 10
10. Record keeping and confidentiality 12
11. Learning lessons 13
12. Monitoring arrangements 13
13. Number of complaints received 14

---

1. Aims

Our school aims to meet its statutory obligations when responding to complaints from parents/carers of current pupils about matters relating to their child. Concerns raised by people who are not parents/carers of current pupils will be handled respectfully and appropriately, but are not required to follow this statutory complaints procedure.

When responding to complaints, we aim to:

- Be impartial and non-adversarial
- Facilitate a full and fair investigation by an independent person or panel, where necessary
- Address all the points at issue and provide an effective and prompt response
- Respect complainants' desire for confidentiality
- Treat complainants with respect and courtesy
- Make sure that any decisions we make are lawful, rational, reasonable, fair and proportionate, in line with the principles of administrative law
- Keep complainants informed of the progress of the complaints process
- Consider how the complaint can feed into school improvement evaluation processes

We try to resolve complaints by informal means wherever possible. Where this is not possible, formal procedures will be followed. The school will aim to give the complainant the opportunity to complete the complaints procedure in full. To support this, we will make sure we publicise the existence of this policy and make it available on the school website. Throughout the process, we will be sensitive to the needs of all parties involved, and make any reasonable adjustments needed to accommodate individuals who have learning difficulties, disabilities, or who speak English as an additional language.

2. Legislation and guidance

This document meets the requirements set out in part 7 of the schedule to the Education (Independent School Standards) Regulations 2014, which states that we must have and make available a written procedure to deal with complaints from parents/carers of pupils at the school.

It also has regard to the Department for Education (DfE) Best practice guidance for academies complaints procedures, which is based on Part 7 of the Education (Independent School Standards) Regulations 2014.

3. Scope

This policy does not cover complaints procedures relating to:

- Admissions
- Statutory assessments of special educational needs (SEN)
- Safeguarding matters
- Suspension and permanent exclusion
- Whistle-blowing
- Staff grievances
- Staff disciplinary procedures (although complaints about staff conduct may be raised under this policy)

Please see our separate policies for procedures relating to these types of complaint.

A parent/carer may raise a complaint about the conduct of a member of staff under this procedure. Any resulting staff disciplinary process will be dealt with separately under the school's staff disciplinary procedures and will remain confidential. The complainant will be informed that the matter is being addressed but will not be given confidential details of any disciplinary action.

Complaints about services provided by other providers who use school premises or facilities should be directed to the provider concerned.

People can complain to us if they believe we haven't correctly followed data protection legislation in the way we've handled their personal information (or the personal information of someone they're acting on behalf of).Data protection complaints will be handled in accordance with the following specific requirements outline din our data protection policy.

4. Roles and responsibilities

4.1 The complainant

The complainant will get a more effective and timely response to their complaint if they:

- Follow these procedures
- Co-operate with the school throughout the process, and respond to deadlines and communication promptly
- Ask for assistance as needed
- Treat all those involved with respect

- Do not approach individual proprietors about the complaint
- Do not publish details about the complaint on social media

4.2 The investigator

An individual will be appointed to look into the complaint and establish the facts. They will:

- Interview all relevant parties, keeping notes
- Consider records and any written evidence and keep these securely
- Prepare a comprehensive report to the headteacher or complaints committee, which includes the facts and potential solutions

4.3 The complaints co-ordinator

The complaints co-ordinator can be:

- The headteacher
- The designated complaints proprietor
- Any other staff member providing administrative support

The complaints co-ordinator will:

- Keep the complainant up to date at each stage in the procedure
- Make sure the process runs smoothly by liaising with staff members, the headteacher, chair of proprietors, and clerk
- Be aware of issues relating to:
    - Sharing third-party information
    - Additional support needed by complainants; for example, interpretation support or where the complainant is a child or young person
- Keep records

4.4 Clerk to the proprietor board

The clerk will:

- Be the contact point for the complainant and the complaints committee, including circulating the relevant papers and evidence before complaints committee meetings
- Arrange the complaints hearing
- Record and circulate the minutes and outcome of the hearing

4.5 Committee chair

The committee chair will:

- Chair the meeting, ensuring that everyone is treated with respect throughout
- Make sure all parties see the relevant information, understand the purpose of the committee, and are allowed to present their case

No person will take part in considering a complaint where they have a conflict of interest or where there is reasonable doubt about their ability to act impartially. In such circumstances, they will withdraw from the complaints process.

