Day 1. Perth to Bunbury (D)

With courtesy collection, make your way to the beautiful South West on board your luxury. Enjoy a delightful morning tea at the French Patisserie Café Cherie in Pinjarra. Next, enjoy the picturesque views and the tranquil atmosphere as we journey to the charming city of Bunbury. Arrive and settle in at your Bunbury hotel, where you can unpack and explore the foreshore before a relaxing dinner. Three nights: Bunbury Hotel Koombana Bay, Bunbury

Day 2. Collie Mural Trail and Wellington Dam (BLD)

Today we explore the incredible art and fascinating stories along the Collie Mural Trail, a world class outdoor art experience. Refuel with morning tea before a guided tour of the Collie Railway Station Museum. Visit the Wellington Dam to take in the world's largest dam wall mural inspired by local stories and photographs. In the afternoon, enjoy a guided tour of the historic Anglican Church in Collie. Retreat to your hotel for a siesta before we regroup sharing in Chinese flavours to celebrate the cultured day.

Day 3. Coalfields History and Heritage (BLD)

This morning we dive into the local history and heritage at the Coalfields Museum. Immerse in a replica underground coal mine tour before we emerge in the lush and relaxing grounds of the Bush Shack Brewery, Dardanup. Take a scenic drive through the picturesque Ferguson Valley, stopping at the whimsical Gnomesville on the return to Bunbury.

Day 4. Collie to Perth (BL)

Travel home on the Harvest Highway via the charming rural towns of Brunswick Junction and Harvey. Pip stop at Harvey Cheese for some last minute sampling and gourmet produce to take home, before a farewell lunch brings us together for one final occasion before continuing to Perth where we will see you safely home to your door.
