Player Pathway

At Iowa Rush, we understand that every child is unique, and their soccer journey should be tailored to their individual needs and aspirations. Regardless of your child's age or skill level, we offer a diverse range of programs designed to provide the perfect position for them. Our commitment is to ensure that every child can find their place in the world of soccer and develop their skills, passion, and love for the game. Value Player of the Month- Accountability

Madison Hames has been nominated as the Iowa Rush Core Value Player of the Month for her exceptional demonstration of accountability. A member of the 2012 Gold Girls team, Madison embodies the core value of accountability when it comes to her development both on and off the field. She is habitually recognizes when her decisions might be counter to her learning experiences. Madison is attentive and always ready to respond with answers that showcase a deeper understanding of the Rush curriculum. She has a keen capacity to implement her learning experiences into her play and is supportive of her teammates as they problem solve together. Congratulations to Madison on this well-deserved nomination.