5. Principles for investigation

When investigating a complaint, we will try to clarify:

- What has happened
- Who was involved
- What the complainant feels would put things right

5.1 Timescales

The complainant must raise the complaint within 3 months of the incident. If the complaint is about a series of related incidents, they must raise the complaint within 3 months of the last incident.

We will consider exceptions to this timeframe in circumstances where there were valid reasons for not making a complaint at that time and the complaint can still be investigated in a fair manner for all involved.

When complaints are made out of term time, we will consider them to have been received on the first school day after the holiday period.

If at any point we cannot meet the timescales we have set out in this policy, we will:

- Set new time limits with the complainant
- Send the complainant details of the new deadline and explain the delay

6. Stages of complaint (not complaints against the headteacher or proprietors)

We have adopted a 3-stage process for dealing with complaints:

- Stage 1 – informal resolution
- Stage 2 – formal investigation
- Stage 3 – review panel

6.1 Stage 1: informal

Our school will take informal complaints seriously and make every effort to resolve the matter quickly. It may be the case that the provision or clarification of information will resolve the issue.

The complainant should raise the complaint as soon as possible within the timescales set out in section 5.1.

The complaint should be addressed to the relevant member of school staff or the headteacher, either in person or by letter, telephone or email. If the complainant is unclear who to contact or how to contact them, they should contact the school office on 01214402222.

The school will acknowledge informal complaints within 10 school days, which will confirm how the school intends to proceed, including an indication of the anticipated timescale.

The informal stage will involve a meeting between the complainant and the headteacher and/or the subject of the complaint, if appropriate. A written response will be provided by the school within 10 school days following the informal meeting.

If the complaint is not resolved informally, it will be escalated to a formal complaint.

6.2 Stage 2: formal

The formal stage involves the complainant putting the complaint in writing to the headteacher. Formal complaints about members of staff will be considered by the headteacher or another suitably appointed person. Where the complaint concerns the headteacher or proprietors, section 7 applies.

- By letter or email to info@heritage-academy.co.uk
- In writing through a third party acting on their behalf, provided the complainant has given written consent for the school to communicate and share relevant information with that person

The complainant should provide details such as relevant dates, times and the names of witnesses of events, alongside copies of any relevant documents. The complainant should also state what they feel would resolve the complaint.

If a complainant has a sufficient reason why they cannot make the formal complaint in writing, including where a reasonable adjustment is required, the school will provide appropriate assistance. Complainants can contact the school office on 01214402222 for support.

The headteacher will record the date the complaint is received and will acknowledge receipt of the complaint in writing (either by letter or email) within 10 school days.

The headteacher (or other person appointed by the headteacher for this purpose) will then conduct their own investigation. The written conclusion of this investigation will be sent to the complainant within 10 school days.

How to escalate a complaint

If the complainant wishes to proceed to the next stage of the procedure, they should inform the clerk to the proprietor board in writing within 10 school days. Requests received outside of this timeframe will be considered in exceptional circumstances.

Requests to escalate to Stage 3 must be made in writing to the clerk to the proprietor board:

- By letter or email
- In writing through a third party acting on behalf of the complainant, provided the complainant has given written consent

The clerk will need the details of the complaint as set out above, as well as details from the complainant on how they feel the previous stage of the procedure has not addressed their complaint sufficiently, and what they feel would resolve the complaint.

The clerk will acknowledge receipt of the request within 10 school days.

6.3 Stage 3: review panel

Convening the panel

Complaints will be escalated to the panel hearing stage if the complainant is not satisfied with the response to the complaint at the second, formal stage.

The panel will be appointed by, or on behalf of, the proprietor and must consist of at least 3 people who were not directly involved in the matters detailed in the complaint. At least 1 panel member must be independent of the management and running of the school. The panel cannot be made up solely of proprietor board members, as they are not independent of the management and running of the school.

The panel will have access to the existing record of the complaint's progress (see section 10).

