Introduction

Welcome, and thank you for spending a slice of your time with us as you read our humble book. Please allow us to introduce ourselves. Collectively, we are the staff of stocknewsphotos.com. We appreciate and honor your curiosity, and hope you find our work to be as fulfilling to look at as it was for us to create it. Our staff loves history, and we are truly privileged to capture it within the pages of this book. With a daring mix of both pride and humility, stocknewsphotos.com presents: Likeness of Lincoln.

Mission

Extensivley travel the American Heartland with camera in tow capturing the meticulous beauty of as many noteworthy likenesses of President Lincoln as possible while honoring the arduous labor of the artists who toiled to create them. Then, upon completion of this daunting, costly task, releasing our work to the public absolutely free of charge. May our work be your joy.

"If God now wills the removal of a great wrong, and wills also that we of the North as well as you of the South, shall pay fairly for our complicity in that wrong, impartial history will find therein new cause to attest and revere the justice and goodness of God."

Letter to Albert Hodges, April 4, 1864

The background of the image is a stylized, wavy American flag. The stars are white on a light blue field, and the stripes are red and white. The flag appears to be waving, with soft folds and shadows.
