Your holiday itinerary (ex Perth, Western Australia)

Day 1. Perth to Bunbury (D)
Your holiday begins with a scenic coach journey down the South West Highway, stopping for a delicious French pastry at Café Cherie in Pinjarra. On arrival in Bunbury, savour a relaxed lunch before visiting the extraordinary Featured Wood Gallery in Australind, where craftsmanship meets storytelling through wood. Later, settle into your hotel and take a stroll along the picturesque Koombana Bay foreshore before enjoying a welcome dinner.

3 Nights: Bunbury Hotel Koombana Way, Bunbury

Day 2. Collie Mural Trail and Wellington Dam (BLD)
Today is all about art and inspiration in Collie and the Ferguson Valley. We travel inland to explore the Collie Mural Trail, a fascinating outdoor gallery of large-scale artworks. Enjoy morning tea at Soldier Park before a guided tour and lunch at the historic Collie Railway Station Museum. Marvel at the record-breaking Wellington Dam mural, created by artist Guido van Helten. Back in Bunbury, round off the day with a visit to the vibrant Regional Art Gallery before a delicious Chinese banquet dinner.

Day 3. Coalfields History and Heritage (BLD)
Delve into Collie's rich history this morning with an informative visit to the Coalfields Museum and its immersive underground coal mine experience. After exploring the historic Anglican Church and local op shop treasures, we unwind over lunch at the quirky Bush Shack Brewery. This afternoon, wind through the rolling hills of the Ferguson Valley and stop by the whimsical Gnomesville. Optional visit to the Bunbury Museum and Heritage Centre before dinner.

Day 4. Bunbury to Perth via Harvey (BL)
Farewell the South West with a relaxed drive home along the scenic Harvest Highway. We stop at Harvey Cheese to sample gourmet delights and stock up on some favourites, before a final farewell lunch in Pinjarra. Then it is onwards to Perth, where we see you safely home.