The complainant must have reasonable notice of the date of the review panel. The clerk will aim to find a date within 10 school days of the request, where possible.

If the complainant rejects the offer of 3 proposed dates without good reason, the clerk will set a date. The hearing will go ahead using written submissions from both parties.

Any written material will be circulated to all parties at least 5 school days before the date of the meeting.

The board will ensure that the hearing is properly minuted.

At the meeting

The meeting will be held in private. Electronic recordings of meetings or conversations are not normally permitted unless required as part of reasonable adjustments. Prior knowledge and consent of all parties attending will be sought before meetings or conversations take place. Consent will be recorded in any minutes taken. Unless exceptional circumstances apply, recordings obtained covertly or without the informed consent of all parties will not normally be accepted as evidence.

At the review panel meeting, the complainant and representatives from the school, as appropriate, will be present. Each will have an opportunity to set out written or oral submissions prior to the meeting.

The complainant must be allowed to attend the panel hearing and be accompanied if they wish. We don't encourage either party to bring legal representation, but will consider it on a case-by-case basis. For instance, if a school employee is called as a witness in a complaint meeting, they may wish to be supported by their union.

Representatives from the media are not permitted to attend.

At the meeting, each individual will have the opportunity to give statements and present their evidence, and witnesses will be called, as appropriate, to present their evidence.

The panel, the complainant and the school representative(s) will be given the chance to ask and reply to questions. Once the complainant and school representative(s) have presented their cases, they will be asked to leave and evidence will then be considered.

The panel will then put together its findings and recommendations from the case. The panel will also provide copies of the minutes of the hearing and the findings and recommendations to the complainant and, where relevant, the individual who is the subject of the complaint, and make a copy available for inspection by the proprietor and headteacher.

The outcome

The committee can:

- Uphold the complaint, in whole or in part

- Dismiss the complaint, in whole or in part

If the complaint is upheld, the committee will:

- Decide the appropriate action to resolve the complaint
- Where appropriate, recommend changes to the school's systems or procedures to prevent similar issues in the future

The school will inform those involved of the decision in writing within 10 school days. The written outcome will explain the panel's conclusions and the reasons for its decision and will set out any further route available to the complainant.

7. Complaints against the headteacher, a proprietor or the proprietor board

7.1 Stage 1: informal

Complaints made against the headteacher or any individual member of the proprietor board (including the chair or vice-chair) should be directed to the clerk of the proprietor board in the first instance.

A suitably skilled and impartial proprietor will then carry out the steps at stage 1 set out in section 6 above.

If the complaint is not resolved informally, it will be escalated to a formal complaint.

Complaints about the whole proprietor board will proceed directly to Stage 2 below and, if the complainant remains dissatisfied, to Stage 3.

How to escalate a complaint

Requests to escalate must be made in writing to the clerk to the proprietor board at info@heritage-academy.co.uk

- By letter or email
- In writing through a third party acting on behalf of the complainant, provided the complainant has given written consent

The clerk will need the details of the complaint as set out above, as well as details from the complainant on how they feel the previous stage of the procedure has not addressed their complaint sufficiently, and what they feel would resolve the complaint.

7.2 Stage 2: formal

Complaints that involve or are about the headteacher should be addressed to the chair of proprietors, via the school office, marked as private and confidential.

Complaints about the chair of proprietors, any individual proprietor or the whole proprietor body should be addressed to the clerk to the proprietor board via the school office, marked as private and confidential.

Formal complaints must be made in writing:

- By letter or email

- In writing by a third party acting on behalf of the complainant, provided the complainant has given written consent

Where a complainant has a sufficient reason why the formal complaint cannot be made in writing, including where a reasonable adjustment is required, the school will provide appropriate assistance.

If the complaint is about the headteacher or an individual proprietor, a suitably skilled and impartial proprietor will then carry out the steps at stage 2 set out in section 6 above.

If the complaint is:

- Jointly about the chair and vice-chair or
- The entire proprietor board or
- The majority of the proprietor board

An independent investigator will carry out the steps in stage 2 set out in section 6 above. They will be appointed by the proprietor board and will write a formal response at the end of their investigation.

The written conclusion of this investigation will be sent to the complainant within 10 school days.

