Your holiday itinerary (ex Perth, Western Australia)

Day 1. Perth to Canberra (D)

We collect you from home for your flight to Canberra. On arrival transfer to your central hotel and settle in for a relaxing evening. Enjoy dinner together and unwind after your day of travel as you prepare for the cultural treasures ahead.

Five nights: Novotel Canberra

Day 2. National history and Canberra Autumn at the arboretum (BD)

Begin your day at the Museum of Australian Democracy housed within the historic Old Parliament House. Step through decades of political history and admire the beautifully preserved architecture. From here we will visit the Canberra Arboretum to see the beautiful autumn foliage and see the bonsai collection at the Village centre. After you can enjoy lunch at leisure at the National Museum of Australia before taking a highlight tour.

Day 3 Parliament House, Cold Creek Cattle Station and Cockington Gardens (BLD)

This morning, you have the chance to see what our present day political atmosphere looks like with a Parliament House Tour. Leave the seriousness behind as we venture to a working cattle station on the fringes of Canberra for a dog mustering, sheep sheering demonstration and a bbq lunch. On the way back into Canberra, call in at the iconic Cockington Green Gardens where meticulously handcrafted miniature buildings are set amongst beautifully landscaped gardens.

Day 4. From a space station to a historic homestead. (BLD)

This morning we depart the city of Canberra to visit the Deep Space Complex, managed by the CSIRO for NASA. See the largest dish in the Southern Hemisphere plus the original dish that received and broadcast the first images of humans walking on the moon. For lunch, visit the restored 1850's Lanyon Homestead, established before Canberra! Enjoy some free time in the afternoon in Canberra. before dinner and After dinner, enjoy images of Australian and New Zealand service personnel, historical photographs, and the names of past conflicts are projected onto the façade of the Australian War Memorial.

Day 5. ANZAC DAY (BD)

Today is the day we can pay our respects to our service men and women who have sacrificed so much for our country. Join in from the very beginning of the day with the dawn service or you may choose to watch the parade a little later.

Enjoy a drive to Bungadore, Australia's Top Small Tourist Town in 2025 for some free time. We will return in time to finish the day with a special Last Post in the late afternoon.

Day 6. Canberra to Perth (B)

After breakfast, transfer to Canberra Airport for your return flight to Perth. On arrival your courtesy vehicle will ensure you are returned safely to your door.