If the complainant wishes to proceed to the next stage of the procedure, they should inform the clerk to the proprietor board in writing within 10 school days. Requests received outside of this timeframe will be considered in exceptional circumstances.

The clerk will acknowledge receipt of the request within 10 school days.

7.3 Stage 3: review panel

If the complainant remains dissatisfied following Stage 2, the complaint will proceed to a review panel. The panel hearing will follow the requirements and process set out in section 6.3, including the requirement for at least three panel members who were not directly involved in the matters complained about and at least one member who is independent of the management and running of the school. This applies to complaints about the headteacher, the chair, an individual proprietor, the majority of the proprietor board or the whole proprietor board.

8. Referring complaints on completion of the school's procedure

If the complainant is unsatisfied with the outcome of the school's complaints procedure and the complaint is regarding the school not meeting standards set by the DfE in any of the following areas, the complainant can refer their complaint to the DfE:

- Education
- Pupil welfare and health and safety
- School premises
- Staff suitability
- Making information available to parents
- The spiritual, moral, social or cultural development of pupils

The DfE will not reinvestigate complaints but will check whether we followed our procedure correctly. The DfE will consider reports of a major failure to meet the standards. Where appropriate, it can arrange an emergency inspection to look at pupil welfare and health and safety, and make sure that the school deals with serious failings.

For more information or to refer a complaint, see the following webpage:

www.gov.uk/complain-about-school

9. Unreasonable and persistent complaints

9.1 Unreasonable complaints

Most complaints raised will be valid, and therefore we will treat them seriously. However, a complaint may become unreasonable if the person:

- Refuses to articulate their complaint or specify the grounds of a complaint or the outcomes sought by raising the complaint, despite offers of assistance
- Refuses to co-operate with the complaints investigation process
- Refuses to accept that certain issues are not within the scope of the complaints procedure
- Insists on the complaint being dealt with in ways which are incompatible with the complaints procedure or with good practice
- Introduces trivial or irrelevant information which they expect to be taken into account and commented on
- Raises large numbers of detailed but unimportant questions, and insists they are fully answered, often immediately and to their own timescales
- Makes unjustified complaints about staff who are trying to deal with the issues, and seeks to have them replaced
- Changes the basis of the complaint as the investigation proceeds
- Repeatedly makes the same complaint (despite previous investigations or responses concluding that the complaint is groundless or has been addressed)
- Refuses to accept the findings of the investigation into that complaint where the school's complaint procedure has been fully and properly implemented and completed
- Seeks an unrealistic outcome
- Makes excessive demands on school time by frequent, lengthy and complicated contact with staff regarding the complaint in person, in writing, by email and by telephone while the complaint is being dealt with
- Uses threats to intimidate
- Uses abusive, offensive or discriminatory language or violence
- Knowingly provides falsified information
- Publishes unacceptable information on social media or other public forums

Please note: the above list is not intended to be exhaustive and is for guidance purposes only. The school will consider each case on its individual circumstances and will act reasonably and proportionately when deciding whether behaviour or correspondence is unreasonable.

Complainants should try to limit their communication with the school while the complaint is being progressed. It is not helpful if repeated correspondence is sent (either by letter, phone, email or text), as it could delay the outcome being reached.

Steps we will take

We will take every reasonable step to address the complainant's comments, and give them a clear statement of our position and their options. We will maintain our role as an objective arbiter throughout the process, including when we meet with individuals. We will follow our complaints procedure as normal (as outlined above) wherever possible.

Whenever possible, the headteacher or chair of proprietors will discuss any concerns with the complainant informally before treating behaviour or correspondence as unreasonable. If the behaviour continues, the headteacher will write to the complainant explaining the concerns, refer them to this policy and remind them to act in accordance with it. For complainants who excessively contact the school causing a significant level of disruption, we may:

- Give the complainant a single point of contact via an email address
- Limit the number of times the complainant can make contact, such as a fixed number per term
- Ask the complainant to engage a third party to act on their behalf, such as Citizens Advice
- Put any other strategy in place as necessary

In response to any serious incident of aggression or violence, we will immediately inform the police and communicate our actions in writing. This may include barring an individual from school premises and ensuring appropriate measures of support are provided to staff where they are the subject of aggression and/or violence. Before a bar is confirmed, the individual will be given an opportunity to make formal representations. The decision will then be reviewed by the chair of proprietors or another suitably impartial proprietor or committee. If the bar is confirmed, the individual will be informed in writing how long it will remain in place and when it will be reviewed.

9.2 Serial/persistent complaints

If the complainant contacts the school again on the same issue after all stages of the complaints procedure have been completed, the correspondence about that subject may then be viewed as 'serial' or 'persistent'. Any such designation will apply to the subject or complaint itself, rather than to the complainant. We may stop responding about that subject when the following conditions are met:

- We have taken every reasonable step to address the complainant's concerns
- The complainant has been given a clear statement of our position and their options
- The complainant contacts the school repeatedly, making substantially the same points each time

The case to stop responding is stronger if:

- The complainant's communications are often or always abusive or aggressive
- The complainant makes insulting personal comments about or threats towards staff

- We have reason to believe the individual is contacting the school with the intention of causing disruption or inconvenience

Where we decide to stop responding, we will inform the individual that we intend to do so. We will also explain that we will consider any new complaints they make provided the concerns raised are materially different to those raised previously and/or are unconnected to the previous concern. We will not stop responding solely because an individual is difficult to deal with or asks complex questions, and a complainant will not be treated as serial or persistent merely for exercising a right to refer a matter to their Member of Parliament.

9.3 Duplicate complaints

If we have resolved a complaint under this procedure and receive a duplicate complaint on the same subject from a partner, family member or other individual, we will assess whether there are aspects that we hadn't previously considered, or any new information we need to take into account.

If we are satisfied that there are no new aspects, we will:

- Tell the new complainant that we have already investigated and responded to this issue, and that the local process is complete
- Direct them to the DFE if they are dissatisfied with our original handling of the complaint

If a duplicate complaint is raised which in the view of the school warrants further consideration, the procedure outlined in section 6 or 7 (as appropriate) will be repeated.

9.4 Complaint campaigns

Where the school receives a large volume of complaints about the same topic or subject, especially if these come from complainants unconnected with the school, the school may respond to these complaints by:

- Publishing a single response on the school website
- Sending a template response to all of the complainants

If complainants are not satisfied with the school's response, or wish to pursue the complaint further, the normal procedures will apply.

10. Record keeping and confidentiality

The school will record the progress of all complaints, including information about actions taken at all stages, the stage at which the complaint was resolved, and the final outcome. The records will also include copies of letters and emails, and notes relating to meetings and phone calls.

This material will be treated as confidential and stored securely, and will be viewed only by those involved in investigating the complaint or on the review panel.

This is except where the secretary of state (or someone acting on their behalf) or the complainant requests access to records of a complaint through a freedom of information (FOI) request or through a subject access request under the terms of the Data Protection Act, or where the material must be made available during a school inspection.

Records of complaints will be kept securely, only for as long as necessary and in line with data protection law, our privacy notices and record retention schedule.

The details of the complaint, including the names of individuals involved, will not be shared with the whole proprietor board in case a review panel needs to be organised at a later point.

Where the proprietor board is aware of the substance of the complaint before the review panel stage, the school will (where reasonably practicable) arrange for an independent panel to hear the complaint.

Complainants also have the right to request an independent panel if they believe there is likely to be bias in the proceedings. The decision to approve this request is made by the proprietor board, who will not unreasonably withhold consent. The complainant should provide any evidence of potential bias in support of the request.

11. Learning lessons

The proprietor board will review any underlying issues raised by complaints with the headteacher where appropriate, and respecting confidentiality, to determine whether there are any improvements that the school can make to its procedures or practice to help prevent similar events in the future.

12. Monitoring arrangements

The proprietor board will monitor the effectiveness of the complaints procedure in making sure that complaints are handled properly. The proprietor board will track the number and nature of complaints, and review underlying issues as stated in section 11.

The complaints records are logged and managed by our data protection officer.

This policy will be reviewed annually by the proprietor board, or sooner if required.

13. Number of complaints received

In the academic year 2025-2026 the number of complaints received was 0